The Jew, the Cathedral and the Medieval City Nina Rowe,2011-04-04 In the thirteenth century sculptures of Synagoga and Ecclesia paired female personifications of the Synagogue defeated and the Church triumphant became a favoured motif on cathedral fa ades in France and Germany Throughout the preceding centuries the Jews of northern Europe prospered financially and intellectually a trend that ran counter to the long standing Christian conception of Jews as relics of the prehistory of the Church In this book Nina Rowe examines the sculptures as defining elements in the urban Jewish Christian encounter She locates the roots of the Synagoga Ecclesia motif in antiquity and explores the theme s public manifestations at the cathedrals of Reims Bamberg and Strasbourg considering each example in relation to local politics and culture Ultimately she demonstrates that royal and ecclesiastical policies to restrain the religious social and economic lives of Jews in the early thirteenth century found a material analog in lovely renderings of a downtrodden Synagoga placed in the public arena of the city square General Register University of Michigan,1960 Announcements for the following year included in some vols Catalogue of the University of Michigan University of Michigan,1960 Announcements for the following year included in some vols
