the opening lines of Paradise Lost that he will justify the ways of God to men 1 26 It is concerned with the natural order God has decreed for man Because man cannot know God s purposes he cannot complain about his position in the Great Chain of Being ll 33 34 and must accept that Whatever IS is RIGHT l 292 a theme that was satirized by Voltaire in Candide 1759 More than any other work it popularized optimistic philosophy throughout England and the rest of Europe Pope s Essay on Man and Moral Epistles were designed to be the parts of a system of ethics which he wanted to express in poetry Moral Epistles has been known under various other names including Ethic Epistles and Moral Essays On its publication An Essay on Man received great admiration throughout Europe Voltaire called it the most beautiful the most useful the most sublime didactic poem ever written in any language In 1756 Rousseau wrote to Voltaire admiring the poem and saying that it softens my ills and brings me patience Kant was fond of the poem and would recite long passages from it to his students Later however Voltaire renounced his admiration for Pope s and Leibniz s optimism and even wrote a novel Candide as a satire on their philosophy of ethics Rousseau also critiqued the work questioning Pope s uncritical assumption that there must be an unbroken chain of being all the way from inanimate matter up to God The essay written in heroic couplets comprises four epistles Pope began work on it in 1729 and had finished the first three by 1731 They appeared in early 1733 with the fourth epistle published the following year The poem was originally published anonymously Pope did not admit authorship until 1735 Author Alexander Pope 21 May 1688 30 May 1744 was an 18th century English poet He is best known for his satirical verse his translation of Homer and for his use of the heroic couplet He is the second most frequently quoted writer in The Oxford Dictionary of Quotations after Shakespeare The Essay on Man is a philosophical poem written in heroic couplets and published between 1732 and 1734 Pope intended this poem to be the centrepiece of a proposed system of ethics that was to be put forth in poetic form It was a piece of work that Pope intended to make into a larger work however he did not live to complete it The poem is an attempt to vindicate the ways of God to Man a variation on Milton s attempt in Paradise Lost to justify the ways of God to Man 1 26 It challenges as prideful an anthropocentric world view The poem is not solely Christian however it makes an assumption that man has fallen and must seek his own salvation It consists of four epistles that are addressed to Lord Bolingbroke Pope presents an idea on his view of the Universe he says that no matter how imperfect complex inscrutable and disturbing the Universe appears to be it functions in a rational fashion according to the natural laws The natural laws consider the Universe as a whole a perfect work of God To humans it appears to be evil and imperfect in many ways however Pope points out that this is due to our limited mindset and limited intellectual capacity Pope gets the message across that humans must accept their position in the Great Chain of Being which is at a middle stage between the angels and the beasts of the world If we are able to accomplish this then we potentially could lead happy and virtuous lives
