Essayism Conrad Musil And Pirandello:

Essayism Thomas J. Harrison,1992      Robert Musil and the NonModern Mark M. Freed,2011-04-28 Musil's novel The Man Without Qualities is widely recognized as a monument of modernist literature alongside Remembrance of Things Past and Ulysses. But while Musil is a major scholarly industry in the German speaking world critical attention from English speaking scholars remains disproportionately small. Moreover there has been little engagement with Musil's contribution to cultural theory from those working outside literary studies. Freed brings Musil into dialogue with such critics of the modern as Nietzsche, Heidegger, Derrida and Lyotard and argues that Musil's theory and literary performance of essayism constitutes a strategy of nonmodernity that is an engagement with the problems of modernity that does not reinscribe the distinctions on which modernism grounded itself. This book not only offers an understanding of Musil's essayism made possible by Latour's account of modernity it also articulates what the discursive and cultural project of nonmodernity might look like. The book thereby introduces Musil scholars and those working in the problematics of postmodernism to one another's interests.

Virginia Woolf's Essayism Randi Saloman,2014-06-18 Explores the way Woolf used essay writing techniques to develop her own conception of the modern novel. This book focuses on Woolf's vast output of essays and their relation to her fiction. Saloman shows that it was by employing tools and methods drawn from The Intersection of Science and Literature in Musil's "The Man Without Qualities" Thomas Sebastian,2005 A fresh view of the interplay of science and literature affecting Musil's great novel. As the utopian projection of a world in which the conditional mood is preferred to the indicative Robert Musil's ambitious novel The Man Without Qualities is widely recognized as a great example of aesthetic modernism and a profound reflection on the postmodern condition. Based on the new and more inclusive English translation by Sophie Wilkins and Burton Pike this study provides the English speaking reader with a well researched commentary that situates Musil's novel in the cultural literary and scientific context of the early 20th century. Revealing the novel's many philosophical underpinnings the study analyzes the intersection of theoretical reflection and aesthetic imagination essential to Musil's programmatic move beyond realism. Thomas Sebastian explores Musil's background in experimental psychology which he studied under the pioneering psychologist Carl Stumpf and how it and other strains of scientific thought including that of Ernst Mach on whose philosophical ideas Musil wrote his doctoral thesis are reflected in his great novel. Thomas Sebastian is Associate Professor of German at Trinity University in San Antonio Texas      Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length. The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays. The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings.

and anthologies     Pirandello's Theatre of Living Masks Umberto Mariani, Alice Gladstone Mariani, 2011-08-06 Nobel Prize winning dramatist Luigi Pirandello is known worldwide for his innovative complex plays In Pirandello's Theatre of Living Masks Umberto Mariani and Alice Gladstone Mariani offer the first new edition in nearly sixty years of six of his major works Liola It Is So If You Think So Six Characters in Search of an Author Henry IV Each in His Own Way and The Mountain Giants Mariani and Mariani's translations of these texts are both vibrant and faithful to the originals using contemporary expressions and unambiguous language to facilitate readability and comprehension This edition also offers a critical introduction to each play's most significant characters and structures highlighting themes and poetics as they correspond to Pirandello's entire body of work Pirandello's Theatre of Living Masks will appeal to those already familiar with his plays and those looking to discover one of the twentieth century's great dramatists     The Critical Response to Musil's The Man Without Qualities Timothy J. Mehigan, 2003 Table of contents     Of Essays and Reading in Early Modern Britain S. Black, 2006-11-03 This study focuses on the co evolution of the essay and the mode of literacy it enabled and the interactive processes of reading with a new approach to early modern textuality It shows how the genre served to record test and disseminate the skills required and how the essay was adopted as a mechanism by various intellectual disciplines     The Essay Film Timothy Corrigan, 2011-08 Why have certain kinds of documentary and non narrative films emerged as the most interesting exciting and provocative movies made in the last twenty years Ranging from the films of Ross McElwee Bright Leaves and Agnes Varda The Gleaners and I to those of Abbas Kiarostami Close Up and Ari Folman Waltz with Bashir such films have intrigued viewers who at the same time have struggled to categorize them Sometimes described as personal documentaries or diary films these eclectic works are rather best understood as cinematic variations on the essay So argues Tim Corrigan in this stimulating and necessary new book Since Michel de Montaigne essays have been seen as a lively literary category and yet despite the work of pioneers like Chris Marker seldom discussed as a cinematic tradition The Essay Film offering a thoughtful account of the long rapport between literature and film as well as novel interpretations and theoretical models provides the ideas that will change this     Characters and Authors in Luigi Pirandello Ann Caesar, 1998 Luigi Pirandello is best known in the English speaking world for his radical challenge to traditional Western theatre with plays such as Six Characters in Search of an Author But theatre is just one manifestation of his experiments with language which led to a remarkable collection of novels short stories and essays as well as his work for a film industry then in its infancy This study which is based on the view that Pirandello's writings are most fruitfully discussed in a European context takes as its starting point the author's belief in the primacy of the literary character in a creative process which is necessarily conflictual The book argues that all Pirandello's characters are engaged in a continual performance which transcends the genre distinction between narrative and dramatic forms In this performance it is the spoken word in which the characters invest most heavily as they struggle to sustain an identity of their own tell their life stories and assert themselves before their most prominent antagonist the author himself      Luigi Pirandello Gian-Paolo Biasin,Manuela Gieri,1999-01-01 Essays discuss the texts of Luigi Pirandello one of the literary giants of this century and present an up to date re evaluations of Pirandello s works including his poetry novels short stories plays essays letters and memoirs      Understanding Luigi Pirandello Fiora A. three decades of the twentieth Intellectually provocative this collection is the first attempt in the field of Italian Studies at a comprehensive account of Italian literary modernism Each contributor documents how previous critical categories employed to account for the literary artistic and cultural experiences of the period have provided only partial and inadequate descriptions preventing a fuller understanding of the complexities and the interrelations among the cultural phenomena of the time Electronic Format Disclaimer Images removed at the request of the rights holder Modernism in Trieste Salvatore Pappalardo, 2021-01-14 When we think about the process of European unification our conversations inevitably ponder questions of economic cooperation and international politics Salvatore Pappalardo offers a new and engaging perspective arguing that the idea of European unity is also the product of a modern literary imagination This book examines the idea of Europe in the modernist literature of primarily Robert Musil Italo Svevo and James Joyce but also of Theodor D ubler and Srecko Kosovel all authors who had a deep connection with the port city of Trieste Writing after World War I when the contested city joined Italy these authors resisted the easy nostalgia of the postwar period radically reimagining the origins of Europe in the Mediterranean culture of the Phoenicians contrasting a 19th century nationalist discourse that saw Europe as the heir of a Greek and Roman legacy These writers saw the Adriatic city a cosmopolitan bazaar under the Habsburg Empire as a social laboratory of European integration Modernism in Trieste seeks to fill a critical gap in the extant scholarship securing the literary history of Trieste within the context of current research on Habsburg and Austrian literature The Novel-Essay, 1884-1947 S. Ercolino, 2014-04-08 The novel essay emerged in France in the last quarter of the nineteenth century and reached its highest formal complexity in Austria and Germany during the interwar period Here Ercolino argues that it is crucial for a renovated understating of the history of the novel in modernity Telling Stories Jane Tormey, Gillian Whiteley, 2020-07-24 Trespassing disciplines and binding together practice and theory Telling Stories Visual Practice Theories and Narrative crosses strange territories and occupies liminal spaces It addresses a contemporary preoccupation with narrative and narration which is being played out across the arts humanities and beyond and considers how visual and performative encounters contribute to thinking How might they tell theories Telling Stories results from a series of symposia held at Loughborough University School of Art and Design in 2007 The programme included papers screenings and performances and was based around the convenors shared interests in Peggy Phelan s notion of performative writing and in the examination of inter disciplinary forms of narrative and counter narrative It specifically focused on three aspects experimental forms of Theories and Criticism Objects and Narrative and the particular form of the Cinematic Essay and explored how the performative move could also be said to apply to forms of contemporary art practice to what photography film objects wish to say This resulting edited collection presents contemporary making and writing practices as multi faceted interdisciplinary and trans medial and is indicative of an attitude that sets out to encounter the world its social conditions its global perspectives and the nature of aesthetic discussion that is no longer confined by formalism
