annotated bibliography describing editing and critical works on three of Chaucer's tales The authors make extensive use of the standard bibliographies of English literature medieval studies and Chaucerian studies Landscape and Englishness ,2006-01-01 In the papers collected in this the first volume of the Spatial Practices series Englishness is reflected in the spaces it occupies or dwells in Broadly influenced by a renewed and growing interest in questions of cultural identity its emergence in Victorian theories and fictions of nationality and the new cultural geography the papers cover a rich variety of spaces and places which have been appropriated for cultural meanings the rural countryside and farmland of the Home Counties in the early nineteenth century as Arcadian idyll in Cobbett as the land to die for in war propaganda and as nostalgia for a unified organic English culture in Lawrence Morton and Priestley's travel writing but also in the Shell Tourist Guides to motoring in rural England English moorland the sacred geographies of monuments in Hardy and others the traditional seaside deconstructed in Martin Parr's photography and the sea as English Victorian imperial territory and its symbolic breezes in Froude's travel writing The English landscape is also a paradigm for the description of other places in D H Lawrence's travel writing or for the colonial territory itself in Rushdie's writing India a displacement of other landscapes This collection of papers examines the assumption that constructions of rural England provide the basis for an understanding of Englishness Catholic Women's Colleges in America Tracy Schier, Cynthia Russett, 2003-05-22 More than 150 colleges in the United States were founded by nuns and over time they have served many constituencies setting some educational trends while reflecting others In Catholic Women's Colleges in America Tracy Schier Cynthia Russett and their coauthors provide a comprehensive history of these institutions and how they met the challenges of broader educational change The authors explore how and for whom the colleges were founded and the role of Catholic nuns in their founding and development They examine the roots of the founders spirituality and education they discuss curricula administration and student life And they describe the changes prompted by both the church and society beginning in the 1960s when decreasing enrollments led some colleges to opt for coeducation while others restructured their curricula partnered with other Catholic colleges developed specialized programs or sought to broaden their base of funding Contributors Dorothy M Brown

 Monk, 1976-04-12 John Dryden was first published in 1976 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions This annotated bibliography represents a comprehensive updating of Samuel Holt Monk's earlier work also published by the University of Minnesota Press John Dryden A List of Critical Studies Published from 1895 to 1948 out of print Since the publication of that earlier bibliography the number of studies devoted to Dryden has more than tripled and thus this new bibliography is essential for scholars of Dryden or related aspects of seventeenth and eighteenth century English literature This volume contains four times as many entries as the earlier volume and there is an extensive introduction by Professor Latt which surveys the historical shifts in critical opinion of Dryden The new volume incorporates all of the listings contained in the first one The entries include works that focus directly on Dryden those that discuss Dryden's works in the context of other writers and those that investigate material of general importance to Dryden studies Dissertations from American German English and French universities are included Complete bibliographic information is provided for virtually every entry The listings are grouped in nine categories and there is an additional section which covers festschriften and other collections of essays Works of exceptional value and those which develop new points of view are so designated The publishing history of each item is included along with the standard bibliographic information The index includes topical as well as author entries

Yes, But Not Quite Dwayne A. Tunstall, 2009-08-25 This book contends that Josiah Royce bequeathed to philosophy a novel idealism based on an ethico religious insight This insight became the basis for an idealistic personalism wherein the Real is the personal and a metaphysics of community is the most appropriate approach to metaphysics for personal beings especially in an often impersonal and technological intellectual climate The first part of the book traces how Royce constructed his idealistic personalism in response to criticisms made by George Holmes Howison That personalism is interpreted as an ethical and panentheistic one somewhat akin to Charles Hartshorne's process philosophy The second part investigates Royce's idealistic metaphysics in general and his ethico religious insight in particular In the course of these investigations the author examines how Royce's ethico religious insight could be strengthened by incorporating the philosophical theology of Dr Reverend Martin Luther King Jr and Emmanuel Levinas's ethical metaphysics The author concludes by briefly exploring the possibility that Royce's progressive racial anti essentialism is in fact a form of cultural antiblack racism and asks whether his cultural antiblack racism taints his ethico religious insight The Publishers Weekly
