interested in Broad s theories and twentieth century philosophical thought A Life in Linguistics Gabriela Alboiu, Daniela Isac, Alexandru Nicolae, 2022-01-01 Alexandra Cornilescu is an internationally renowned linguist whose pioneering ideas have been influential in developing generative grammar in Romania Europe and beyond The weightiness of her contributions to the field is matched only by her talent for disseminating them Ever since 1970 when she started teaching at the University of Bucharest she has continuously played a tireless and inspirational role in the creation of several generations of linguists which the academic world has come to admiringly refer to as The Bucharest School As the initiator of the AICED conference held annually in the English Department at the University of Bucharest she has turned it into one of the leading platforms of generative linguistics in Europe She has published extensively on Romanian and English linguistics and is also the founder and past editor of the journal Bucharest Working Papers in Linguistics On the occasion of her 75th birthday her friends students and colleagues celebrate Alexandra Cornilescu s work with this collection of essays on various topics of current theoretical interest All Hands ,1950 Geographical Essays William Morris Davis,1909 Exegetical Essays, 3rd Edition Don Garlington,2003-10-13 Exegetical Essays is a collection of thirteen biblical studies The purpose of each is to fill a gap in New Testament research or to offer alternate understandings of familiar passages The second edition of these Essays incorporates corrections and updated documentation and presents three new studies The order of the articles follows as closely as possible the canonical biblical text The book commences with a consideration of the biblical theological method followed by an Old Testament essay and then proceeds through the Gospels Paul and Revelation and concludes with review articles of two recent notable books How to Read the Chinese Novel David L. Rolston,2014-07-14 Fiction criticism has a long and influential history in pre modern China where critics would read and reread certain novels with a concentration and fervor far exceeding that which most Western critics give to individual works This volume a source book for the study of traditional Chinese fiction criticism from the late sixteenth to the early twentieth centuries presents translations of writings taken from the commentary editions of six of the most important novels of pre modern China These translations consist mainly of tu fa or how to read essays which demonstrate sensitivity and depth of analysis both in the treatment of general problems concerning the reading of any work of fiction and in more focused discussions of particular compositional details in individual novels The translations were produced by pioneers in the study of this form of fiction criticism in the West Shuen fu Lin Andrew H Plaks David T Roy John C Y Wang and Anthony C Yu Four introductory essays by Andrew H Plaks and the editor address the historical background for this type of criticism its early development its formal features recurrent terminology and major interpretive strategies A goal of this volume is to aid in the rediscovery of this traditional Chinese poetics of fiction and help eliminate some of the distortions encountered in the past by the imposition of Western theories of fiction on Chinese novels Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press

These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Metaphysics, Method and Politics James Connelly, 2015-10-19 This book argues that R G Collingwood developed a complete and coherent political philosophy of civilization In making this case it also demonstrates that Collingwood's philosophical work comprises a unity in which although there was development there is no fundamental discontinuity between his earlier and later writings A philosophy of civilization must situate its subject matter within the full context of human experience and therefore Collingwood's political philosophy of civilization must be situated within the context of his whole philosophy The book presents the case that Collingwood developed a coherent philosophy of politics and civilization that this had its roots in both the early and the later work and that his overall philosophical approach comprises a generally consistent and integrated whole

Baptism and Resurrection Alexander J. M. Wedderburn, 2011-01-01 The assumption that Romans 6 and 1 Corinthians 15 reflects a borrowing of ideas from Graeco Roman mystery initiations is not the likeliest explanation of these texts nor does justice either to recent studies of the mysteries nor to the difficulty in reinterpreting resurrection to refer to a spiritual state which the baptized enjoyed in the present Spiritual phenomena may have shown early Christians in the Graeco Roman world that they had life but not resurrection Dying with Christ has other roots than the mysteries and the latter should not be interpreted in the light of Paul but dying and coming to life again is a theme common to a great many rites of passage

Essays on Significs H. Walter Schmitz, 1990 Significs is one of those by no means exclusively sign theoretically relevant movements which arose at the turn of the century It established a philosophical tradition which from its very inception was interlaced with widely varying movements ranging for example from Breal's semantics to Carnap's and Neurath's logical empiricism In this volume an international group of well known scholars from various disciplines undertakes a broad re evaluation of significs and its development which promises also to yield a better knowledge of research approaches in linguistics semiotics philosophy and psychology with which significs was related or vied for acceptance Contributions deal with Lady Welby's biography and socio cultural background the intellectual context of the signific movement at the turn of the century and the relationships between Welby's semiotic and philosophical ideas on the one hand and those of her contemporaries Breal Peirce Schiller Vailati etc and followers Ogden Van Eeden Mannoury etc on the other Descriptions of the historiographically most important archive materials a bibliography of publications on Lady Welby and her significs and an index of names conclude the volume
