China's Soviet Dream Yan Li, 2017-09-05 This book examines the introduction of Soviet socialist culture in the People's Republic of China with a focus on the period of Sino Soviet friendship in the 1950s The vast state initiative to transplant Soviet culture into Chinese soil has conventionally been dismissed as a tool of propaganda and political indoctrination However this book demonstrates that this transnational engagement not only facilitated China's broader transition to socialist modernity but also generated unintended consequences that outlasted the propaganda Drawing on archival findings newspapers magazines media productions and oral interview the book delves into changes in Chinese popular imagination and everyday aesthetics contingent upon Soviet influence It proposes a revisionist view of the Soviet impact on China revealing that Soviet culture offered Chinese people the language and imagery to conceive of their future as a dream about material abundance self determination and the pleasures of leisure and cultural enrichment Written with a transnational interdisciplinary and thematic approach this book is aimed at scholars and students in the fields of Sino Soviet relations international socialism modern Chinese history cultural studies and mass communication It will also be of interest to researchers seeking to understand the nature significance and repercussions of Sino Soviet cultural engagement

Essentials of Chinese Medicine Zhanwen Liu, 2011-03-08 The Essentials of Chinese Medicine is a text book intended for international students who wish to gain a basic understanding of Chinese Medicine CM at the university level The idea of writing such a text was originated from the Sino American Consortium for the Advancement of Chinese Medicine SACAM which was founded in February 2000 In 1995 the British Hong Kong Administration set up a Preparatory Committee for the Development of Chinese Medicine to look into ways of bringing Chinese medical practice and herbal trade under proper control and regulation After the reunification of Hong Kong with mainland China in 1997 the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region continued the efforts to uplift the practice of CM to a fully professional level through legislation To help bring up a new generation of professional CM practitioners the Hong Kong Baptist University HKBU obtained approval from the Government's university funding authority to develop a School of Chinese Medicine to prepare students who will meet the future professional requirements through public examinations. In order to establish itself quickly as a rigorous provider of university level CM education, HKBU sought alliance with eight major CM universities in the Chinese Mainland and one US university which was interested in developing CM education within its medical college. As a result, the Consortium known as SACACM was formed with ten founding institutions from Beijing, Shanghai, Nanjing, Shenyang, Guangzhou, Chengdu, Heilongjiang, Hong Kong, and the United States.
