The Harlem Group of Negro Writers, By Melvin B. Tolson Melvin B. Tolson, 2001-03-30 Melvin B. Tolson 1898-1966 was both a participant in and historian of the Harlem Renaissance, probably the most significant movement in African American literature and culture. Known mostly for his poetry and an unduly neglected figure in American literary history, Tolson was one of the first African American critics of the Harlem Renaissance. This book is an edition of his 1940 MA thesis, the first academic study of the Harlem Renaissance written by an African American scholar. Tolson's thesis, previously unpublished in its entirety, provides a unique look at this important era and draws heavily on his familiarity with some of the most important writers of the movement. Included are discussions of such major figures as Langston Hughes, Claude McKay, and W. E. B. Du Bois, along with chapters on lesser-known authors such as George Schuyler, Eric Walrond, and Jessie Fauset, who are now being rediscovered. An introductory essay surveys the history of Harlem Renaissance criticism and Tolson's place in it and evaluates his methodology and use of sources The introduction additionally presents a brief biography and details the creation of his thesis The text of Tolson s thesis appears in its entirety along with his notes and those of the volume editor The book closes with a bibliography of works on Tolson and a large but selective bibliography on the Harlem Renaissance in general Ebony,1996-01 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Modernist Star Maps Aaron Jaffe,Jonathan Goldman,2016-12-05 Bringing together Canadian American and British scholars this volume explores the relationship between modernism and modern celebrity culture In support of the collection s overriding thesis that modern celebrity and modernism are mutually determining phenomena the contributors take on a range of transatlantic canonical and noncanonical figures from the expected Virginia Woolf and F Scott Fitzgerald to the surprising Elvis and Hitler Illuminating case studies are balanced by the volume s attentiveness to broader issues related to modernist aesthetics as the contributors consider celebrity in relationship to identity commodification print culture personality visual cultures and theatricality As the first book to read modernism and celebrity in the context of the crises of individual agency occasioned by the emergence of mass mediated culture Modernist Star Maps argues that the relationship between modernism and the popular is unthinkable without celebrity Moreover celebrity s strange evolution during the twentieth century is unimaginable without the intercession of modernism s system of cultural value This innovative collection opens new avenues for understanding celebrity not only for modernist scholars but for critical theorists and cultural studies scholars Lay Down Body Roberta Hughes Wright,Wilbur B. Hughes,1996 Recounting the struggles of African American people to maintain some vestige of their African American heritage through funeral rites and ownership of their burial grounds these compelling stories provide background information on cemeteries in the U S and Canada how and when they were founded who is buried there and the ongoing battle to maintain possession of them 100 photos
