Zoltan Kövecses,Réka Benczes,Veronika Szelid,2024-11-04 Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience informing and guiding many of our choices and actions Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines including linguistics a basic question has still remained unresolved why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages including a number of less researched languages this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience language and the larger cultural context

In Defense of Read-Aloud Steven Layne, 2023-10-10 As accountability measures for schools and teachers continue to grow instructional practice is under the microscope The practice of reading aloud to children may be viewed by some educators as an extra bit of fluff used solely for the purposes of enjoyment or filling a few spare minutes but researchers and practitioners stand in solidarity the practice of reading aloud throughout the grades is not only viable but also best practice In In Defense of Read Aloud Sustaining Best Practices author Steven Layne reinforces readers confidence to continue the practice of reading aloud and presents the research base to defend the practice in grades K12 Layne also offers significant practical insights to strengthen instructional practice answering the questions of Why should we and How should we and provides practical advice about how to use read alouds most effectively Leading researchers in the field of literacy provide position statements authors of professional books share insights on books they have loved leaders of the largest literacy organizations in the United States write about their favorite read alouds award winning authors of children s and young adult book Katherine Paterson Andrew Clements Lois Lowry to name a few share the powerful behind the scenes stories of their greatest books and real classroom teachers and librarians speak about books that have lit up their classrooms and libraries around the world Last but not least In Defense of Read Aloud features many great recommendations of books to share with children Read aloud is an essential practice in teaching literacy in grades K 12 In this book Steven Layne has provided everything needed to support sustain and celebrate the power of read aloud
