Eyewitness To Holocaust:

Eyewitness to Holocaust Magda Herzberger, 1982      Eyewitness Auschwitz Filip Müller, 1999-08-24 Filip Müller came to Auschwitz with one of the earliest transports from Slovakia in April 1942 and began working in the gassing installations and crematoria in May. He was still alive when the gassings ceased in November 1944. He saw millions come and disappear by sheer luck; he survived. Müller is neither a historian nor a psychologist; he is a source, one of the few prisoners who saw the Jewish people die and lived to tell about it. Eyewitness Auschwitz is one of the key documents of the Holocaust.      Under Swiss Protection Agnes Schallié, Charlotte Hirschi, 2017-11-30 This volume retraces Carl Lutz's diplomatic wartime rescue efforts in Budapest, Hungary, through the lens of Jewish eyewitness testimonies. Together with his wife Gertrud Lutz Fankhauser, the director of the Palestine Office in Budapest, Moshe Krausz, fellow Swiss citizens Harald Feller, Ernst Vonrufs, Peter Zacher, and the underground Zionist Youth Movement, Carl Lutz led an extensive rescue operation between March 1944 and February 1945. It is estimated that Lutz and his team of rescuers issued more than 50,000 lifesaving letters of protection (Schutzbrieife) and placed persecuted Jews in 76 safe houses, annexes of the Swiss Legation. Based on interviews with Holocaust survivors in Canada, Hungary, Israel, Switzerland, the UK, and the United States, this volume shines a light on the extraordinary scope and scale of Carl Lutz's humanitarian response.      Auschwitz & the Holocaust Ryan Jenkins, 2014-08-24 The Holocaust was a tragic time in world history, and one name most closely associated with this era is that of Auschwitz, one of several concentration camps where unspeakable and inhumane acts were committed. In this companion volume to The Holocaust: An Introduction, you will go through a detailed account of the camp, its methods of killing and cruelty, and more. Buy your copy today to become educated in both the far reaches of evil in those responsible and the heights of bravery in those that survived. Here's a Preview of What You Will Learn: Origins of Auschwitz, Witold Pilecki, Auschwitz I, Auschwitz Birkenau. First-hand accounts from the camps.      Keeping the Memory Rhoda Kaellis, 1991 Contains thirteen accounts, two of them by couples, by Jewish survivors from various countries in Europe, especially Germany, the Netherlands, Poland, and one from Indonesia. The following relate their experiences during the Holocaust in Europe: Jack Gardner, Duifje van Haren, Esther and Samuel van Dam, Willie Jacobs, Zofia Preisman, Kurt Weiss, Horst Rothfels, Edith and Henry Sitwell, Jannushka E. Jakoubovitch.      The Night of Broken Glass Uta Gerhardt, Thomas Karlauf, 2021-09-11 November 9th, 1938, is widely seen as a violent turning point in Nazi Germany's assault on the Jews. An estimated 400 Jews lost their lives in the anti-Semitic pogrom, and more than 30,000 were imprisoned or sent to concentration camps where many were brutally mistreated. Thousands more fled their homelands in Germany and Austria, shocked by what they had seen, heard, and experienced. What they took with them was not only the pain of saying farewell but also the memory of terrible scenes: attacks by mobs of drunken Nazis, public humiliations, burning synagogues, inhuman conditions in overcrowded prison cells and concentration camp barracks. The reactions of neighbours and passersby to these barbarities ranged from sympathy and aid to scorn mockery and abuse In 1939 the Harvard sociologist Edward Hartshorne gathered eyewitness accounts of the Kristallnacht from hundreds of Jews who had fled but Hartshorne joined the Secret Service shortly afterwards and the accounts he gathered were forgotten until now These eyewitness testimonies published here for the first time with a Foreword by Saul Friedlander the Pulitzer Prize historian and Holocaust survivor paint a harrowing picture of everyday violence in one of Europe's darkest moments This unique and disturbing document will be of great interest to anyone interested in modern history Nazi Germany and the historical experience of the Jews

Auschwitz Miklós Nyiszli, 1993
Auschwitz was one of the first books to bring the full horror of the Nazi death camps to the American public this is as the New York Review of Books said the best brief account of the Auschwitz experience available

The Liberation of the Nazi Concentration Camps 1945 Brewster S. Chamberlin, Marcia Feldman, 1987
Eyewitness accounts and testimonies given at the First International Liberators Conference held in Washington D C in Oct 1981

Jesus and the Eyewitnesses Richard Bauckham, 2008-09-22
Noted New Testament scholar Bauckham challenges the prevailing assumption the accounts of Jesus circulated as anonymous community traditions instead asserting that they were transmitted in the name of the original eyewitness

In the Shadow of the Holocaust James F. Tent, 2003
James Tent recounts how these men and women from all over Germany and from all walks of life struggled to survive in an increasingly hostile society even as their Jewish relatives were disappearing into the East It draws on extensive interviews with twenty survivors many of whom were teenagers when Hitler came to power to show how half Jews coped with conditions on a day to day basis and how the legacy of the hatred they suffered still lingers in their minds

Jesus and the Eyewitnesses, 2nd ed. Richard Bauckham, 2017-04-28
A groundbreaking work in New Testament studies expanded and updated Winner of the 2007 Christianity Today Book Award in Biblical Studies this momentous volume argues that the four Gospels are closely based on the eyewitness testimony of those who personally knew Jesus

Noted New Testament scholar Richard Bauckham challenges the prevailing assumption that the Jesus accounts circulated as anonymous community traditions asserting instead that they were transmitted in the names of the original eyewitnesses In this expanded second edition Bauckham is adding a new preface three substantial new chapters that respond to critics and clarify key points of his argument and a comprehensive new bibliography

Auschwitz Miklós Nyiszli, Bruno Bettelheim, 1993
Tells of the hideous experiments performed on Jewish victims at the infamous Nazi concentration camp

Guide to the YIVO Archives Yivo Institute For Jewish Research, 2019-08-08
YIVO founded in 1925 in Wilno Vilnius is a center for scholarship on East European Jewish history language and culture During the 1920s and early 1930s a network of YIVO affiliates was established across Europe and the Americas including one in New York which became the institute's new home when YIVO was reestablished in 1940 by members of its board who had escaped from Nazi occupied Europe This is the first repository level finding aid to the archives over 1 400 collections of the YIVO Institute for Jewish Research in New York It includes a brief history of the institute and archives descriptive entries on each collection a detailed index of key words and subject headings and information on the archive's basic services      Narratives of War Nanci Adler, Remco Ensel, Michael Wintle, 2019-05-30 Narratives of War considers the way war and battle are remembered and narrated across space and time in Europe in the twentieth century. The book reflects on how narratives are generated and deployed and on their function as coping mechanisms, means of survival, commemorative gestures, historical records, and evidence. The contributions address such issues as the tension and discrepancy between memory and the official chronicling of war, the relationship between various individuals' versions of war narratives and the ways in which events are brought together to serve varied functions for the narrators and their audiences. Drawing upon the two World Wars, the Spanish Civil War, and the ex-Yugoslav wars, and considering narrative genres that include film, schoolbooks, novels, oral history, archives, official documents, personal testimony, and memoirs, readers are introduced to a range of narrative forms and examples that highlight the complexity of narrative in relation to war. Approached from a multidisciplinary perspective and taken together, analysis of these narratives contributes to our understanding of the causes, experience, dynamics, and consequences of war, making it the ideal book for those interested in twentieth-century war history and the history of memory and narrative.

Global Discourse in Fractured Times Yahya R. Kamalipour, 2018-07-27 Communication and information facilitated by the internet and social media play a highly influential role in the daily lives of peoples around the world. Drawing attention to many contemporary issues, the contents of this eclectic, multifaceted international and well-researched volume are engaging, thought-provoking, and informative. This book will be of great value to researchers and media professionals and will serve as an essential resource for senior and graduate-level college courses in international communication, cultural studies, mass media, journalism, political communication, and related subjects.

Digital Cultural Heritage Horst Kremers, 2019-06-21 This book provides an overview of various application spheres and supports further innovations needed in information management and in the processes of knowledge generation. The professions, organizations, and scientific associations involved are unusually challenged by the complexity of the data situation. Cartography has always been the central field of application for georeferencing digital cultural heritage (DCH) objects. It is particularly important in enabling spatial relation analysis between any number of DCH objects or of their granular details. In addition to the pure geometric aspects, the cognitive relations that lead to knowledge representation and derivation of innovative use processes are also of increasing importance. Further, there is a societal demand for spatial reference and analytics, e.g., the extensive use of cognitive concepts of map and atlas for a variety of social topics in the media. There is a huge geometrical, logical, cognitive potential for complex multimedia digital cultural heritage databases, and stakeholders expect handling, transmission, and processing operations with guaranteed long-term availability for all other stakeholders. In the future, whole areas of digital multimedia databases will need to be processed to further our understanding of historical and cultural contexts. This is an important concern for the information society and presents significant challenges for cartography in all these domains. This book collects innovative technical and scientific work on the entire process of object digitization including detail extraction archiving and interoperability of multimedia DCH data

The Palgrave Handbook of Testimony and Culture Sara Jones, Roger Woods, 2023-04-19 This Palgrave Handbook examines the ways in which researchers and practitioners theorise analyse produce and make use of testimony It explores the full range of testimony in the public sphere including perpetrator testimony testimony presented through social media and virtual reality A growing body of research shows how complex and multi layered testimony can be how much this complexity adds to our understanding of our past and how creators and users of testimony have their own complex purposes These advances indicate that many of our existing assumptions about testimony and models for working with it need to be revisited The purpose of this Palgrave Handbook is to do just that by bringing together a wide range of disciplinary theoretical methodological and practice based perspectives

Words to Outlive Us Michal Grynberg, 2003-11 The story of the Warsaw Ghetto told through twenty eight never before published accounts a precious and historic find

Authority and the Historical Document in Late Twentieth-Century Literature Elizabeth Rich, 2021-08-23 After the Fact Authority and the Historical Document in Late Twentieth Century Literature examines six historiographic metafiction novels that critically employ archival documents The writers endeavor ethical and critical projects that reveal how authority is constructed in historical records comprised of an array of genres that perform ideological work

Witnessing Kelly Oliver, 2001-01-01 Challenging the fundamental tenet of the multicultural movement that social struggles turning upon race gender and sexuality are struggles for recognition this work offers a powerful critique of current conceptions of identity and subjectivity based on Hegelian notions of recognition The author s critical engagement with major texts of contemporary philosophy prepares the way for a highly original conception of ethics based on witnessing Central to this project is Oliver s contention that the demand for recognition is a symptom of the pathology of oppression that perpetuates subject object and same different hierarchies While theorists across the disciplines of the humanities and social sciences focus their research on multiculturalism around the struggle for recognition Oliver argues that the actual texts and survivors accounts from the aftermath of the Holocaust and slavery are testimonials to a pathos that is beyond recognition Oliver traces many of the problems with the recognition model of subjective identity to a particular notion of vision presupposed in theories of recognition and misrecognition Contesting the idea of an objectifying gaze she reformulates vision as a loving look that facilitates connection rather than necessitates alienation As an alternative Oliver develops a theory of witnessing subjectivity She suggests that the notion of witnessing with its double meaning as either eyewitness or bearing witness to the unseen is more promising than recognition for describing the onset and sustenance of subjectivity Subjectivity is born out of and sustained by the process of witnessing the possibility of address and response which puts ethical obligations at its heart
