While hiding from the limelight Banksy has made himself into one of the world's best known living artists His pieces have fetched millions of dollars at prestigious auction houses He was nominated for an Academy Award for his film Exit Through the Gift Shop Once viewed as vandalism his work is now venerated fans have gone so far as to dismantle the walls that he has painted on for collection and sale But as famous as Banksy is he is also utterly unknown he conceals his real name hides his face distorts his voice and reveals his identity to only a select few Who is this man that has captivated millions How did a graffiti artist from Bristol England find himself at the center of an artistic movement How has someone who goes to such great lengths to keep himself hidden achieved such great notoriety And is his anonymity a necessity to continue his vandalism or a marketing tool to make him ever more famous Now in the first ever full scale investigation of the artist reporter Will Ellsworth Jones pieces together the story of Banksy building up a picture of the man and the world in which he operates He talks to his friends and enemies those who knew him in his early unnoticed days and those who have watched him try to come to terms with his newfound fame and success And he explores the contradictions of a champion of renegade art going to greater and greater lengths to control his image and his work Banksy offers a revealing glimpse at an enigmatic figure and a riveting account of how a self-professed vandal became an international icon and turned the art world upside down in the process Rooms of One's Own Adrian Mourby, 2017-06-01 Writers relationships with their surroundings are seldom straightforward While some like Jane Austen and Thomas Mann wrote novels set where they were staying Lyme Regis and Venice respectively Victor Hugo penned Les Misérables in an attic in Guernsey and Noël Coward wrote that most English of plays Blithe Spirit in the Welsh holiday village of Portmeirion Award winning BBC drama producer Adrian Mourby follows his literary heroes around the world exploring 50 places where great works of literature first saw the light of day At each destination from the Brontës' Yorkshire Moors to the New York of Truman Capote Christopher Isherwood's Berlin to the now legendary Edinburgh café where J.K. Rowling plotted Harry Potter's first adventures Mourby explains what the writer was doing there and describes what the visitor can find today of that great moment in literature Rooms of One's Own takes you on a literary journey from the British Isles to Paris Berlin New Orleans New York and Bangkok and unearths the real life places behind our best loved works of literature Sale Anderson Galleries, Inc, 1909 The Global Encyclopaedia of Informality, Volume 1 Alena Ledeneva, 2018-01-17 Alena Ledeneva invites you on a voyage of discovery to explore society's
