Selected Readings in the Anthropology of Religion Stephen D. Glazier, Charles A. Flowerday, 2003-12-30 Brings together in one volume a number of key theoretical and methodological advances in the anthropological study of religion Chapters cover important topics not ordinarily included in books dealing with the anthropology of religion e.g. bipedalism the study of alcohol film and video images notions of religious agency In addition this collection is intended to build bridges between anthropologists of religion and religious studies scholars Over the last four decades anthropologists have grappled with the dialectical relationship between the examination of cultures from the emic or insider perspective and the etic or outsider perspective Nowhere is this creative tension more evident than in the anthropological study of religion In this volume anthropologists and religious studies scholars come to terms not only with a landscape that has shifted fundamentally but a landscape that is still shifting Essays in this collection raise new and important issues for the anthropological study of religion in new and important ways In intensely personal essays a number of contributors address two fundamental concerns in the study of religion 1 how should anthropologists deal with the beliefs and practices of others and 2 how should anthropologists deal with their own religious backgrounds and beliefs as these may affect their understanding of the beliefs and practices of others A partial resolution to both questions is necessary before the anthropological study of religion can advance to a higher level

Authority and Spectacle in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Yuen-Gen Liang, Jarbel Rodriguez, 2017-01-20 Bringing together distinguished scholars in honor of Professor Teofilo F. Ruiz this volume presents original and innovative research on the critical and uneasy relationship between authority and spectacle in the period from the twelfth to the sixteenth centuries focusing on Spain the Mediterranean and Latin America Cultural scholars such as Professor Ruiz and his colleagues have challenged the notion that authority is elided with high politics an approach that tends to be monolithic and disregards the uneven application and experience of power by elite and non-elite groups in society by highlighting the significance of spectacle Taking such forms as ceremonies rituals festivals and customs spectacle is a medium to project and render visible power yet it is also an ambiguous and contested setting where participants exercise the roles of both actor and audience

Chapters in this collection consider topics such as monarchy wealth and poverty medieval cuisine and diet and textual and visual sources The individual contributions in this volume collectively represent a timely re examination of authority that brings in the insights of cultural theory ultimately highlighting the importance of representation and projection negotiation and ambivalence Agriculture Handbook ,1987 Set includes revised editions of some issues A Dictionary of the
