Visualizing Equality Aston Gonzalez,2020-07-20 The fight for racial equality in the nineteenth century played out not only in marches and political conventions but also in the print and visual culture created and disseminated throughout the United States by African Americans Advances in visual technologies daguerreotypes lithographs cartes de visite and steam printing presses enabled people to see and participate in social reform movements in new ways African American activists seized these opportunities and produced images that advanced campaigns for black rights In this book Aston Gonzalez charts the changing roles of African American visual artists as they helped build the world they envisioned Understudied artists such as Robert Douglass Jr Patrick Henry Reason James Presley Ball and Augustus Washington produced images to persuade viewers of the necessity for racial equality black political leadership and freedom from slavery Moreover these activist artists' networks of transatlantic patronage and travels to Europe the Caribbean and Africa reveal their extensive involvement in the most pressing concerns for black people in the Atlantic world Their work demonstrates how images became central to the ways that people developed ideas about race citizenship and politics during the nineteenth century

Aboriginal Sports Coaches, Community, and Culture Demelza Marlin,Nicholas Apoifis,Andrew Bennie,2020-10-31 This book is the first to celebrate the stories of this group of Aboriginal mentors and leaders and present them in a form that is accessible to both academic and general audiences In this book Aboriginal sport coaches from all over Australia share stories about their involvement in sport and community offering insight into the diverse experiences of Aboriginal people in settler colonial Australia This collection amplifies the public voice of Aboriginal coaches who are transforming the social cultural and political lives of Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people

These stories have been overlooked in public discussion about sport and indigeneity Frank and often funny these intimate narratives provide insight into the unique experiences and attitudes of this group of coaches This book deepens our understanding of the shared and contested history of Aboriginal peoples engagement with sport in Australia Polis, Nation, Global Community Ann Ward,2021-08-12 This book examines the basic tenets of nation nationalism and citizenship It explores the relevance of the nation state to human freedom and flourishing as well as the concept of citizenship that it implies in contrast to that of the ancient polis and the global community The volume focusses on the shifting notions of various political concepts over time to present a systematic understanding of core concepts such as polis nation and state from antiquity to the present It includes contributions that analyze ancient and modern thought and sections that address postmodern and contemporary thinkers including Aristotle Cicero Hobbes Locke Rousseau Tocqueville Nietzsche Arendt Weil Grant and Manent A comprehensive handbook to introductory politics this book will be invaluable to students and teachers of political science especially political theory political philosophy democracy political participation and international relations theory At the Table of Power Diane M. Spivey,2022-09-13 At the Table of Power is both a cookbook and a culinary history that intertwines social issues personal stories and political commentary Renowned culinary historian Diane M Spivey offers a unique insight into the historical experience and cultural values of African America and America in general by way of the kitchen From the rural country kitchen and steamboat floating palaces to marketplace street vendors and restaurants in urban hubs of business and finance Africans in America cooked their way to positions of distinct superiority and thereby indispensability Despite their many culinary accomplishments most Black culinary artists have been made invisible until now Within these pages Spivey tells a powerful story beckoning and daring the reader to witness this culinary cultural and political journey taken hand in hand with the fight of Africans in America during the foundation years from colonial slavery through the Reconstruction era These narratives together with the recipes from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries expose the politics of the day and offer insight on the politics of today African American culinary artists Spivey concludes have more than earned a rightful place at the table of culinary contribution and power A Black Philadelphia Reader Louis J. Parascandola,2024-06-11 The relationship between the City of Brotherly Love and its Black residents has been complicated from the city s founding through the present day A Black Philadelphia Reader traces this complex history in the words of Black writers who were native to lived in or had significant connections to the city Featuring the works of famous authors including W E B Du Bois Harriet Jacobs Sonia Sanchez and John Edgar Wideman alongside lesser known voices this reader is an immersive and enriching composite portrait of the Black experience in Philadelphia Through fiction and nonfiction poetry and prose readers witness episodes of racial prejudice and gender inequality in areas like public health housing education policing criminal justice and public transportation And yet amid these myriad challenges the writers convey an enduring faith a love of family and community and a hope that Philadelphia will fulfill its promises to its Black citizens Thoughtfully introduced and accompanied by notes that contextualize the works and aid readers comprehension this book will appeal to a wide audience of Philadelphians and other readers interested in American African American and urban studies The Puzzle of the Posture 69 , My People Perish for Lack of Knowledge The Messenger,2016-12-06 My People Perish for Lack of Knowledge is an inspirational and empowering book that argues that our lack of knowledge can and will cause people to perish This book tries to sort through the misunderstandings and emotional obstructions that cause us all to make poor decisions The reader is in for a look into themselves and others The reader will also get to take a look into why we think or feel certain ways about ourselves and others Writing this book has taught me more about my own feelings and how I really feel My People Perish for Lack of Knowledge argues that we can thrive together or perish apart Knowing this and proving this fact leads you to the understanding that establishing this bond is the first step to starting a functional civilization
