Elizabeth Takes Off Elizabeth Taylor, 1989 Elizabeth Takes Off Elizabeth Taylor, 1987 Elizabeth Takes Off Elizabeth Taylor, 1987 No Men Wanted Rachel Baker Gale, 1903 The Outcasters Maestro Drake, 2011-11-22 Since 1995 I set out as an artist to create characters who were hideous strange and did not fit within the normal boundaries of a modern society The Circus Freaks my 1st creations are such examples of de humanizing humans placing them in a world where they are not accepted by the majority and must push their way uphill to gain power After 15 years of creating many people places and things based on the real world publishing books including this one I came to an epiphany Who you are in relation to someone else depends not on skin color age religion sexual preference language biology country or planet These short stories contain individual lives of those you are familiar with in one social category or another as opposed to those of your neighbor family member significant partner your enemies and those unlikely you've never met In the end a world a galaxy of prosperity comes with the efforts of all who are related because they are unrelated and that's exactly what this book is about Maestro Drake New Constellations Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2012-01-01 American culture changed radically over the course of the 1960s and the culture of Hollywood was no exception The film industry began the decade confidently churning out epic spectacles and lavish musicals but became flummoxed as new aesthetics and modes of production emerged and low budget youth pictures like Easy Rider became commercial hits New Constellations Movie Stars of the 1960s tells the story of the final glory days of the studio system and changing conceptions of stardom considering such Hollywood icons as Elizabeth Taylor and Paul Newman alongside such hallmarks of youth culture as Mia Farrow and Dustin Hoffman Others like Sidney Poitier and Peter Sellers took advantage of the developing independent and international film markets to craft truly groundbreaking screen personae And some were simply famous for being famous with celebrities like Zsa Zsa Gabor and Edie Sedgwick paving the way for today's reality stars Intersecting Places, Emancipatory Spaces Melinda Beth Robins, 2001 Introducing us to urban professional women in Africa a group often overlooked this book looks specifically at the women who have taken advantage of recent opportunities to become journalists in the growing market economy privatisation of the press and introduction of commercial broadcasting in Tanzania Taking a critical feminist approach in an effort to recognize the complex and interdependent relationships among the economic political and media systems the author presents her findings in the form of two dramas in order to emphasise the need for an innovative dialogue María Félix Niamh Thornton, 2023 María Félix 1914-2002 left her mark on Mexican and European film as well as fashion art and jewellery design Cartier created one of a kind pieces Leonora Carrington and Diego Rivera painted portraits Carlos Fuentes wrote a play Agustín Lara a bestselling song But she was nobody's muse Did Félix really bring baby crocodiles to the Cartier boutique to request lifelike copies in a necklace The story may be apocryphal but it perfectly encapsulates her powerful independent and unconventional persona This book first examines Félix's life and work reviewing her films and

acting style and considering what they say about gender norms and a woman's place on screen. It then turns to her role as curator and benefactor exploring how art, literature, and song sustained her image. It concludes by exploring the persistent interest in her life story and evaluating her significance for contemporary audiences.

In Praise of Difficult Women Karen Karbo, 2018. Presents information on female rule breakers including Josephine Baker, Jane Goodall, Margaret Cho, and Hillary Rodham Clinton. The World Review, 1928.

The Most Beautiful Women in History Robert Richard Kiss, 2012. This book is a uniquely interesting experiment. The author decided to publish the imaginary photos of legendary women from Helen of Troy to Cleopatra. He shows how the most beautiful women in history are perceived by a European journalist and writer. He attempts to portray what Sappho like and how would the wife of the last Chinese emperor look like if she lived in our time. This book is about the women who have influenced the course of history with their charm, exquisite taste, wisdom, sophistication, treachery, evilness, or noble deeds. The women who have contributed to the world we live in now. The last page is left blank so readers can put there the picture of their choice and describe the woman who is most important to them. The woman they think is the most beautiful and adorable on earth and without whom the world would be a darker place. The author Dr. Kiss, Robert Richard, is a Prima Primissima Award and Pulitzer Memorial Prize-winning journalist. He wrote five books on the fantastic hotels of the world and a book about the most beautiful islands on earth. His articles appear in newspapers, radio, and television shows in five countries. He is married; his wife was one of the models in this book.

Stars, Fans, and Consumption in the 1950s Sumiko Higashi, 2014-12-17. As the leading fan magazine in the postwar era, Photoplay constructed female stars as social types who embodied a romantic and leisured California lifestyle. Addressing working and lower middle-class readers who were prospering in the first mass consumption society, the magazine published not only publicity stories but also beauty secrets, fashion layouts, interior design tips, recipes, advice columns, and vacation guides. Postwar femininity was constructed in terms of access to commodities in suburban houses as the site of family togetherness. As the decade progressed, however, changing social mores regarding female identity and behavior eroded the relationship between idolized stars and worshipful fans. When the magazine adopted tabloid conventions to report sex scandals like the Debbie Eddie Liz affair, stars were demystified and fans became scandalmongers But the construction of female identity based on goods and performance that resulted in unstable fragmented selves remains a legacy evident in postmodern culture today Fiasco James Robert Parish,2008-05-02 A longtime industry insider and acclaimed Hollywood historian goes behind the scenes to tell the stories of 15 of the most spectacular movie megaflops of the past 50 years such as Cleopatra The Cotton Club and Waterworld He recounts in every gory detail how enormous hubris unbridled ambition artistic hauteur and bad business sense on the parts of Tinsel Town wheeler dealers and superstars such as Elizabeth Taylor Clint Eastwood and Francis Ford Coppola conspired to engender some of the worst films ever Introducing Audiovisual Translation Agnieszka Szarkowska,Anna Jankowska,2024-09-30 This user friendly textbook offers comprehensive insights into all facets of audiovisual translation and media localisation Serving as a comprehensive guide spanning seven chapters it begins by introducing audiovisual translation AVT It goes on to explore the historical backdrop and highlights the distinctions from traditional written text translation The authors expertly navigate you through the primary AVT modalities interlingual subtitling dubbing voice over subtitling for the deaf and hard of hearing live subtitling and audio description A blend of theoretical concepts and practical real world examples in various languages ensures a seamless understanding of the fundamental principles of AVT The book clearly guides you through the most important aspects of each type of AVT Designed for those exploring various AVT forms budding audiovisual translators and those interested in contemporary AVT trends and research this book is an invaluable resource for students of translation and linguistics and for educators in AVT across higher education and media localisation programmes Reclaiming Early Childhood Literacies Richard J Meyer,Kathryn F.
