Contemporaries and Snobs Laura Riding, 2014-02-28 This new edition of Contemporaries and Snobs a landmark collection of essays by Laura Riding offers a counter history of high modernist poetics Laura Riding s Contemporaries and Snobs 1928 was the first volume of essays to engage critically with high modernist poetics from the position of the outsider For readers today it offers a compelling account by turns personal by turns historical of how the institutionalization of modernism denuded experimental poetry Most importantly Contemporaries and Snobs offers a counter history of the idiosyncratic of what the institution of modernism left and leaves behind With Gertrude Stein as its figurehead the book champions the noncanonical the barbaric and the undertheorized Riding s nuanced defense of a poetics of the person in Contemporaries and Snobs represents a forgotten but essential first attempt to identify and foster what is now a well defined poetic lineage that leads from Stein to the contemporary experimental avant garde In these essays Riding takes her readers on a remarkably thorough tour through the critical scene of the 1920s Among other influential treatises she considers T S Eliot's The Sacred Wood and his editorial essays in The Criterion Allen Tate's Poetry and the Absolute John Crowe Ransom's essays on the modernist poet Edgell Rickword's essays in The Calendar of Modern Letters and Herbert Read's posthumous publication of T E Hulme's essays All of this criticism Riding notes gave modern poets a sheen of seriousness and professionalism but was it good for poetry Her decisive answer is no This new edition includes an introduction by Laura Heffernan and Jane Malcolm that makes legible the many connections between Contemporaries and Snobs and the critical debates and poetic experiments of the 1920s as well as explanatory notes a chronological bibliography of Riding's work and an index of proper names
