Reflections in the Dark Room Richard Kenyada, 2009-02-16 In Reflections in the Dark Room The Black Essays author Richard Kenyada examines the rich mosaic of contemporary African American culture from politics race and war to love self reliance and personal responsibility With the election of Barack Obama as President of the United States Kenyadas latest work signals both a wake up call and a challenge to ante up This book serves as a celebration of how far we have come and a detailed map charting how far we have yet to go But even of greater significance is the discovery that we have come one step closer to choosing the black doll and being proud of our choice black mosaic Richard Kenyada, 2014-05 In Black Mosaic Essays for Post Racial America Richard Kenyada assesses the progress we ve made in our quest to find the key element that unites us as Americans and further as human beings The term post racial popped up after the first Obama victory but the mood of the country has not reflected that kind of hope In many ways Americans seem to be drawing their own lines in the sand But it s no longer the historic us against them of the Cold War era The lines are being drawn between Americans races classes genders and sexual orientation "Why We Can't Wait" Punsalan-Manlimos, Catherine , Sayuki Tiemeier, Tracy, Vasko, Elisabeth T., 2023-05-04 CTS volume 68 explores questions of race and racism in the Church Essays and Open Wounds While Waiting for the Apology Richard Kenyada, 2004-03-01 What s a Lady to Do is a fictional novel based on true facts However it is written with a tongue in cheek approach meant to take the reader on an emotional ride of laughter and tears The story is about a woman any woman perhaps even you The book is not the standard he said she said novel Men and women alike at some point in life will most likely have to decide what they will or will not do for love The main character of the novel is struggling with learned religious beliefs and her own mortality only to discover her spouse is cheating I wanted women and men alike to know that when things go wrong in their life they are not in that bottomless pit alone With current divorce rate now exceeding 50% most of us will have to make the painful decision to try harder or just walk away Writing requires one to seek information and yes to be somewhat nosy and curious about what is going on around you If you write keep a journal You might just end up with a book If something interests you it will interest others Everyone has a story to tell Retha is currently working on a second book a very entertaining and funny fictional novel also based on fact called The Garbage Queen The Griffith Project, Volume 12 Paolo Cherchi Usai, 2019-07-25 THE GRIFFITH PROJECT Paolo Cherchi Usai General Editor Volume 12 Essays on D W Griffith Edited by Paolo Cherchi Usai and Cynthia Rowell With contributions by William M Drew Helmut F rber Andr Gaudreault Philippe Gauthier Lea Jacobs Joyce Jesionowski Charlie Keil Richard Koszarski Arthur Lennig Pat Loughney David Mayer Russell Merritt Jan Olsson Paul Spehr Yuri Tsivian Linda Williams In early 1996 an international group of 35 specialists in silent cinema volunteered to write commentaries on more than six hundred films directed written produced and supervised by D W Griffith or featuring him as a performer for the eleven volume series The Griffith Project the largest monograph ever assembled on an individual film director in conjunction with the massive retrospective held at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival from 1996 to 2008 All authors involved in The Griffith Project were bound to strict editorial rules most notably the fact that all titles in the series would be assigned to them in pre determined groups rather than as a result of their own individual preference for this or that specific entry The patience and commitment demonstrated by all scholars in this endeavor requires at least a symbolic recognition We therefore invited the members of the project team to write an essay on a D W Griffith related topic of their own choice The papers included in this volume constitute the response to our carte blanche invitation Our offer was also extended to other experts on D W Griffith who for various reasons were unable to participate in The Griffith Project but consistently supported it with their generous advice and insight This volume brings The Griffith Project to completion as 2008 sees the last installment of the D W Griffith program at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival with the screening of his films produced between 1925 and 1931 Not surprisingly twelve years of research on D W Griffith have unearthed an impressive wealth of knowledge but also an equally amazing array of new questions certainly enough of them to fill several more volumes Some of them including the increasingly complex issue of D W Griffith s role as production supervisor are only introduced or barely mentioned here but we are confident that what we have called the Griffith Project will continue at the Giornate and elsewhere with more research and newly found or preserved prints PAOLO CHERCHI USAI is Director of the National Film and Sound Archive of Australia He is co founder of the Pordenone Silent Film Festival and of the L Jeffrey Selznick School of Film Preservation at George Eastman House Rochester New York He directed the experimental feature film Passio 2007 His latest book is David Wark Griffith Editrice Il Castoro 2008
