
Top Tips to Plan an Austrian Ski Trip

Austria is one of the most popular destinations in the world for skiing. With stunning scenery, amazing Austrian hospitality, and over 400 ski resorts to choose from, it is one of the first choices for planning your next ski holiday.

First-time skiers to Austria may find planning their trip overwhelming, but all aspects are easily organized.

Here are nine tips to help you plan your first Ski trip to Austria.

1. Start planning at least 6 months to 1 year in advance.

Accommodation in popular resorts tends to be booked 6 months to 1 year in advance.

2. Decide when to go skiing.

- The season starts mid-December to after Easter at most of the Ski Resorts
- The ski season in the glacier resorts starts mid-October to the end of May/early June
- High Season: The period between Christmas and New Year's and up to ~ January 6 is very busy. The entire month of February is a School holiday throughout Europe; it is when everyone comes to Austria to go Skiing. During these two periods, accommodation is more expensive, and the pistes are busier.
- The least busiest time with the best snow tends to be from January 6 to beginning of February.

3. Decide on the Ski Resort

There are over 400 ski resorts in Austria- from luxury to more family-friendly. Almost all ski resorts cater to a wide range of abilities, from beginners to Experts.

4. Decide to use a Ski Company or DIY

Although it seems overwhelming, organizing your Austrian Ski Trip DIY is not difficult. In fact, almost all Europeans organise their ski holidays this way. The DIY planning route tends to be cheaper and allows you to customise your holiday.

Ski Companies such as Crystal Ski are popular with English-speaking travellers, especially from the UK. These companies provide package ski tours that include flights, transport to the ski resort, accommodation, and sometimes lift passes.
