N. Bradley, 2022-11-08 This book is an update

extension and radicalization of Guattari's philosophy of the postmedia. It is the first of its kind to comprehensively apply Guattari's thought on postmedia to post-millennium technological developments. Given the considerable interest in Félix Guattari and Gilles Deleuze's work and its influence in Asia and South East Asia and beyond, the book is a timely contribution and update of Guattari's essential concepts. It offers a fresh approach to applying Guattari and Deleuze to local contexts. Both Félix Guattari's schizoanalysis and Gilles Deleuze's philosophy remain excellent tools to decode the politics of postmedia. The book centres around the influence of Guattari's work on the Japanese archipelago and how Japan itself impacted on the work of Guattari in the 1980s. The book updates Guattari's work and applies it to the problems which are affecting societies in Asia and beyond. It highlights current research on postmedia by scholars who are working to understand how Japanese society is functioning post-Fukushima and how the country continues to toil from the geo-trauma of the real.

Buñuel's the Exterminating Angel Andrew Hook, 2017-02-24. The Exterminating Angel is the first in the RoosterVision series which presents personal analysis alongside critical discussion of films that have had everlasting impacts on authors and their work. Luis Buñuel's masterpiece The Exterminating Angel, which he co-wrote and directed, is a dark surrealist satire. When guests arrive for a dinner party at a lavish home, they soon discover that they cannot leave and slowly give way to violent and carnal impulses. Burned furniture, murder, and witchcraft were never supposed to be on the evening's agenda.

Luis Buñuel Jo Evans, Breixo Viejo, 2019-10-31. Luis Buñuel: A Life in Letters provides access for the first time to an annotated English language version of around 750 of the most important and most widely relevant of these letters. Buñuel (1900-1983) came to international attention with his first films Un Chien Andalou (1929) and Le grand or (1930), two surprisingly avant-garde productions that established his position as the undisputed master of Surrealist filmmaking. He went on to make 30 full-length features in France, the US, and Mexico and consolidated his international reputation with a Palme d'Or for Viridiana in 1961 and an Academy Award in 1973 for The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie. He corresponded with some of the most famous writers, directors, actors, and artists of his generation, and the list of these correspondents reads like a roll call of major twentieth-century cultural icons: Fellini, Truffaut, Vigo, Aragon, Dalí, and many others. Yet none of this material has been accessible outside specialist archives, and a very small number of publications in Spanish and French.

The Great Movies Roger Ebert, 2003-11-11. America's most trusted and best-known film critic, Roger Ebert, presents one hundred brilliant essays on some of the best movies ever made. Roger Ebert, the famed film writer and critic, wrote biweekly essays for a feature called The Great Movies in which he offered a fresh and fervent appreciation of a great film. The Great Movies collects one hundred of these essays, each one of them a gem of critical appreciation and an amalgam of love, analysis, and history that will send readers back to that film with a fresh set of eyes and renewed enthusiasm or perhaps to an avid first-time viewing. Ebert's selections range widely across genres, periods, and nationalities, and from the highest achievements in film art to justly beloved and wildly successful popular entertainments. Roger Ebert manages in these essays to combine a truly populist appreciation for our most important form of popular art with a scholar's erudition and depth of knowledge and a sure aesthetic sense Wonderfully enhanced by stills selected by Mary Corliss the film curator at the Museum of Modern Art The Great Movies is a treasure trove for film lovers of all persuasions an unrivaled guide for viewers and a book to return to again and again The Great Movies includes All About Eve Bonnie and Clyde Casablanca Citizen Kane The Godfather Jaws La Dolce Vita Metropolis On the Waterfront Psycho The Seventh Seal Sweet Smell of Success Taxi Driver The Third Man The Wizard of Oz and eighty five more films The Angel's Cry Michel Poizat,1992 French in 1986 is now available in Arthur Denner's fluid and sensitive English translation Predictably Poizat's route is not at all a conventional one Rather than taking as his point of departure the intentions of composers and librettists he is primarily concerned with the expectations and desires of the audience He reports on an informal group interview with overnight standees on the Paris Opera House steps as they compare notes on how opera became an addiction Focus On: 100 Most Popular Spanish-language Films Wikipedia contributors,

War, Revolution and Remembrance in World Cinema Nancy J. Membrez,2021-05-14 Two World Wars engulfed Europe Asia and the United States leaving indelible scars on the landscape and survivors The trauma of civil wars in Spain declared and Latin America tacit spanned decades yet contradictorily bind parties together even today Civil wars still haunt Africa where in more recent years ethnic cleansing has led to wholesale genocide Drawing on the emerging field of Memory Studies this book examines narrative and documentary films made far from Hollywood that address memory both traumatic and nostalgic surrounding these conflicts despite attempts by special interests to erase or manipulate history

Motherhood in Mexican Cinema, 1941-1991 Isabel Arredondo,2013-12-19 How were femininity and motherhood understood in Mexican cinema from the 1940s to the early 1990s Film analysis interviews with filmmakers academic articles and film reviews from newspapers are used to answer the question and trace the changes in such depictions Images of mothers in films by so called third wave filmmakers Busi Cortes Maria Novaro Dana Rotberg and Marisa Sistach are contrasted with those in Mexican classical films 1935 1950 and films from the 1970s and 1980s There are some surprising conclusions The most important restrictions in the depiction of mothers in classical cinema came not from the strict sexual norms of the 1940s but in reactions to women shown as having autonomous identities Also in contrast to classical films third wave films show a woman's problems within a social dimension making motherhood political in relation not to militancy within the left but to women's issues Third wave films approach the problems of Latin American society as those of individuals differentiated by gender sexuality and ethnicity in such films mothers are citizens directly affected by laws economic policies and cultural beliefs The First Total War David A. Bell,2014-06-03 A mesmerizing account that illuminates not just the Napoleonic wars but all of modern history It reads like a novel Lynn Hunt Eugen Weber Professor of modern European history UCLA The twentieth century is usually seen as the century of total war But as the historian David A Bell argues in this landmark work the phenomenon actually began much earlier in the era of muskets cannons and sailing ships in the age of Napoleon In a sweeping evocative narrative Bell takes us from campaigns of extermination in the blood soaked fields of western France to savage street fighting in ruined Spanish cities to central European battlefields where tens of thousands died in a single day Between 1792 and 1815 Europe plunged into an abyss of destruction It was during this time Bell argues that our modern attitudes toward war were born Ever since the dream of perpetual peace and the nightmare of total war have been bound tightly together in the Western world right down to the present day in which the hopes for an end to history after the cold war quickly gave way to renewed fears of full scale slaughter With a historian s keen insight and a journalist s flair for detail Bell exposes the surprising parallels between Napoleon s day and our own including the way that ambitious wars of liberation such as the one in Iraq can degenerate into a gruesome guerrilla conflict The result is a book that is as timely and important as it is unforgettable Thoughtful and original Bell has mapped what is a virtually new field of inquiry the culture of war Steven L Kaplan Goldwin Smith Professor of European history Cornell University The Iliad
