Foreign Correspondence Jan Borm, 2014-10-16 Though writers and readers have long agreed that travel does not only broaden the mind but that it is also useful to report on such an experience the question of what to report on and how has remained a matter of debate To think of travel and travel writing as foreign correspondence is to apply metaphorically a phrase that has its own complex and overlapping history in journalism politics and international culture The chapters of this volume focus on this notion seen here as a dual problematic oscillating between the private and the public whether as letters or other forms of writing sent from abroad From Mandeville's notorious Travels to fin de siècle Hispanic writing this volume offers readings of accounts by early modern and more recent Lithuanian and Polish travellers representations of the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth the Ottoman Empire and India Quixotic tropes in English travel writing about Spain Galignani's newspaper aesthetics and several contributions on translation issues and the foreign as an idiom to be rendered in more familiar terms The essays collected here thus all take foreign correspondence as their starting point whether as letters or in other narrative forms These texts are involved in complex webs of personal political social and cultural negotiations between travellers and their hosts as well as their presumed target audience a key aspect of the rhetorics of foreign correspondence as the chapters of this volume also go to show Una aproximación a los estudios de traducción de literatura infantil y juvenil HANNA MARTENS,2017-05-11 Este libro pretende servir de guía para todos los estudiosos del apasionante mundo de la traducción de la literatura infantil y juvenil Para afrontar la inevitable multidisciplinariedad de la materia la obra se centra en primer lugar en las dos principales ramas que sustentan este tipo de estudios las investigaciones de muy diversa índole relacionadas con la literatura infantil y juvenil y con los cuentos de hadas y los estudios descriptivos de la traducción Ambos campos se abordan desde una doble perspectiva al combinar un enfoque histórico acerca de la evolución de las investigaciones en las respectivas disciplinas con una mayor profundización en ciertos conceptos y debates que resultan claves para una adecuada comprensión de los estudios de las traducciones de los libros para niños y jóvenes En segundo lugar la monografía se adentra en un campo de estudio de origen muy reciente pero en plena expansión ya que ofrece una visión de conjunto de las principales publicaciones organizadas temáticamente que guardan relación de manera específica con la traducción de la literatura infantil y juvenil Cuadernos interdisciplinarios de estudios literarios ,1995 El devenir de la lingüística y la cultura: un estudio interdisciplinar sobre lengua, literatura y traducción. Aitor Garcés

A Camera in the Garden of Eden Kevin Coleman, 2016-02-23 In the early twentieth century the Boston based United Fruit Company controlled the production distribution and marketing of bananas the most widely consumed fresh fruit in North America So great was the company s power that it challenged the sovereignty of the Latin American and Caribbean countries in which it operated giving rise to the notion of company dominated banana republics In A Camera in the Garden of Eden Kevin Coleman argues that the banana republic was an imperial constellation of images and practices that was checked and contested by ordinary Central Americans Drawing on a trove of images from four enormous visual archives and a wealth of internal company memos literary works immigration records and declassified US government telegrams Coleman explores how banana plantation workers women and peasants used photography to forge new ways of being while also visually asserting their rights as citizens He tells a dramatic story of the founding of the Honduran town of El Progreso where the United Fruit Company had one of its main divisional offices the rise of the company now known as Chiquita and a sixty nine day strike in which banana workers declared their independence from neocolonial domination In telling this story Coleman develops a new set of
