Orchestral Music in Print Margaret K. Farish,[Anonymus AC01010240],1994 Collecting China Vimalin Rujivacharakul,2011 Collecting China is a unique collection of essays that brings together theories of materiality and what collecting has meant to various peoples over time Collecting China grew out of a simple question how does a thing become Chinese Fifteen essays explore this question from different angles ranging from close examination of world renowned private collections to critical reinterpretations of historical writings Conrad Veidt, Demon of the Silver Screen Sabine Schwientek,2023-06-16 This book depicts the life of Conrad Veidt 1893 1943 the defining German actor of Expressionist cinema in the 1920s His legendary performance in Das Cabinet des Dr Caligari 1919 20 earned him the epithet Demon of the Screen and made Veidt an international star To this day Veidt is considered an icon of early horror film He showed his acting range in more than a hundred films among them masterpieces such as The Indian Tomb 1921 Orlac s Hands 1924 The Man Who Laughs 1928 The Thief of Bagdad 1940 and Casablanca 1942 Conrad Veidt used his acting career to become socially and politically involved starting with the film Anders als die Anderen the first film to advocate homosexual rights in 1919 After the Nazis came to power he left Germany to protest anti Semitism and Nazi rule Along with his biography this book provides insights into the development of filmmaking from its beginnings through the 1940s an epoch of cinematic art marked by technical innovations like sound and color film and by world shaking events including two world wars British Women Missionaries in Bengal, 1793-1861 Sutapa Dutta,2017-11-30 British Women Missionaries in Bengal 1793 1861 looks at the arrival of the early British women missionaries in Bengal especially when travelling to India or working in missions was neither a spontaneous nor an acceptable career decision for white women The book aims to throw light on a key moment in colonial contact a new interface between two races religions and ways of life From a hesitant beginning as helped meet to a more confident phase of mission activities in the form of setting up formal educational institutions writing books and so on comprise a long legacy of white women's participation in overseas colonial encounters. Historicizing imperial feminism will enable those who choose to use the past to locate and interrogate its ramifications on more modern notions of feminism. The advent of the Baptist missionary William Carey in Bengal in 1793 followed by others significantly altered how mission activity was perceived in India. From Hannah Marshman who helped her more famous missionary husband Joshua Marshman to open schools for girls to Mary Ann Cooke the first single British woman missionary to come and work in India to Hannah Mullens's contributions to zenana education were all part of a long journey which helped professionalize women's missionary work in the colonies. With the death of Hannah Mullens in 1861 the early phase of missionary work came to an end and then began a more proactive phase of evangelization and missionary activity in India.

The Carolingian World Marios Costambeys, Matthew Innes, Simon MacLean, 2011-05-12 At its height the Carolingian empire spanned a million square kilometres of western Europe from the English Channel to central Italy and northern Spain and from the Atlantic to the fringes of modern Hungary, Poland and the Czech Republic. As the largest political unit for centuries the empire dominated the region and left an enduring legacy for European culture. This comprehensive survey traces this great empire's history from its origins around 700 with the rise to dominance of the Carolingian dynasty through its expansion by ruthless military conquest and political manoeuvring in the eighth century to the struggle to hold the empire together in the ninth. It places the complex political narrative in context giving equal consideration to vital themes such as beliefs, peasant society, aristocratic culture and the economy. Accessibly written and authoritative this book offers distinctive perspectives on a formative period in European history.

When a Human Gives Birth to a Raven Rafael Rachel Neis, 2023-06-14 This book investigates rabbinic treatises relating to animals, humans and other lifeforms. Through an original analysis of creaturely generation and species classification by late ancient Palestinian rabbis and other thinkers in the Roman empire, Rafael Rachel Neis shows how rabbis blurred the lines between the human and other beings. This they did even as they were intent on classifying creatures and delineating the contours of the human. Recognizing that life proliferates via multiple mechanisms beyond sexual copulation between two heterosexual male and female individuals of the same species, the rabbis produced intricate alternatives. This expansive view of generation included humans. Likewise in parsing the variety of creatures the rabbis attended to the overlaps and resemblances across seemingly distinct species, upsetting in turn unmitigated claims of human distinctiveness. Intervening in conversations in animal studies, queer theory, trans theory and feminist science studies, When a Human Gives Birth to a Raven provincializes sacrosanct ideals of reproduction in favor of a broader range of generation, kinship and species, offering powerful historical alternatives to the paradigms associated with so-called traditional
