Grace And Glory:

Grace and Glory, Or, The Believer's Bliss in Both Worlds Grace, James Grant, 1863 Grace and Glory Earl Cripe, 2009
Ephesians tells us what God has given to us by grace because of His own devotion toward His family to involve us in His glory Unlike the other epistles Ephesians does not chide the Church for anything It is concerned with informing us about the richness of eternal life and inheritance that has been bestowed on us by the generosity of God Ephesians gives us a unique look at the heart of God and how marvelously He has set it up for us in His family and His Kingdom to share in His wisdom His power and His love because that is what He wanted to do We have not deserved it and we have not invoked it by our actions or our faith God has done it all because it pleased Him to do it We are accepted in the beloved family of God because He has made us to be accepted Ephesians proceeds to tell us what this language means in terms of our lives and relationship to God now The magnitude of this grace and glory is staggering Grace and Glory; or, the Believer's bliss in both worlds.

Grace and Glory Geerhardus Vos,2020-05-19 In possessing a copy of Grace and Glory the reader has in his or her hands a book of sermons which are almost as rare as they are remarkable But the uniqueness of these sermons extends far beyond the difficulty of obtaining the original edition of Grace and Glory or the providences which led to the rediscovery of the manuscript material now in book form for the first time It is the nature of the sermons themselves which will have a stunning effect on the reader For they combine such constantly penetrating depths of biblical and theological understanding with such soaring heights of eloquence that it is difficult to imagine their like being heard in any pulpit in the world today Here then is material calculated to enrich the mind heart will and emotions grace and glory indeed From the Forward Grace and Glory; a sermon [on Ps. lxxxiv. 11] preached ... on the occasion of the death of Mrs. L.
