Grain Of Truth The Ancient Lessons Of Craft:

Grain of Truth Ross Laird, 2002-09-01 A master craftsman details the practical and spiritual processes he uses to create objects out of wood while unraveling the intricacies of creativity and how it applies to every day life

Grain of Truth Ross A. Laird, 2001 On the surface Grain of Truth is a brief simple book in which the author makes objects out of wood a hand plane for himself a marimba for his children a box to hold the cremated remains of his grandmother in law It is not a how to book not a description of technique so much as an exploration of craft as a contemplative and spiritual practice It shows how one's hands can serve as guides in the unfolding of awareness The book is organized into eight chapters based on the essential symbols of ancient Taoism wind earth thunder deep water mountain shallows fire and the unfathomable Each chapter deals with a particular craft project its inspiration the materials it requires the rewards it offers Using sharp tools and a delicate touch Laird uses the creative process to discover his essence Grain of Truth is lyrical and mesmerizing Like Eugen Herrigel's Zen in the Art of Archery it explores physical discipline as a path to spiritual awakening Like Thoreau's Walden it places the unadorned self in nature simple experience opening a door to unforeseen depths Like Annie Dillard's Pilgrim at Tinker Creek it evokes the mystical through keen observation of the natural world It is a book to cherish

Sawdust and Soul William Johnson Everett, John W. de Gruchy, 2014-12-16 An American ethicist and a South African theologian reflect on their work with wood and how it has helped them find creativity and meaning in experiences of both loss and transformation Through their friendship correspondence and work together they have developed a rich narrative about the way this craftwork has shaped their relationships with family friends and their natural environment Their conversation invites both craftspeople and religious seekers to join them on a spiritual journey toward fresh insight and inspiration

Expressive Arts Education and Therapy Markus Scott-Alexander, 2020-06-29 In Expressive Arts Education and Therapy the reader follows the creation of art making in tandem with the unfolding of sense making A dance theatre lab is the stage for exploration where what was discovered was phenomenologically and collaboratively reflected upon the participatory nature of the creative work pouring into the research methodology Creative Process based Research efficacy is contingent upon the interaction of three poles the creator the product and an experience of the internal external creative process of the creator All three perspectives comprise the dynamics required of this research methodology in order to understand what is occurring in these three distinct and essential elements of the creative process What results is an experience of cohesion that consciously describes this interplay The author outlines his influences that contributed to both the art making and sense making over the seven year research project His work in experimental theatre in New York as an educator with The European Graduate School in Switzerland and his studies with philosopher John de Ruiter in Canada are integrated into the world of research in the field of expressive arts The visceral component of creating clarity is uncovered and articulated This book inspires new ways of thinking about participatory collaborative arts centered research where the skill of exposing the artist researcher's modus operandi for making art and making sense is named in a myriad of ways that call upon the intellect as well as the artist's intuitive sense of what to focus on and its relevance to education therapy and global health Handbook of the Arts in Qualitative Research ,2022 Object-Based Learning and Well-Being Thomas Kador,Helen Chatterjee,2020-11-26 Object Based Learning and Well Being provides the first explicit analysis of the combined learning and well being benefits of working with material culture and curated collections Following on from the widely acclaimed Engaging the Senses this volume explicitly explores the connection between the value of material culture for both learning and well being Bringing together experts and practitioners from eight countries on four continents the book analyses the significance of curated collections for structured cultural interventions that may bring both educational and well being benefits Topics covered include the role of material culture in relation to mental health sensory impairments and general student and teacher well being Contributors also consider how collections can be employed to positively address questions of identity and belonging relating to marginalisation colonialism and forced displacement Object Based Learning and Well Being should be a key first point of reference for academics and students who are engaged in the study of object based learning museums heritage health and well being The book will be of particular interest to practitioners working in higher education or those working in the cultural heritage museums and health sectors Museum Objects, Health and Healing Brenda Cowan,Ross Laird,Jason McKeown,2019-10-02 Museum Objects Health and Healing provides an innovative and interdisciplinary study of the relationship between objects health and healing Shedding light on the primacy of the human need for relationships with objects the book explores what kind of implications these relationships might have on the exhibition experience Merging museum and object studies as well as psychotherapy and the psychology of well being the authors present a new theory entitled Psychotherapeutic Object Dynamics which provides a cross disciplinary study of the relationship between objects health and well being Drawing on primary research in museums psychotherapeutic settings and professional practice throughout the US Canada Bosnia Herzegovina and the UK the book provides an overview of the theory's origins the breadth of its practical applications on a global level and a framework for further understanding the potency of objects in exhibitions and daily life Museum Objects Health and Healing will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students interested in museum studies material culture mental health psychotherapy art therapies and anthropology It should also be valuable reading for a wide range of practitioners including curators exhibition designers psychologists and psychotherapists Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Canadian Book Review Annual ,2003 The Empty Vessel ,2000 American Craft ,2001 Green Horizons Jim Lotz,2005 Veteran journalist Jim Lotz tells the history of how the forests of the province have been both ravaged and occasionally preserved over the centuries It begins with the Mi kmaq people who relied on the woods for game and useful products Green Horizons then traces the history of the forests in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries when the ethic of cut and run ran rampant destroying huge numbers of trees as did massive forest fires The story moves on to the time of saw millers who took the best and left the rest In the first decade of the twentieth century concern arose among those in the forest industries that the province would run out of wood to sustain them The first scientific survey by a forester revealed the deplorable state of the province s woodlands because the government s policy towards the forests was one of benign neglect Green Horizons also recounts the history of the past 50 years in Nova Scotia s forests through interviews of those directly involved in forestry Environmentalists add their perspective to the debate that still rages today about fair use of our forests In recent years the woodlands of Nova Scotia have been the scene of conflicts and tensions between those who seek to preserve them and others who simply see trees as sources of wealth to be cut down and made into commercial products Born in Liverpool England in 1929 Jim Lotz has held 25 different jobs ranging from grouse beater in the Scottish Highlands to glacial meteorologist in the Arctic Coming to Canada in 1954 he was fired from his first job for just cause and crashed his car on same day Since 1960 he has been actively engaged in community based development and has taught at the Coady International Institute His travels in search of learning have taken him from Alaska to Slovakia and from the High Arctic to Lesotho He has written 20 books University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto,2002 Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-08 Library Journal ,2001 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Quill & Quire ,2002 Canadian Geographic ,2001 Book Review Digest ,2002 Books in Print Supplement ,2002
