Hearts Of Stone:

Legacy of Stone Margaret Hryniuk, Frank Korvemaker, 2008 A spectacular coffee table book featuring the images and stories of some of Saskatchewan's most impressive stone buildings along with historical notes on some of the builders who made them. In words and stunning colour pictures this book tells the history and the current reality of over 50 fieldstone buildings in Saskatchewan. The book includes an introduction by Bernie Flaman, the provincial heritage architect, an historical overview and profiles of several of Saskatchewan's most prominent stone masons. The balance of the book is made up of profiles of the buildings: farmhouses, homes in urban communities, places of worship, public buildings and ruins. Margaret Hryniuk uses her years of journalism experience to present factual yet fascinating profiles of the buildings and what is known of the people who put them there. Larry Easton's spectacular photographs bring these beautiful stone buildings to life and Frank Korvemaker examines the dimensions and differences of the fieldstone that inhabits the Saskatchewan landscape.

statement reflects the underlying purpose of The New International Commentary on the New Testament. Begun in the late 1940s by an international team of New Testament scholars, the NICNT series has become recognized by pastors, students and scholars alike as a critical yet orthodox commentary marked by solid biblical scholarship within the evangelical Protestant tradition. While based on a thorough study of the Greek text, the commentary's introductions and expositions contain a minimum of Greek references. The NICNT authors evaluate significant textual problems and take into account the most important exegetical literature. More technical aspects such as grammatical, textual and historical problems are dealt with in footnotes, special notes and appendixes. Under the general editorship of three outstanding New Testament scholars: first Ned Stonehouse, Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia; then F. F. Bruce, University of Manchester, England; and now

Gordon D Fee Regent College Vancouver British Columbia the NICNT series has continued to develop over the years In order to keep the commentary new and conversant with contemporary scholarship the NICNT volumes have been and will be revised or replaced as necessary The newer NICNT volumes in particular take into account the role of recent rhetorical and sociological inquiry in elucidating the meaning of the text and they also exhibit concern for the theology and application of the text As the NICNT series is ever brought up to date it will continue to find ongoing usefulness as an established guide to the New Testament text

Journey of Stones Steven Molin,2002 This sermon series for Lent and Easter draws on the rich imagery of rocks and stones in scripture These powerful messages center around the compelling metaphor of stones and our willingness to throw them as representative of our sins As worshipers enter the sanctuary they are invited to pick up stones as a concrete symbol of each sermon s theme then as the message concludes the stones are placed at the foot of the cross When the stones disappear on Easter just like the stone sealing Jesus tomb it s a vivid illustration of how the Lord also removes our stones of sin Each chapter includes several thought provoking discussion questions to spur further reflection With messages for Ash Wednesday five weeks of Lent Maundy Thursday Good Friday and Easter Sunday this is an excellent resource for Lenten midweek programming Molin takes us on a journey of prayerful and honest repentance a powerful and life changing journey of celebration of grace of awe at the miracle of the empty tomb and the promise of life Pastor Molin is one of the best sermon story tellers I ve heard But each sermon and every story also teaches a biblical text These sermons are grounded in the living Word of God from the Foreword Glenndy L Sculley Bishop s Associate Minneapolis Area Synod Evangelical Lutheran Church in America We used the Journey of Stones as a Sunday Morning preaching series with some modifications The book and series was a wonderful way to remind all of us that although we are weighed down with our own sins as represented by the stones each week Christ rolled away the stone that separates us from God at the resurrections and took the weight of our sin upon Himself He took our burden on Himself and give us new life Thanks for being willing to offer such an inspirational book Pastor Jerry Van Auken Steven Molin is the senior pastor of Our Savior s Lutheran Church ELCA in Stillwater Minnesota He has also served parishes in Oregon and South Dakota and been an area director for the youth ministry organization Young Life Molin is a graduate of Concordia University St Paul Minnesota and Luther Theological Seminary
