Heather Blazing:

The Heather Blazing Colm Toibin, 2012-10-30 Colm Toibin's lovely understated novel that proceeds with stately grace The Washington Post Book World about an uncompromising judge whose principles when brought home to his own family are tragic Eamon Redmond is a judge in Ireland's high court a completely legal creature who is just beginning to discover how painfully unconnected he is from other human beings With effortless fluency Colm Toibin reconstructs the history of Eamon's relationships with his father his first girl his wife and the children who barely know him and he writes about Eamon's affection for the Irish coast with such painterly skill that the land itself becomes a character The result is a novel of stunning power seductive and absorbing USA Today

The Heather Blazing Colm Tóibín, 1992 Eamon Redmond is a judge in Ireland's high court a completely legal creature who is just beginning to discover how painfully unconnected he is from other human beings With effortless fluency Colm Toibin reconstructs the history of Eamon's relationships with his father his first girl his wife and the children who barely know him and he writes about Eamon's affection for the Irish coast with such painterly skill that the land itself becomes a character The result is a novel of stunning power seductive and absorbing USA Today

Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce, 2000 With five Nobel Prize winners seven Pulitzer Prize winners and two Booker Prize winning novelists modern Irish writing has contributed something special and permanent to our understanding of the twentieth century Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century provides a useful comprehensive and pleasurable introduction to modern Irish literature in a single volume Organized chronologically by decade this anthology provides the reader with a unique sense of the development and richness of Irish writing and of the society it reflected It embraces all forms of writing not only the major forms of drama fiction and verse but such material as travel writing personal memoirs journalism interviews and radio plays to offer the reader a complete and wonderfully varied sense of Ireland's contribution our literary heritage David Pierce has selected major literary figures as well as neglected ones and includes many writers from the Irish diaspora The range of material is enormous and ensures that work that is inaccessible or out of print is now easily available The book is a delightful compilation including many well known pieces and captivating discoveries which anyone interested in literature will long enjoy browsing and dipping into

The Ogham Stone Gerald Dawe, Michael Mulreany, 2001 Hear Us Out Richard Canning, 2004-01-13 The author of the acclaimed Gay Fiction Speaks brings us new interviews with twelve prominent gay writers who have emerged in the last decade Hear Us Out demonstrates how in recent decades the canon of gay fiction has developed diversified and expanded its audience into the mainstream Readers will recognize names like Michael Cunningham whose Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Hours inspired the hit movie and others like Christopher Bram Bernard Cooper Stephen McCauley and Matthew Stadler These accounts explore the vicissitudes of writing on gay male themes in fiction over the last thirty years prejudices of the literary marketplace social and political questions the impact of AIDS commonalities between gay male and lesbian fiction and even some delectable bits of gossip Why Does Literature Matter? Frank B. Farrell, 2018-07-05 Literature matters because it allows for experiences important to the living out of a sophisticated and satisfying human life because other arenas of culture cannot provide them to the same degree and because a relatively small number of texts carry out these functions in so exceptional a manner that we owe it to past and future members of the species to keep such texts alive in our cultural traditions from Chapter One Frank B Farrell defends a rich conception of the space of literature that retains its links to issues of self formation and metaphysics and does not let that space collapse into just another reflection of social space He maintains that recent literary theory has badly misread findings in the philosophy of language and the theory of subjectivity That misreading Farrell says has tended to endorse ways of understanding literature that make one question why it matters at all Farrell here opposes some recent theoretical trends and through a mix of philosophical and literary studies tells us why in his view literature does truly matter Among the writers Farrell discusses are John Ashbery Samuel Beckett Amit Chaudhuri Cormac McCarthy James Merrill Marcel Proust Thomas Pynchon Salman Rushdie W G Sebald and John Updike The philosophers important to his arguments include Donald Davidson Daniel Dennett and Bernard Williams G W F Hegel Martin Heidegger Friedrich Nietzsche and Ludwig Wittgenstein play roles as well Among the literary theorists addressed are Stephen Greenblatt Paul de Man and Marjorie Perloff In addition to his close readings of literary philosophical and critical texts Farrell considers cultural studies and postcolonial studies more generally and speculates on the possible contributions of object relations theory in psychology to the study of literature Recovering Memory Hedda Friberg, Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Lene Yding Pedersen, 2009-03-26 Various ways of collecting storing and recovering memories have been the focus of the most recent joint research project carried out by a group of Irish Studies scholars all based in the Nordic countries and members of the Nordic Irish Studies Network NISN The result of the project Recovering Memory Irish Representations of Past and Present is a collection of essays which examines the theme of memory in Irish literature and culture against the theoretical background of the philosophical discourse of modernity Offering a wide range of perspectives this volume examines a plurality of representations past and present of memory both public and private and the intersection between collective memory and individual in modern Ireland Also explored is the relation between memory and identity national and private as well as questions of subjectivity and the construction of the self Given Ireland's tragic past and its long history of colonisation it is inevitable that various aspects of memory in terms of nationality post colonialism and politics also have bearing on this study The volume is divided into five sections each of which examines one broadly defined aspect of memory The introductory section focuses on memory and history and is followed by sections on memory and autobiography place identity and memory in the work of novelist John Banville Within each section the individual writers engage in a fruitful dialogue with each other and with the approaches of such theorists as Arendt Husserl Merleau Ponty Ricoeur and Baudrillard

On Belonging and Not Belonging Mary Jacobus, 2024-11-26 A look at how ideas of translation migration and displacement are embedded in the works of prominent artists from Ovid to Tacita Dean On Belonging and Not Belonging provides a sophisticated exploration of how themes of translation migration and displacement shape an astonishing range of artistic works From the possibilities and limitations of translation addressed by Jhumpa Lahiri and David Malouf to the effects of shifting borders in the writings of Eugenio Montale W G Sebald Colm T ib n and many others esteemed literary critic Mary Jacobus looks at the ways novelists poets photographers and filmmakers revise narratives of language identity and exile Jacobus s attentive readings of texts and images seek to answer the question What does it mean to identify as or with an outsider Walls and border crossings nomadic wanderings and Alpine walking the urge to travel and the yearning for home Jacobus braids together such threads in disparate times and geographies She plumbs the experiences of Ovid in exile Frankenstein s outcast Being Elizabeth Bishop in Nova Scotia and Brazil Walter Benjamin s Berlin childhood and Sophocles s Antigone in the wilderness Throughout Jacobus trains her eye on issues of transformation and translocation the traumas of partings journeys and returns and confrontations with memory and the past Focusing on human conditions both modern and timeless On Belonging and Not Belonging offers a unique consideration of inclusion and exclusion in our world The Dark Stuff Donald S. Murray, 2018-04-05 An evocative social history of Europe s peatlands moors bogs and heaths Donald S Murray spent much of his childhood either playing or working on the moor chasing sheep across empty acres and cutting and gathering peat for fuel The Dark Stuff is an examination of how this landscape affected him and others Donald explores his early life on the Isle of Lewis together with the experiences of those who lived near moors much further afield from the Highlands and Islands of Scotland to the Netherlands Germany Ireland and even Australia Examining this environment in all its roles and guises Donald reflects on the ways that for centuries humans have represented the moor in literature art and folktale and he reveals how in some countries these habitats remain an essential aspect of their industrial heritage and working life today On his journey Donald confronts the unexpected how Europe s peatlands are part of the dark heart of that continent playing a crucial role in the history of crime and punishment in several countries He also examines our current perception of moorland asking how for the sake perhaps of our planet s survival we can learn to love a landscape we have all too often in our history denigrated feared and despised Rockin' the Bronx Larry Kirwan, 2025-03-04 Discover the untold story of 1980s Irish New York where love politics and rock n roll collide in a gritty urban tale that s as passionate as it is poignant Rockin The Bronx vividly transports readers to the vibrant and chaotic world of 1980s Bronx where Irish immigrants forged a new community amidst the backdrop of political upheaval and cultural transformation Larry Kirwan leader of the revolutionary band Black 47 blends drama passion and musical evolution into a narrative that captures the essence of an era defined by its challenges and triumphs Through the eyes of characters like the groundbreaking gay hero a book loving hard hitting immigrant with IRA roots and the central couple Se n and Mary who navigate this raucous landscape Kirwan explores the intersecting worlds of personal identity and communal struggle Set during significant historical

Rice Thomas J. Rice,Thomas J. Rice,2009-12 The setting is rural Ireland in the 1950s Thomas Rice has written a riveting memoir about a way of life that no longer exists no running water no toilets no electricity and little access to education jobs or basic health care Early on we are drawn into a culture with a recent memory of famines a culture still showing the scars from the homestead ruins that pockmark the landscape to the ghost towns and villages that never recovered from The Great Hunger of the 1840s

Caregiving Suzanne Gordon,Patricia Benner,Nel Noddings,1996-09-29 Looks not only at the financial emotional and physical demands of giving and receiving care but also at the strengths and rewards inherent in the world of caregiving

The South Colm Toibin,2012-10-30 Originally published in Great Britain in 1990 by Serpent s Tail T p verso Make Waves Paula Anca Farca,2019-10-16 Water is a symbol of life wisdom fertility purity and death Water also sustains and nourishes irrigates our crops keeps us clean and healthy and contributes to our energy needs But a strain has been put on our water resources as increased energy demands combine with the effects of climate change to create a treacherous environment Individuals and communities around the globe increasingly face droughts floods water pollution water scarcity and even water wars We tend to address and solve these concerns through scientific and technological innovations but social and cultural analyses and solutions are needed as well In this edited collection contributors tackle current water issues in the era of climate change using a wide variety of recent literature and film At its core this collection demonstrates that water is an immense reservoir of artistic potential and an agent of historical and cultural exchange Creating familiar and relatable contexts for water dilemmas authors and directors of contemporary literary texts and films present compelling stories of our relationships to water water health ecosystems and conservation They also explore how global water problems affect local communities around the world and intersect with social and cultural aspects such as health citizenship class gender race and ethnicity This transformative work highlights the cultural significance of water the source of life and a powerful symbol in numerous cultures It also raises awareness about global water debates and crises

Luck and the Irish R. F.

Foster,2008-03-14 Roy Foster is one of Ireland s leading historians the author of the much acclaimed two volume biography of Yeats as well as the definitive history Modern Ireland which has been hailed as dazzling New York Times Book Review and elegant erudite wise witty Irish Times Now this brilliant writer offers a short and combative account of Ireland s astonishing transformation over the last three decades Has there really been an economic miracle Where does the explosion of cultural energy in music literature and theater come from Has the power of the Catholic Church really crumbled Focusing largely on contemporary events living people current controversies and popular culture Luck and the Irish explores these questions and raises other provocative questions of its own Foster looks at the astonishing volte face undertaken by Sinn Fein eventually taking office in a state they had once fought to destroy He describes how Catholicism once the bedrock of Irish identity has been decisively compromised as evidenced by the exploitation and abuse scandals and the drastic decline in devotions At the same time the position of women in Irish society has been transformed with the growth of feminism a revolution in sexual attitudes far more women in the work force the ascendancy of President Mary Robinson and the movement of women to front rank Cabinet posts all of which have put the position of Irish women ahead of that in many European nations Many old molds have been broken in Irish society over the last 30 years and the immediate results have been breath taking But are these developments really as permanent or even as beneficial as they appear Everyone curious about the recent past the burgeoning present and the unclear future of Ireland will want to read this superbly written and deeply thoughtful book

Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty-First-Century Irish Novel Kathleen Costello-Sullivan,2018-05-07 The desire to engage and confront traumatic subjects was a facet of Irish literature for much of the twentieth century Yet just as Irish society has adopted a more direct and open approach to the past so too have Irish authors evolved in their response to and literary uses of trauma In Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty First Century Irish Novel Costello Sullivan considers the ways in which the Irish canon not only represents an ongoing awareness of trauma as a literary and cultural force but also how this representation has shifted since the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century While earlier trauma narratives center predominantly on the role of silence and the individual and or societal suffering that traumas induce twenty first century Irish narratives increasingly turn from just the recognition of traumatic experiences toward exploring and representing the process of healing and recovery both structurally and narratively Through a series of keenly observed close readings Costello Sullivan explores the work of Colm T ib n John Banville Anne Enright Emma Donohue Colum McCann and Sebastian Barry In highlighting the power of narrative to amend and address memory and trauma Costello Sullivan argues that these works reflect a movement beyond merely representing trauma toward also representing the possibility of recovery from it

Reading Texts, Reading Lives Daniel Morris,Helen Maxson,2012-06-14 Our culture attempts to separate competing ideological factions by denying relationships between multiple perspectives and influences outside of one s own narrow interpretive community The distinguished essayists in this volume find Daniel R Schwarz s pluralistic self questioning approach to what he calls reading texts and reading lives quite relevant to the current historical moment and political situation A legendary scholar of modernist literature Schwarz s critical principles are a healthy corrective to cultural hubris

The essayists treat works ranging from fictions by Joyce Conrad Morrison and Woolf to the poetry of Yeats to Holocaust literature to the environmental writings of Wendell Berry to the photographs of Lee Friedlander The authors focus on different works but they follow Schwarz in stressing formal elements most often associated with traditional realism while keeping an eye on historical and author centered approaches The essayists also follow Schwarz in their emphasis on narrative cohesion and in how they look for signs of agency among characters who possess the will to alter their fate even in a seemingly random universe such as the one depicted by Conrad Readers with eyes to ethics and aesthetics they follow Schwarz in encouraging a values centered approach that leaves room for the reader to address the ways in which reading a text correlates to the reader s ability to find meaning and value in experience outside the text Like Schwarz the essays look for intentionality of authorial meaning rather than something called an author function as well as for the relationship between lived experience and the imagined world of the literary work rather than the endless semiotic play of an ultimately indecipherable text

Irish Literature in Transition, 1780-1830: Volume 2 Claire Connolly, 2020-03-12 The years between 1780 and 1830 are vital decades in the history of Irish writing in English This book charts the confluence of Enlightenment antiquarian and romantic energies within Irish literary culture and shows how different writers and genres absorbed dispersed and remade those interests during five decades of political change During those same years literature made its own history By the 1840s Irish writing formed a recognizable body of work which later generations would draw on quote anthologize and dispute Questions raised by novels poems and plays of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries the politics of language and voice the relationship between literature and locality the possibility of literature as a profession resonated for many Irish writers over the centuries that followed and continue to matter today This comprehensive volume will be a key reference for scholars and students of Irish literature and romantic literary studies

Pragmatism, Law, and Literature David Kenny, 2024-08-06 This book uses literary examples to make the case for understanding law and the legal system through the lens of philosophical pragmatism For pragmatists experience is everything they argue against understanding the world through any abstraction maintaining that it is simply too complicated to fit into categories or theories Legal pragmatism is the application of this philosophy to the making of law the practice of law and the practice of judging This book maintains that the best way to understand legal pragmatism is not through bare theoretical exegesis but through literature that is through stories that cast light on various pragmatic aspects of law Engaging a range of literary sources including works by Seamus Heaney Hilary Mantel Harper Lee and Ian McEwan the book makes a compelling case for the contemporary relevance of pragmatism This book will appeal to legal theorists law and literature humanities scholars readers of literary criticism and those with interests in pragmatist philosophy
