Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1860 The Literature of Hell Margaret Kean, 2021 Essays considering the representation and perception of hell in a variety of texts Narratives of a descent to the underworld of the sights to be seen and the punishments meted out there have kept a hold on the popular imagination for millennia The legacy from doctrinal warnings and the deep set literary markers that identify a place of suffering and alienation continue to stimulate creative exchange and critical thinking Such work takes risks it braves the dark and questions the past The contributions in this volume reflect on the exigency of hell in the stories that we tell They consider the transfer and repurposing of motifs across genres and generational divides and acknowledge the sustained immediacy of physical and psychological landscapes of hell The essays span a wide chronological range and apply various contemporary critical approaches including cognitive science performance studies and narratology This cross period analysis is complemented by interviews with three creative practitioners Jeya Ayadurai director of Hell's Museum in Singapore the actor Lisa Dwan who is acclaimed for her dramatisation of Samuel Beckett's late works and the writer David Almond From ancient myth and early English sermons to mid twentieth century surrealism and current responses to terrorist activities and environmental damage the literature of hell engages with issues of immediate relevance and asks its audiences to reflect on their cultural history the meaning of social justice and the nature of embodied existence

Surrealism, Feminism, Psychoanalysis Natalya Lusty, 2017-03-02 How did women Surrealists such as Leonora Carrington and Claude Cahun take up the question of female identity in terms of their own aesthetic and intellectual practice What was the response of women analysts such as Joan Riviere to Freud's psychoanalytic construction of femininity These are among the questions that Natalya Lusty brings to her sophisticated and theoretically informed investigation into the appropriation of the feminine by the Surrealist movement Combining biographical and textual methods of analysis with historically specific discussions of related cultural sites such as women's magazines fashion debutante culture sexology modernist lesbian subculture pornography and female criminality the book examines the ambiguities and blind spots that haunt the work of more central figures such as Andr Breton Georges Bataille Jacques Lacan Walter Benjamin and the Surrealist photographer Hans Bellmer Lusty s examination of a series of psychoanalytic Surrealist themes including narcissism fantasy masquerade perversion and the double illuminates a modernist preoccupation with the crisis of subjectivity and representation and its ongoing relevance to more recent work by Cindy Sherman and Judith Butler Her book is an important contribution to modernist studies that will appeal to scholars and students working across a diverse range of fields including literary studies gender studies visual culture cultural studies and cultural history

This book provides a critical reappraisal of Barbara Creed s ground breaking work of feminist psychoanalytic film scholarship The Monstrous Feminine which was first published in 1993 The Monstrous Feminine married psychoanalytic thinking with film analysis in radically new ways to provide an invaluable corrective to conventional approaches to the study of women in horror films with their narrow emphasis on woman s victimhood This volume which will mark 25 years since the publication of The Monstrous Feminine brings together essays by international scholars working across a variety of disciplines who take up Creed s ideas in new ways and fresh contexts or more broadly explore possible futures for feminist and or psychoanalytically informed art history and film theory
