Contextualization in the New Testament Dean Flemming, 2025-06-06 Winner of a Christianity Today Book Award Honored as one of the Fifteen Outstanding Books for Mission Studies by International Bulletin of Missionary Research From Cairo to Calcutta from Cochabamba to Columbus Christians are engaged in a conversation about how to speak and live the gospel in today's traditional modern and emergent cultures The technical term for their efforts is contextualization Missionary theorists have pondered and written on it at length More and more those who do theology in the West are also trying to discover new ways of communicating and embodying the gospel for an emerging postmodern culture But few have considered in depth how the early church contextualized the gospel And yet the New Testament provides numerous examples As both a crosscultural missionary and a New Testament scholar Dean Flemming is well equipped to examine how the early church contextualized the gospel and to draw out lessons for today By carefully sifting the New Testament evidence Flemming uncovers the patterns and parameters of a Paul or Mark or John as they spoke the Word on target and he brings these to bear on our contemporary missiological task Rich in insights and conversant with frontline thinking this is a book that will revitalize the conversation and refresh our speaking and living the gospel in today's cultures whether in traditional modern or emergent contexts

The Historical-Critical Method: A Guide for the Perplexed David R. Law, 2012-04-26 Historical Critical Analysis is the main way in which the Bible both the Hebrew Bible Old Testament and the New Testament has been examined and read by scholars in the last century The term refers to a range of methodologies which examine the origins of biblical texts in relation to other contemporaneous texts to form critical approaches and to questions of authorship audience and authenticity The aim is to get as close to the original text and its original meaning as possible For many years Historical Critical Method has been the cornerstone upon which biblical scholarship is built even as modern studies examine other theoretical approaches to reading the text in history tradition and from different audience perspectives the Historical Critical Method still presents the crucial starting point for students and scholars

Luke's Christology of Divine Identity Nina Henrichs-Tarasenkova, 2015-11-19 Henrichs-Tarasenkova argues against a long tradition of scholars about how best to represent Luke's Christology When read against the backdrop of ancient ways of constructing personal identity key texts in the Lukan narrative demonstrate that Luke indirectly characterizes Jesus as the one God of Israel together with YHWH Henrichs-Tarasenkova employs a narrative approach that takes into consideration recent studies of narrative and history and enables her to construct characters of YHWH and Jesus within the Lukan narrative She employs Richard Bauckham's concept of divine identity that she evaluates against her study of how one might speak of personal identity in the Greco Roman world She engages in close reading of key texts to demonstrate how Luke speaks of YHWH as God in order to demonstrate that Luke Acts upholds a traditional Jewish view that only the God of Israel is the one living God and to eliminate false expectations for how Luke should speak of Jesus as God This analysis establishes how Luke binds Jesus' identity to the divine identity of YHWH and concludes that the Lukan narrative in fact does portray Jesus as God when it shows that Jesus shares YHWH's divine identity

The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark Gregg S. Morrison, 2015-02-26 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter's confession 8:27-38 and the Transfiguration 9:2-13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus-like manner enabling the reader to see the author's main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter's confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1:1-13 and functions as a mid-course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end-course conclusion 14:61-62 15:39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8:31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9:1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8:34-38 is to follow

Praising God beside the Sea HaYoung Son, 2017-04-25 This study offers a creative combination of methodologies to provide grounded intertextual procedure for the apocalyptic genre with impact on understanding Revelation 15 Along with the analysis on narrative elements to prove the similarity in the scenery background and examinations of the designation and context of the songs this research reveals thematic parallels in the contents of the songs in Exodus 15 1 18 and Revelation 15 3 4 not argued fully to this point in studies of the Apocalypse These diverse analyses of the intertextuality between Exodus 15 and Revelation 15 strengthen the argument that Exodus 15 should be considered as the OT source of Revelation 15 3 4 John s elaborate deliberate skills interweaving the Exodus theme with his eschatological vision can be observed in the whole book of Revelation in the vision of the bowl judgments Revelation 15 16 in the song of Moses and the song of the Lamb Revelation 15 3 4 and even in the duality of the song s title John offers a glimpse of the readers ultimate victory in their present time and at the eschaton by reminding them of their almighty God who saved the Israelites in the Exodus journey especially at the Red Sea

Theology and Literature: Rethinking Reader Responsibility G. Ortiz, C. Joseph, 2006-05-12 By examining theological and literary narratives through an engagement with well known theorists of reading and religion this collection of essays international in perspective brings together varied refreshing and provocative responses to well established literary and critical theories Polemic in the Book of Hebrews Lloyd Kim, 2006-11-01 The author of Hebrews is arguing that God himself has brought about the fulfillment of these institutions through his Son s priesthood his once for all sacrifice and the new covenant he inaugurated in the last days These new institutions are never denied the Jews In fact the context of the epistle presumes that these are primarily for the Jews considering that the author was speaking to a Jewish Christian community The author is not arguing for the abandonment by God of the Jewish people but rather for the abandonment of the shadowy means by which God s people drew near to him It is here we can speak of a qualified supersessionism According to the author of Hebrews the Levitical priesthood the Mosaic covenant and the Levitical sacrifices have been superseded by Jesus priesthood the new covenant and Jesus once for all sacrifice However we conclude that the polemical passages in Hebrews do not promote hatred of the Jews nor do they advocate the destruction of the Jewish people Rather the author of Hebrews stresses the fulfillment of specific Jewish institutions for the benefit of the Jews It is this idea of fulfillment that rules out the charge that the epistle promotes the supersession of the Jewish people Because of God's great love for his people he has provided a superior way by which his people can draw near to him from the Conclusion
