Heart Of A Heartleeb World

Monica Sjoo, Barbara Mor

Heart Of A Heartle World:

The Secularization of the European Mind in the Nineteenth Century Owen Chadwick, 1990-09-13 Owen Chadwick's acclaimed lectures on the secularisation of the European mind trace the declining hold of the Church and its doctrines on European society in the nineteenth century

The Family Flamboyant Marla Brettschneider, 2012-02-01 Bronze Medalist 2007 Independent Publishers Book Award in the Gay Lesbian Category The Family Flamboyant is a graceful and lucid account of the many routes to family formation Weaving together personal experience and political analysis in an examination of how race gender sexuality class and other hierarchies function in family politics Marla Brettschneider draws on her own experience in a Jewish multiracial adoptive queer family in order to theorize about the layered realities that characterize families in the United States today Brettschneider uses critical race politics feminist insight class based analysis and queer theory to offer a distinct and distinctly Jewish contribution to both the family debates and the larger project of justice politics

Heart of the Heartless World David Margolies, Maroula Joannou, 1995 Margot Heinemann who died in 1992 was a great scholar of the Renaissance period As a Marxist she inspired many with her commitment to the idea that cultural activity was central to the continuing struggle against oppression These writers consider cultural theory in her honour

Anthropological Studies of Religion Brian Morris, 1987-02-27 A lucid outline of explanations of religious phenomena offered by such great thinkers as Hegel Marx and Weber

Fantastic Reality Jack Conrad, 2012-06-02 Religion as defined by Marxism is fantastic reality Fantastic not in the trite sense that the claims religion makes about existence are verifiably untrue unreal or baseless but in the sense that nature and society are reflected in exaggerated form as leaping shadows as symbols or inversions So religion should not be dismissed as mere false consciousness Religion reflects something of the real but as Jack Conrad's book shows there is even more to it than that Religious ideas are not only determined by reality they can themselves become materially effective The ideas people have in their heads especially when mediated through institutions such as churches mosques and temples no matter how wrapped up in the godly and seemingly unrelated to the corporeal world impact on their surroundings

The Future of Religion Michael R. Ott, 2007 This book contains the work of international scholars who address the contemporary globalizing antagonism between religion and secularity in the theoretical and practical pursuit for this antagonism's reconciliation in a more just humane and peaceful future society and world

Irreverence and the Sacred Hugh B. Urban, Greg Johnson, 2019 Irreverence and the Sacred brings together some of the most cutting edge interdisciplinary and international scholars working today in order to debate key issues in the critical and comparative study of religion The project is inspired in large part by the work of Bruce Lincoln whose influential and wide ranging scholarship has consistently posed challenging provocative and often irreverent questions that have really pushed the boundaries of the field of religious studies in important sometimes controversial ways Retracing the history of the discipline of religious studies Lincoln argues that the field has tended to champion a validating feel good approach to religion rather than posing more critical questions about religious claims to authority and their role in history politics and social change A critical approach to the history of religions he suggests would focus on the human temporal and material aspects of phenomena that are claimed to have a superhuman eternal or transcendent status This volume takes up Lincoln s challenge to do better by engaging in critical analyses of four key themes in the study of religion myth ritual gender and politics The book also interrogates the politics of scholarship itself critically examining the relations of power and material interests at work in the study as well as the practice of religion The scholars involved in this project include not only some of the most important figures in the American study of religion such as Wendy Doniger Russell McCutcheon Ivan Strenski and Lincoln himself but also European scholars whose work is hugely influential overseas but not as well known in the U S such as Stefan Arvidsson Claude Calame Nicolas Meylan and others

Many Mansions ,1992-01-31 The Harvard Divinity School professor recounts meetings with Hindu Buddhist Jewish and Marxist men and women and what they have taught him about the relationship between Christianity and other great religious traditions of the world

Marx: A Guide for the Perplexed John Seed,2010-01-01 A concise and coherent overview of Marx ideal for undergraduates and covering the full range of his works and ideas

Fantastic reality. Marxism and the politics of religion , The Universalist and Ladies' Repository ,1845

Face to Face, Volume Three Marty Folsom,2016-08-31 Like falling in love this book argues that a relationship with God begins with surprise proceeds with discovery and shapes a life that comes to share a story of love This book does not describe God but pursues the nature of personally relating with the triune God Consequently it also engages how we relate with humans made in God s image We finish the Face to Face series with this most mysterious and fulfilling encounter a personal engagement with the Relational God known as a community of persons who invite us to share in their life

The Great Cosmic Mother Monica Sjoo,Barbara Mor,2013-12-10 This classic exploration of the Goddess through time and throughout the world draws on religious cultural and archaeological sources to recreate the Goddess religion that is humanity s heritage Now with a new introduction and full color artwork this passionate and important text shows even more clearly that the religion of the Goddess which is tied to the cycles of women s bodies the seasons the phases of the moon and the fertility of the earth was the original religion of all humanity

Warranted Christian Belief Alvin Plantinga,2000-01-27 This is the third volume in Alvin Plantinga s trilogy on the notion of warrant which he defines as that which distinguishes knowledge from true belief In this volume Plantinga examines warrant s role in theistic belief tackling the questions of whether it is rational reasonable justifiable and warranted to accept Christian belief and whether there is something epistemically unacceptable in doing so He contends that Christian beliefs are warranted to the extent that they are formed by properly functioning cognitive faculties thus insofar as they are warranted Christian beliefs are knowledge if they are true

The Fruit of Our Lips Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy,2021-02-01 In the three essays included in this new edition of The Fruit of Our Lips Eugen Rosenstock Huessy made his clearest and most concise presentation of his understanding of the Christian tradition and the creative power of the spoken word proclaimed at the beginning of Genesis and hence at the heart of the Jewish and the Christian faiths Two of the three essays have never appeared in English before All three root in and contribute to the author's ongoing dialogue with his friend Franz Rosenzweig and show the mutuality of the two men's thinking for all their differences Reading the material in the appendices in tandem with the three main essays provides a unique overview of the interpenetration of Rosenstock-Huessy's work on faith and his work on speech

Reading the Parables Richard Lischer, 2014-01-01 Parables make up one third of Jesus' speech in the New Testament In this volume Richard Lischer provides an expert guide to these parables and proposes an important distinction between reading and interpreting the parables Emphasizing the importance of reading the parables versus interpreting them Lischer asserts that reading offers a kind of breathing space to explore historical literary theological and socio-political dimensions of the parables and their various meanings whereas interpreting implies an expert and critical position that must be defended In this volume Lischer lays out four theories for reading parables 1 parables obscure truth 2 parables teach many truths 3 parables teach one truth and 4 parables undermine the truth Ultimately he concludes that biblical parables undermine dominant myths called the truth to shine light on the Truth that is Jesus God's presence with us

The Classical Marxist Critiques of Religion: Marx, Engels, Lenin, Kautsky D.B. McKown, 1975-05-31 In view of the enormous number of works on Marxism in general and in light of the many books and articles touching on the relationship of Marxism to religion in particular it may fairly be asked why yet another such work should be produced My reply is that in eliciting answers to the kinds of questions posed by the methodology I have used it was necessary to go to the primary sources almost exclusively This is not to bemoan a sad fate but to affirm that there are notable deficiencies in the secondary sources relevant to my topic By way of general indictment I contend that the major difficulty with existing studies of the Marxist critique of religion is that their authors whether expositors or critics have failed both to specify their own presuppositions concerning religion and to approach the subject with an adequate comprehension of its many dimensions Since in most cases the reader is equally unprepared anthropologically sociologically psychologically and historically for clear and informed thought in this vast and nebulous area the result has been widespread confusion As if this were not enough numerous writers with little more than polemical interests have compounded the confusion by failing to distinguish between religion in general and their own brands of faith in particular Others have not discriminated between the concepts of metaphysics and the supernatural items of religious belief

Liberation Theology and the Message of Salvation Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy, 1978 Pittsburgh Theological Monograph Series General Editor Dikran Y. Hadidian

The Fruit of Lips Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy, 1978-01-01 Rosenstock grew up in a Europe alive with the quest for the historical Jesus as exemplified in Albert Schweitzer's own life on the one hand and the demolition of the historical Jesus by Ernest Renan Both men represented the triumph of Gnosis the mind as the creator of real fact the triumph of re-creating history as it might have been and believing that it was that way The nineteenth century preoccupation with biography cut Jesus off from his past for biography ends with the death of the individual Christian tradition had always been concerned with thanatography The empty tomb and the events which followed seal antiquity for as the Word became flesh Jesus became the center in the history of Speech Thus we must make the fruit of biographical Christianity of the last century into a seed for our understanding of Speech Indeed the passionate message of Fruit of Lips exemplifying as it does Rosenstock s Speech Philosophy is permeated by the Logos Our author sees in human language divinely given and its grammatical categories a primordial fundament to all subsequent philosophical and scientific efforts to categorize reality The moods of grammar he correlates with the interlocking modes of the Four Gospels Together they embody the grammar of the cross the four cannot be separated from one another Thoughts Indarjit Singh,2023-03-03 INCISIVE VIEWS AND COMMENTS ON NEWS OF THE DAY COUCHED IN HUMOUR AND UNFAILING COMPASSION RT HON BARONESS D SOUZA CMG THE LORD SPEAKER 2011 2016 Lord Indarjit Singh s talks on BBC Radio 4 s Thought for the Day have inspired many including Royalty Prime Ministers Christian Muslim and Jewish leaders One of Indarjit s talks in 1999 provided the impetus in setting up the Lambeth Group to celebrate the Millennium by setting up a Faith Zone at the Millennium Dome and to Indarjit hosting a National Service of Reflection and Reconciliation in the Queen s Gallery of the House of Lords Tony Blair the then Prime Minister described it as the most moving celebration of the Millennium he had witnessed RT HON CLARE SHORT MP SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT Speaking on BBC Radio 4 Today Programme on December 2004 on who she would like to nominate in the Programme s competition Listener s Lord the person listeners would most like to see in the House of Lords I would like to nominate Indarjit Singh He contributes regularly on Radio 4 s Thought for the Day and he gives impressive homilies drawing on the wisdom of Sikh teachings to help us think through the moral issues of the day Lord Singh came a close second to celebrated musician and human rights activist Bob Geldolf
