American soul music of the 1960s is one of the most creative and influential musical forms of the twentieth century With its merging of gospel R B country and blues soul music succeeded in crossing over from African American culture into the general pop culture Soul became the byword for the styles attitudes and dreams of an entire era Female performers were responsible for some of the most enduring and powerful contributions to the genre All too frequently overlooked by the star making critics seven of these women are profiled in this book Maxine Brown Ruby Johnson Denise LaSalle Bettye LaVette Barbara Mason Carla Thomas and Timi Yuro Getting started during the heyday of soul each of these talented women had recording contracts and gave live performances to appreciative audiences Their careers can be tracked through the popularity of soul during the 1960s and its decline in the 1970s With humor candor pride and honest recognition that their careers did not surge into the mainstream and gain superstardom they recount individual stories of how they struggled for success Their oral histories as told to David Freeland address compelling issues including racism and sexism within the music industry They discuss their grueling hardships on the road their conflicts with male managers and the cutthroat competition in the recording business As each singer examines her career with the author she reveals the dreams hopes and desires on which she has built her professional life All seven face up to the career swings from the highs of releasing the first hit to the frustrating lows when the momentum stops Although the obstacles to stardom are heartbreaking these singers are committed to their art With determination and style these seven have pressed onward with club appearances and recordings They survive through their savvy mix of talent hubris and honesty about their lives and their music Blue Eyes Ferdinand Gumbert,1858 Cries of a Tortured Soul R.I. IYEMERE,2013 Since the beginning of time sometimes some peoples chose to write about their life experiences In these works I have just done that but in a form of Poetry because Love is the Stranger Who disagrees should go on and write their version of stories about me is their prerogative I have been discredited by those strangers that think that they hold the powers but I have stated the facts of the matters The things that I heard them say about my daughter and me but I do not possess the powers to rectify the mistakes that have been made As we lead our lives we all make mistakes daily because we are all humans and we are all fallible Due to all that have gone on so many times I cried myself to bed In my darkest hours I was consoled by my Wonderful Daughter Instead of being the Child She grew up faster and became the shoulders to cry on and so I dedicate the entirety of these works to my late daughter s foundation FOUNDATION IN MEMORIES OF ADA EMILA RUTH VALMORI Bsc Hons BECAUSE THESE HONOURS ARE YOURS AND MUST REMAIN YOURS ALONE TILL THE END OF TIME To her Father the Kindest Man truly with a heart of gold the kindest Man on Earth of whom without I probably would not have been here today The Man who brought up his Stepson with the Kindest Heart as he would bring up His Own Natural Child and To My Grandson To another Man a wonderful Person of whom without we would have been homeless for much longer than necessary He who saw that wrong was done and asked that things should be put right To those freedom fighters of yester years and those of today To they who fight for the rights of the weak due to injustices in our World To All the Descendants of Immigrants the World Over those from the beginning of time since Humankind because they were the courageous pioneers who set the pace that some of us followed To those who have travelled abroad to cure their Child To those that believe in Fairness and those who believe in Kindness To those who believe in Love To the Just Women and the Just Men of This Our Great Universe R I IYEMERE The Atheneum ,1827
