New Life Psalms Ronald Metz, 2024-03-08 Life unfolds in broken pieces but pieces can be woven together into a fabric with meaning for us and others We read the Bible and walk the paths of daily life but as many people have said they lack meaning The key to making these strands weave together is the Holy Spirit Our faith in Jesus Christ and the receipt of the Holy Spirit allow us wisdom and knowledge to bring our lives together intersecting relationships with people and places growing through our faith in Jesus In our moments of listening we hear the Holy Spirit speak to us to do to be to share and to grow in love In the hurried lives most people live we miss things We miss the things that can help us grow us and make us resilient But we must listen No two people see or experience things the same and through our sharing we learn and grow This book is about listening to the Holy Spirit speak through daily life lived and experienced not in isolation but in intersection Intersection with others through time and locations across the country and around the world Intersection with others to continue the work of the Holy Spirit in spreading God's message and His love to the world May you be blessed at the intersection of love and life
