Letters From Home:

A Southern Soldier's Letters Home Samuel Augustus Burney, 2002 Samuel A Burney born in April 1840 was the son of Thomas Jefferson Burney and Julia Shields Burney He graduated from Mercer University then at Penfield Georgia in 1860 He joined the Panola Guards an infantry component of Thomas R R Cobb's Georgia Legion in July 1861 For the next four years he served in the Army of Northern Virginia both in Virginia and in Tennessee Burney was wounded at Chancellorsville in May 1863 and as a result of his wound he was placed in disability in March 1864 and served the remainder of the war on commissary duty in southwest Georgia After the war Burney returned to Mercer's school of theology was ordained into the Baptist ministry and served as pastor of several churches in Morgan County He was pastor of the Madison Baptist Church until shortly before his death in 1896 These letters of a college graduate written to his wife Sarah Elizabeth Shepherd Burney are lyrical and beautifully written Burney describes battles camp life theology and the day to day dreariness of life in the army This is an astounding collection of letters for anyone interested in the Civil War or the South Letters Home Rose Leiman Goldemberg, 1980 Drama Characters 2 female Unit set Since her tragic death Sylvia Plath continues to fascinate readers of her poetry and sole autobiographical novel The Bell Jar Letters Home explores the enigma of the great poet's life dramatizing correspondence between Plath and her mother Aurelia Every line of this engrossing drama comes from these letters evoking a gripping and powerful portrait of the woman artist daughter and mother Originally pro Philip Larkin: Letters Home Philip Larkin, 2018-10-30 Letters Home gives access to the last major archive of Larkin's writing to remain unpublished the letters to members of his family These correspondences help tell the story of how Larkin came to be the writer and the man he was to his father Sydney a conservative anarchist and admirer of Hitler who died relatively early in Larkin's life to his timid depressive mother Eva who by contrast lived long and whose final years were shadowed by dementia and to his sister Kitty the sparse surviving fragment of whose correspondence with her brother gives an enigmatic glimpse of a complex and intimate relationship But it was the years during which he and his sister looked after their mother in particular that shaped the writer we know so well a number of poems written over this time are for her and the mood of pain shadow and despondency that characterises his later verse draws its strength from his experience of the long lonely years of her senility One surprising element in the volume however is the joie de vivre shown in the large number of witty and engaging drawings of himself and Eva as Young Creature and Old Creature with which he enlivens his letters throughout the three decades of her widowhood This important edition meticulously edited by Larkin's biographer James Booth is a key piece of scholarship that completes the portrait of this most cherished of English poets Letters Home Martyn Bedford, 2017-11-16 When an out of work actor discovers his bedsit once belonged to an obscure suicidal painter he turns his talents to re-creating the ultimate site specific performance As a teenage girl drifts from depression into a permanent state of sleep she becomes the focus of both scientific interest and an unexpected cult following Against a backdrop of hooliganism and hostility an asylum seeker writes letters home assuring his family how welcoming England is Many of the characters in Martyn Bedford s stories find themselves at a point of redefinition trading in their old identity for something new Whether it is an act of retreat or escape fantasising about storming out of a thankless job or just avoiding a bad tempered husband for a few moments on Christmas day they each understand the first step in changing a reality is to reconstruct it Martyn Bedford is the genuine article a writer of unmistakable flair and accomplishment New York Times Haunting and intimate portraits of vividly different lives that get under your skin and stay there Jeremy Dyson Letters Home further establishes Martyn Bedford as a stand out writer of highly memorable fiction Jacob Ross Letters Home Charlotte E. Thompson, M.D.,2005-06-22 A warm loving glimpse into the lives and journeys of a divorced mother and her two children Letters poetry and drawings

Letters Home Harold M. Coons,Philip M. Coons,2012 Letters from Harold M Coons to his mother during his training and service with the U S Army s 66th Division LETTERS HOME Maggie Stephens-Dykes,2013 Letters Home is the heart tugging second rendition of Maggie s plight to find inner peace This installment focuses on how she believes her mother s alcoholism shaped the lives of her siblings both individually and collectively The cleverly written story intermingles thoughtful observations with humorous stories of over coming insurmountable odds The author discusses the strong bond of siblinghood how it was strengthened while battling the scars that the addiction left behind and letting go of the past This second hand account will have booklovers of all ages and races laughing out loud one moment and crying the next From the beginning of the book to the final sentence it will ultimately leave readers with a different outlook on life love of family and forgiveness Letters Home Pasquale De Marco, In the tapestry of human relationships the bond between mother and child stands as a beacon of love resilience and profound connection Letters Home is an evocative and poignant exploration of this sacred bond told through the heartfelt exchange of letters between a mother and son As we journey through the pages of this book we are privy to the intimate thoughts and emotions of these two souls bound by an unbreakable thread that transcends time and distance Through their letters they navigate the complexities of life facing trials and tribulations with unwavering determination and a shared belief in the power of love The mother s letters are a testament to her unwavering love and unwavering support for her son She pens words of wisdom and encouragement guiding him through the challenges of growing up and finding his place in the world Her letters are a constant source of comfort and strength reminding him of the deep well of love that awaits him at home The son s letters in turn reveal his deep respect and admiration for his mother He confides in her his hopes and dreams his fears and insecurities He seeks her advice and counsel knowing that she will always listen with an open heart and offer him the guidance he needs to navigate the complexities of life Through their poignant exchange of letters we witness the transformative nature of forgiveness the ability to heal wounds and mend broken bonds They teach us that forgiveness is not about forgetting but about releasing the pain of the past and embracing the possibility of reconciliation It is a journey of self discovery a path that leads us to a deeper understanding of ourselves and the people who have shaped our lives Letters Home is a celebration of the enduring power of the mother child bond a bond that transcends time space and even the physical realm It is a story of love resilience and the unwavering belief in the human spirit It is a story that will resonate with readers of all ages reminding them of the preciousness of family and the enduring power of hope If you like this book write a review Letters Home John Edwin Gardiner, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 John Edwin Gardiner was the eldest son of James Jimmy Gardiner the most prominent Liberal politician of his day in western Canada Edwin was called up by the RCAF in November 1940 received his wings in October 1941 and travelled to England in early November 1941 On August 18 1942 on the eve of the Dieppe Raid Edwin wrote to his father At long last we re going to take part in something big which you will read all about in the papers long before you get this letter Edwin Gardiner was killed when his plane went down on the following day James Gardiner who had lost two brothers in the First World War had now lost his son to war His wife Violet found the grief unbearable and took her own life in October 1944 yet another casualty of war Letters Home to Sarah Guy C. Taylor, 2012-11-07 Forgotten for more than a century in an old cardboard box these are the letters of Guy Carlton Taylor a farmer who served in the Thirty Sixth Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry Regiment in the American Civil War From March 23 1864 to July 14 1865 Taylor wrote 165 letters home to his wife Sarah and their son Charley From the initial mustering and training of his regiment at Camp Randall in Wisconsin through the siege of Petersburg in Virginia General Lee s surrender at Appomattox and the postwar Grand Review of the Armies parade in Washington D C Taylor conveys in vivid detail his own experiences and emotions and shows himself a keen observer of all that is passing around him While at war he contracts measles pneumonia and malaria and he writes about the hospitals treatments and sanitary conditions that he and his comrades endured during the war Amidst the descriptions of soldiering Taylor s letters to Sarah are threaded with the concerns of a young married couple separated by war but still coping together with childrearing and financial matters The letters show too Taylor s transformation from a lonely and somewhat disgruntled infantryman to a thoughtful commentator on the greater ideals of the war This remarkable trove of letters which had been left in the attic of Taylor s former home in Cashton Wisconsin was discovered by local historian Kevin Alderson at a household auction Recognizing them for the treasure they are Alderson bought the letters and aided by his wife Patsy painstakingly transcribed the letters and researched Taylor s story in Wisconsin and at historical sites of the Civil War The Aldersons preface and notes are augmented by an introduction by Civil War historian Kathryn Shively Meier and the book includes photographs maps and illustrations related to Guy Taylor s life and letters Letters Home Ary Vreeken, 2024-01-17 In 1999 Ary Vreeken accepted a position as an International Development Worker for a project in Niger with a Canadian church group With extensive experience in both agriculture and community development in Canada and West Africa his mission was to work with a local association of Nigeri n Christians seeking ways to improve food security in the region Told with great insight compassion and wit Letters Home Pictures from Niger is a fascinating collection of short vignettes based on letters sent to family back in Canada during the seven years the author his wife Joanna and their four children lived in Niamey Niger s capital city These vignettes in turn heartfelt informative funny and poignant touch upon everything from agricultural innovation and dust storms to the author s relationship with his Nigeri n colleagues and from the unending challenge of learning French and local languages to a Kafkaesque saga of repairing a washing machine The experience of cross cultural living led to the internalization of new norms and values and a very different and much deeper understanding of both foreign aid and the true meaning of spirituality

World War Ii Letters Home Audrey

Fahlberg,2015-06-27 During World War II as letters arrived from my husband a frontline combat medic in Italy with the Tenth Mountain Division I was given assurance he was alive I had to believe though letters often arrived two months after they were written That letter home was the only communication available in 1944 and 1945 from the Italian front and all letters and cards were censored Newspapers radios and newsreels at the movies told the world of the mountain peaks captured rivers crossed heroic details lives lost That letter home held our hearts together during the war Letters were often written on the surface of his helmet on a rock or a board and on any writing paper that was available The letters home have been lovingly transcribed for easier reading because I wish to share them

Letters Home: One Man, Three Wars Terry A. Roberts,2015-08-25 Read straight from the heart through the eyes of Terry A Roberts hand written letters home to family from the front lines as he relays his fears frustrations trials and triumphs This work chronicles the gritty and often harsh expedition of one man in three wars as both an enlisted Marine and later as a Navy Marine Corps Chaplain with the ever present Hand of God leading his every boot step This patriot odyssey begins with the rigors of Marine Corps boot camp in Parris Island South Carolina and from here it journals his journey through the dirt dust mud and mire of various deployments to include the first Gulf War in 1990 91 to the invasions of Iraq and Afghanistan with tributes to fallen brothers in arms and a family military heritage going back generations to the American Revolution
