Letters Of The Cedar Tree:

Letters of the Cedar Tree I D I Publishing,1999-12-01 Letters of the Cedar Tree tells through fragments of letters the story of an angry youth s journey towards spiritual manhood His anger stems from his perception of cultural disfranchisement owing to his mixed cultural background and distance from his parents Being the product of a Native American and a Jewish American Princess is a bitch In a world of boarding schools and summer camps neither is a title of nobility Yet it is elements of these cultures which become the forges of his ascendancy Without meaning to the letters are a partial journey into the Lakota Sioux spirituality and in so doing uncovers for us a message which is more poignant and urgent today than when these letters were written over two decades ago The Cedar Tree is a symbol of eternal life for Native Americans and the dialogue achieved through these letter fragments speaks to the possible future of the Cedar Tree
