Full transcriptions of some 500 letters covering the years 1856-1935 are arranged in chronological order along with a newly written introduction that explains their context and identifies the recipients, friends, and colleagues mentioned. Since scholarship on Lee's critical and creative output is still in the beginning stages, these letters will serve a purpose to students and researchers in a number of academic fields. In this first volume tracing the years 1856-1884, the assembled letters cover the beginnings of her career, encompassing her first publication, visits to London, and encounters with some of the important artistic figures of the time. As her career begins to blossom, the letters also reflect the expansion of her subject matter from cultural studies and art history to novels and aesthetic philosophy. Correspondents include Lee's parents, Matilda and Henry Paget; her brother, the poet Eugene Lee Hamilton; English poet Mary Robinson; English authors Henrietta Jenkin and Linda Villari; and Italian writers Enrico Nencioni, Mario Pratesi, and Angelo De Gubernatis, among others.
