The First Christian Letters Rafael Rodriguez,2024-02-13 Paul s letters to the Thessalonians are the earliest surviving Christian documents They are also among the most easily overlooked parts of the New Testament What could these short simple letters possibly have to say to a world caught in the throes of racial discord political polarization fears of an uncertain future and fights over truth and false news While Paul and his companions could not have imagined anything like the twenty first century their letters in the mid first century to non Jewish followers of Jesus in northern Greece address problems we still wrestle with today race and ethnicity family ethics an unknown future how to respond to strangers and more These letters rather than being an outdated part of Paul s collected letters provoke us to throw ourselves into the great challenges of the modern world to resist the temptation to repay another person evil for evil and to pursue the good both for one another and for everyone 1 Thess 5 15 Will we read these ancient letters anew

Thessalonians Gordon D. Fee, 2009-07-10 In this commentary Gordon Fee aims first and foremost to offer a fresh exposition of the text of 1 and 2 Thessalonians He shows the reader what is in the biblical text what the text meant in the first century and what it means now Fee reveals the logic of each argument or narrative before moving on to the details of each verse and he concludes each section with a theological practical reflection on the meaning of the text for today Among other things Fee explores the occasion for Paul's writing of each epistle restoring 2 Thessalonians to its rightful place as a full companion to the first letter not merely a tagalong to 1 Thessalonians A labor of love on Fee's part this commentary will serve to help rescue 1 and 2 Thessalonians from their Cinderella status among Paul's letters Fee's primary target is the proverbial busy pastor who wants help in understanding the biblical text as he or she prepares to preach or teach However as with all his commentaries he also provides solid exposition for students in the process of learning how to preach or teach and enough technical material mostly in the footnotes so that even the scholar can benefit Paul in Acts and Paul in His Letters

Daniel Marguerat, 2013 The reception of Paul in the first century is a highly debated issue Daniel Marguerat defends the position of a threefold reception of Paul in parallel ways documentary biographical and doctoral Marguerat advocates that the value of the phenomena of reception be appreciated in particular the figure of Paul in Acts It should not systematically be compared to the apostle's writings even though this image evolves from a Lukan reinterpretation The essays concern the literary and theological construction of the book of Acts focusing on the figure of Paul his rapport with the Torah the Socratic model the Lukan character construction the resurrection as central theme in Acts the significance of meals They also treat themes of Pauline theology Paul the mystic the justification by faith imitating Paul as father and mother of the community and the woman's veil in Corinth Paul and the Gift John M. G. Barclay, 2017-09-11 John Barclay explores Pauline theology anew from the perspective of grace Arguing that Paul's theology of grace is best approached in light of ancient notions of gift Barclay describes Paul's relationship to Judaism in a fresh way Barclay focuses on divine gift giving which for Paul he says is focused and fulfilled in the gift of Christ He both offers a new appraisal of Paul's theology of the Christ event as gift as it comes to expression in Galatians and Romans and presents a nuanced and detailed consideration of the history of reception of Paul including Augustine Luther Calvin and Barth Durrell-Miller Letters, 1935-1980 Lawrence Durrell, Henry

Miller,1998-09-19 In 1935 a young Englishman living on Corfu wrote enthusiastically to a middle aged Brooklynite who had just published a succes de scandale in Paris Tropic of Cancer turns the corner into a new life which has regained its bowels Henry Miller realizing that in Lawrence Durrell he had hooked his ideal reader responded You re the first Britisher who s written me an intelligent letter about the book Thus began a correspondence that ended only with Miller s death in 1980 nearly 1 000 000 words later The Durrell Miller Letters 1935 80 contains an extensive and representative selection of the total correspondence Almost half of the present volume has never been published before including some recently recovered lost letters in addition many passages expurgated from letters published in 1963 have been restored Editor Ian S MacNiven of the State University of New York Maritime College is quite right to regard the Durrell Miller correspondence as a dual biography of the creative lives of two of this century sgreat literary iconoclasts a biography At once as serious as Schopenhauer and as winning as wine Spiritual Letters Sister Wendy Beckett,2013-01-01 A series of spiritual letters to young religious on the spiritual life always laced with sound common sense and good humour
