Bales, 2024-11-07 This book addresses critical gaps in existing biographies of Nelson Algren providing new perspectives on his writing style literary contributions professional colleagues and personal life especially his relationship with Simone de Beauvoir Although Beauvoir maintained a simultaneous relationship with philosopher Jean Paul Sartre the correspondence exchanged between Beauvoir Algren and Sartre as this book discusses sheds new light on her transatlantic love affair with Algren Moreover this work challenges the assertion that Algren's writing aligns seamlessly with the New Journalism style popularized by Tom Wolfe It investigates how Algren's literary legacy might have diverged had he embraced more of the principles associated with New Journalism Wartime Diary Simone de Beauvoir, 2009 Provocative insights into Beauvoir's philosophical and personal development during wartime The Other Within Fredrika Scarth, 2004-11-22 In The Other Within Fredrika Scarth builds upon the recent studies that have surfaced as part of the Simone de Beauvoir renaissance to offer a reading of The Second Sex as an ethical text Scarth provides us with a unique and enlightening study of Beauvoir's writing on the female body and in particular on maternity as an important piece of Beauvoir's writing Unlike other feminist scholars who find in Beauvoir's writing a horror and repudiation of motherhood. Scarth argues that Beauvoir's writing on maternity can open up new possibilities of embodied subjectivity and agency and can found a truly ethical relationship with the other.

Disgraceful Affair Bianca Lamblin, 1996 In this intimate memoir Bianca Lamblin tells the story of her ménage à trois with Simone de Beauvoir and Jean Paul Sartre and their abandonment of her a Jew at the onset of World War II. The Love

Lives of the Artists Daniel Bullen, 2013-02-12 As the oldest of institutions marriage seems outdated in modern times when each individual is encouraged to break with tradition in order to fulfill him or herself. And so artists like Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo seem to be paving the way toward a brave new kind of marriage where spouses would be allowed even encouraged to fulfill different aspects of themselves in outside relationships. Shared creativity they believed would transcend their jealousies and compensate their sufferings through art; they would rise above conventional marital fidelity and prove a higher fidelity to art and to themselves. The Love Lives of the Artists tells the stories of Rainer Maria Rilke and Lou Andreas Salom Alfred Stieglitz and Georgia O'Keeffe, Jean Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir, Diego and Frida, and Henry Miller and Anaïs Nin—five couples who approached their relationships with the same rebellious creativity as they practiced in their art. From their early artistic development and their first experiences in love to their artistic marriages and their affairs and then to their fights and reconciliations, addictions, nervous breakdowns, and continued creativity, The Love Lives of the Artists describes the promise and the price of freedom and creativity in love. Becoming Beauvoir Kate Kirkpatrick, 2019-08-22

One is not born a woman but becomes one. Simone de Beauvoir. A symbol of liberated womanhood, Simone de Beauvoir's unconventional relationships inspired and scandalized her generation. A philosopher, writer, and feminist icon, she won prestigious literary prizes and transformed the way we think about gender with The Second Sex. But despite her successes, she wondered if she had sold herself short. Her liaison with Jean Paul Sartre has been billed as one of the most legendary love affairs of the twentieth century. But for Beauvoir, it came at a cost: for decades she was dismissed as an unoriginal thinker who applied Sartre's ideas. In recent years, new material has come to light, revealing the ingenuity of Beauvoir's own philosophy and the importance of other lovers in her life. This ground-breaking biography draws on never-before-published diaries and letters to tell the fascinating story of how Simone de Beauvoir became herself. Sex, Love, and Letters Judith G.

Coffin, 2020-09-15 When Judith G. Coffin discovered a virtually unexplored treasure trove of letters to Simone de Beauvoir from Beauvoir's international readers, it inspired Coffin to explore the intimate bond between the famed author and her reading public. This correspondence at the heart of Sex, Love, and Letters immerses us in the tumultuous decades from the late 1940s to the 1970s, from the painful aftermath of World War II to the horror and shame of French colonial brutality in Algeria and through the dilemmas and exhilarations of the early gay liberation and feminist movements. The letters also provide a glimpse into the power of reading and the power of readers to seduce their favorite authors. The relationship between Beauvoir and her audience proved especially long, intimate, and vexed. Coffin traces this relationship from the publication of Beauvoir's acclaimed The Second Sex to the release of the last volume of her memoirs offering an unfamiliar perspective on one of the most magnetic and polarizing philosophers of the twentieth century. Along the way we meet many of the greatest writers of Beauvoir's generation: Hannah Arendt, Dominique Aury, author of The Story of O, François Mauriac, winner of the Nobel Prize and nemesis of Albert Camus, Betty Friedan, and of course Jean-Paul Sartre, bringing the electrically charged salon experience to life. Sex, Love, and Letters lays bare the private lives and political emotions of the letter writers and of Beauvoir herself. Her readers did not simply pen fan letters but, as Coffin shows, engaged in a dialogue that revealed intellectual and literary life to be a joint and collaborative production. This must happen to you often, doesn't it? wrote one. That people write to you and tell you about their lives. Simone de Beauvoir Deirdre Bair, 1991-08-15. This definitive biography is based on five years of interviews with de Beauvoir and is written with her full cooperation. Bair penetrates the mystique of this brilliant and often paradoxical woman who has been called one of the great minds of the 20th century and surely one of the most famously unconventional figures of her generation. As a reference work, Simone de Beauvoir can be considered definitive. The Atlantic 16-page photographic insert. Letters for the Ages Behind Bars James Drake, Edward Smyth, 2024-04-25. Letters for the Ages Behind Bars is a history of imprisonment told through the letters of people incarcerated over many centuries for crimes committed or sometimes even for no reason at all. It is a story that runs from St. Paul right up to the present day. The act of depriving someone of their liberty is one of humankind's most enduring responses to crime through history. What society has sought to achieve over the years by doing so has shifted across the centuries and there is now a variety of purposes to express disapproval for the purpose of straight-up punishment through the removal of freedom to protect the general public, to rehabilitate, perhaps even to forget about those with whom we simply cannot cope. The letters assembled here come from all parts of the world and from time immemorial: Thomas Cromwell, Mary Queen of Scots, Eamon De Valera, Al Capone, Martin Luther King, and many more. These letters not only reveal what it is like to be behind bars but raise issues that are still of pressing interest for us today, such as the death penalty, miscarriages of justice, redemption, and social change. They shed light on a system which is primarily one of contradictions: there are letters which inspire, letters which horrify, letters which awe and condemn, even letters which make you laugh or cry. Yale French Studies, Number 135-136. Lauren Du Graf, Julia Elsky, Clémentine Fauré, 2020-01-07. Focused on existentialism, this issue explores current writers, thinkers, and texts affiliated with the movement. In 1948, Yale French Studies devoted its inaugural issue to existentialism. This anniversary issue responds seventy years later. In recent years, new critical and theoretical approaches have reconfigured existentialism and refreshed perspectives on the philosophical, literary, and stylistic movement. This special issue restores the writers, thinkers, and texts of the movement to their subversive strength. In so doing, it illustrates existentialism's present relevance, revealing how the concerns of the past urgently bristle into our own times. Sartre's Life, Times and Vision du Monde William L. McBride, 2013-09-13. William L. McBride, Professor of Philosophy at Purdue

University is co founder of the North American Sartre Society and the first chairperson of its executive board His most recent publications include Social and Political Philosophy and Sartre's Political Theory He was recently named Chevalier dans l'Ordre des Palmes Academiques by the French Government and has served as Chairperson of the Committee on International Cooperation of the American Philosophical Association and as President of the Societe Americaine de Philosophie de Langue Francaise

The World Republic of Letters Pascale Casanova, 2004 The world of letters has always seemed a matter more of metaphor than of global reality In this book Pascale Casanova shows us the state of world literature behind the stylistic refinements a world of letters relatively independent from economic and political realms and in which language systems aesthetic orders and genres struggle for dominance Rejecting facile talk of globalization with its suggestion of a happy literary melting pot Casanova exposes an emerging regime of inequality in the world of letters where minor languages and literatures are subject to the invisible but implacable violence of their dominant counterparts Inspired by the writings of

Fernand Braudel and Pierre Bourdieu this ambitious book develops the first systematic model for understanding the production circulation and valuing of literature worldwide Casanova proposes a baseline from which we might measure the newness and modernity of the world of letters the literary equivalent of the meridian at Greenwich She argues for the importance of literary capital and its role in giving value and legitimacy to nations in their incessant struggle for international power Within her overarching theory Casanova locates three main periods in the genesis of world literature Latin French and German and closely examines three towering figures in the world republic of letters Kafka Joyce and Faulkner Her work provides a rich and surprising view of the political struggles of our modern world one framed by sites of publication circulation translation and efforts at literary annexation
