Letters From Mir:

Letters from MIR: An Astronauts Letters to His Son Jerry M. Linenger, 2002-09-09 An inspiring deeply moving testament to the timelessness of paternal love Dr Jerry Linenger's 132 days aboard the decaying Russian space station Mir were beset by power outages that left the crew in total darkness and tumbling out of control poisonous chemical leaks and near collisions with space debris Most terrifying of all was a raging fire that in a matter of minutes nearly destroyed the station and all on board It was with that last event when with the crew cut off from the world below and locked in a battle for survival Linenger's letters to his son changed from a routine chronicle of daily events into the eloquent deeply moving serial narrative presented in Letters from Mir Combining wise meditations on life destiny and the future of space exploration with wryly playful observations on everyday life this opened conversation between a father and his beloved son is as contemporary as the latest Mars Explorer mission yet as timeless as the paternal sentiments they express Deutsch's

Ludwig Leichhardt M. Aurousseau, 2017-07-05 Ludwig Leichhardt is chiefly known as the most important of the scientific explorers of Australia His lively but detailed letters provide a narrative of his life from his student days in the mid 1830s until 1848 when he disappeared in the Australian interior Leichhardt's main interest was natural philosophy particularly biology geology and geography but as a scholar of nature in the widest sense he closely observed and recorded many aspects of the surrounding world describing social life in early Victorian England and commenting on some of the leading teachers and philosophers of the day However the primary purpose of his studies in German England Paris and Naples was to equip himself as a scientific explorer The idea of exploring Australia was evolved and closely planned with his great friend William Nicholson Leichhardt sailed for Australia in 1841 Volume 2 of this work describes his scientific reconnaissance in eastern Australia undertaken alone during 2 years The final volume is concerned with his major explorations the successful expedition to Port Essington in northern Australia during which he investigated the topography geology and botany of the country and his last two attempts to cross the continent from East to West His last party disappeared without trace in 1848 Mr Arousseau has collected together all Leichhardt s known letters and translated those written in German French or Italian He provides a brief account of Leichhardt s life a chronology of his movements and a bibliography of works relating to him Leichhardt has been the object of much ill informed criticism and the editor s main purpose is to establish an authentic text enabling the man to speak for himself These letters also prepare the way for the publication of Leichhardt s journal Full texts of all letters together with translations of those in German French and Italian This volume contains the letters written while in Germany 1832-7 and between 1837 and Leichhardt s departure for Sydney in 1841 Continued in the following volumes Second Series 134-135 with which the main pagination is continuous This is a new print on demand hardback edition of the volume first published in 1968

George Farquhar, 1742 Letters of Nietzsche Friedrich Nietzsche, 2024-05-09 A new translation from the original manuscripts of Nietzsche s personal letters 165 of them across his entire life This edition is bilingual the original text is included in the back as reference material behind the English translation This is volume 5 in The Complete Works of Friedrich Nietzsche from LP This chronological systematic set of Nietzsche s works is the first ever bilingual Hauptwerke or complete major works of Nietzsche published in English the original German The topics he discusses are vast including Dostoevsky Pascal and the details on his books Briefe über Blattminierer / Letters on Leaf Miners E.M.

Hering, 2012-12-06 My association with Prof Hering extends over the past seventeen years and during this period I have visited him at his home on more than forty occasions and received over 300 letters from him These letters contain much detailed entomological information They also throw considerable light on Prof Hering s personality and character and the background against which he worked The publication of at least part of these letters as a final tribute to Prof Hering has been in my mind for many years This original idea has now been somewhat extended by the inclusion of a number of letters to Dr H Buhr Dr J Klimesch Dr F Groschke and G C D Griffiths all of whom shared Prof Hering s interest in leaf miners Although Dr Buhr is primarily a botanist with Hering s encouragement he has taken an active interest in leaf miners throughout his career and his remarkable collecting becomes apparent from Hering s letters to him For many years Prof Hering has written between two and three thousand letters annually It has obviously been possible to consider here only a very small proportion of these From many of the longer letters only isolated paragraphs have been included Use of italics in the letters was not entirely consistent and has been reproduced as used by Prof Hering Selection of the letters has been based primarily on their entomological interest but numerous passages have also been included illustrating in some way Hering's personal qualities

Liszt Letters in the Library of Congress Franz Liszt, Library of Congress, 2003 Yet he did and thankfully considerable insight may be gained from this as to his relationships compositional methods especially with regard to publication of his works philosophical thoughts attitudes to literature to other composers other artists in different spheres even though more rarely his approach to politics and equally important his religious leanings Your Ever Grateful, Devoted Friend:

Sigfrid Karg-Elert's letters to Godfrey Sceats Harold Fabrikant, 2000 Godfrey Sceats 1888 1966 was an amateur musician organist composer and by profession a linguist proficient in German French and Spanish He first heard Karg Elert's music around 1910 when several accomplished Englishmen were starting to take note of it with enthusiasm Many of the letters are published side by side in German and English and a comprehensive appendix completes the volume The Harmony of the Soul: Sigfrid Karg-Elert's Letters "To His Australian Friends" Harold Fabrikant, 2010 Sigfrid Karg Elert was an important composer in the first decades of the 20th century He was however largely ignored as a composer in his native Germany until the 1960s but it was the English speaking world which discovered him in the early 1900s and realised that he was one of the most important organ composers of his era Arthur Nickson was a leading Australian born musician initially trained in Melbourne and later in London This book contains the letters from a bilateral correspondence which started cautiously formally in 1913 it was interrupted by the Great War but recommenced in 1923 Nickson shared these letters with few others Many had no idea of their content until the collection was published for the first time solely in an English translation in 1996 This is now the second edition of that same work in which some translations are revised more extensive annotations provided and the entire original German text reproduced Letters to Cassite Kings from the Temple

Archives of Nippur Hugo Radau, 1908 Beethoven Letters in America Ludwig van Beethoven, Oscar George Sonneck, Beethoven Association, New York, 1927 The Letters of Fanny Hensel to Felix Mendelssohn Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, 1987 Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel 1805 47 pianist and composer maintained a prolific and witty correspondence with her younger brother Felix over the course of approximately 25 years which is here presented in English translation with the original German for reference As the leader of a vibrant salon Hensel deploys her critical prowess to describe Berlin musical life including its conservative institutions and personalities as well as to evaluate Felix's works in progress in detail We also learn about Hensel's own compositions her attitudes toward herself as a composer and the significance of Felix's views on the formation of those attitudes Hensel's letters provide a fascinating glimpse into the problems and challenges facing gifted women musicians in the nineteenth century The 150 letters are drawn from the Green Books collection of letters addressed to Felix Mendelssohn in the Bodleian Library Oxford Reviews These letters reveal Fanny Mendelssohn to be a thoroughly fascinating individual one whose special relationship to Felix would be enough to guarantee the interest of the documents But we soon become engrossed with Fanny herself as composer as critic as musical commentator and figure in the musical life of Berlin To watch this world through her eyes is to watch it come alive through the wisdom wit and grace of a remarkable person Citron has a gift for rendering the substance and spirit of these letters into charming and effective English prose that preserves something of the formality of nineteenth century discourse together with the passion and spirit of Fanny Mendelssohn Philip Gossett reading this volume is a pleasure not just a musicological duty Clifford Bartlett the volume contains penetrating and highly scholarly critical commentaries and is a valuable addition to mendelssohniana J R Belanger Choice April 1988      The works of ...
