Lexicography And Translation:

Lexicography, Terminology, and Translation Lynne Bowker, 2006-09-28 This volume in honour of Ingrid Meyer is a tribute to her work in the interrelated fields of lexicography terminology and translation One key thing shared by these fields is that they all deal with text Accordingly the essays in this collection are united by the fact that they too are all text based in some way In the majority of essays electronic corpora serve as the textual basis for investigations Chapters focusing on electronic corpora include a description of a tool that can be used to help build specialized corpora in a semi automatic fashion corpus based investigations of terminological knowledge patterns terminological implantation lexicographic information and translation solutions comparisons of corpora to conventional resources such as dictionaries and analyses of corpus processing tools such as translation memory systems In several essays notably those dealing with historical or literary documents the texts in question are specific manuscripts that have been studied with a view to learning more about lexicographic and translation practice The volume is rounded out with a chapter on audiovisual translation that takes a non conventional view of text where text includes film Published in English

Translation and Bilingual Dictionaries Chan Sin-wai, 2013-02-06 Is the bilingual dictionary really the translator's best friend Or is it the case that all translators hate all dictionaries The truth probably lies half way It is difficult to verify anyway as the literature on the subject is limited not helped by the fact that Lexicography and Translation have stood apart for decades despite their commonality of purpose Here is a volume based on the proceedings of a successful conference at Hong Kong that may at last provide some answers

Terminology, LSP and Translation Harold Somers, 1996-12-19 A state of the art volume highlighting the links between lexicography terminology language for special purposes LSP and translation and Machine Translation that constitute the domain of Language Engineering Part I Terminology and Lexicography Takes us through terminological problems and solutions in Europe the former Soviet Union and Egypt Part II focuses on LSP for second language learners and lexical analysis Part III treats translator training in a historical context as well as new methods from cognitive and corpus linguistics Part IV is about the application of language engineering in Machine Translation corpus linguistics and multilingual text generation

The Routledge Handbook of Translation Studies and Linguistics Kirsten Malmkjaer, 2017-12-14 The Routledge Handbook of Translation Studies and Linguistics explores the interrelationships between translation studies and linguistics in six sections of state of the art chapters written by leading specialists from around the world The first part begins by addressing the relationships between translation studies and linguistics as major topics of study in themselves before focusing in individual chapters on the relationships between translation on the one hand and semantics semiotics and the sound system of language on the other Part II explores the nature of meaning and the ways in which meaning can be shared in text pairs that are related to each other as first written texts and their translations while Part III focuses on the relationships between translation and interpreting and the written and spoken word Part IV considers the users of language and situations involving more than one language and Part V addresses technological tools that can assist language users Finally Part VI presents chapters on the links between areas of applied linguistics and translation and interpreting With an introduction by the editor and an extensive bibliography this handbook is an indispensable resource for advanced students of translation studies interpreting studies and applied linguistics Translation and Lexicography Mary Snell-Hornby, Esther Pöhl, 1989-01-01 Translation and Lexicography includes a selection of papers presented at the 1987 European Lexicographers Conference EURALEX The volume gives a comprehensive impression of new developments in the making and use of dictionaries for translation purposes providing practical and theoretical approaches general and in depth studies

Interlingual Lexicography Reinhard Rudolf Karl Hartmann, 2012-02-14 Selection of 24 essays by the dictionary researcher Reinhard Hartmann on Interlingual Lexicography a genre much neglected in the literature including interdisciplinary approaches to translation equivalence its analysis in contrastive text linguistics and its treatment in the bilingual dictionary with particular attention to the user perspective in English and German Manual of Specialised Lexicography Henning Bergenholtz, Sven Tarp, 1995-07-14 From 1990 1994 the Danish Research Council for the Humanities granted a research project entitled translation of LSP texts which was initially split up into five part projects one of which has been concerned with LSP lexicography The Manual of Specialised Lexicography is one of the results of the research undertaken by this project The primary purpose of the Manual is to contribute towards an improved basis for practical specialised lexicography which has so far had but a small share in the explosive development that has taken place in general language lexicography since the early 1970s One implication of this is that only to a limited extent has it been possible to build upon existing findings The Manual thus has the twofold aim of offering guidance and direction to authors of specialised dictionaries as well as contributing towards the further development of lexicographical theories Machine Translation and Computational Lexicography Karl Hyldgaard-Jensen, Bente Maegaard, 1982 Lexicography in the Borderland Between Knowledge and Non-knowledge Sven Tarp, 2008 The book contains a state of the art summary of the theoretical discussions within the field of lexicography during the last decades On this basis it presents and argues for a new general theory called the function theory It goes on to develop this theory in one single field i e learners lexicography where it both formulates the basic elements of a general theory for learners dictionaries as well as a number of specific theories for special subfields such as selection meaning semantic relations morphology syntactic properties and word combinations It contains a big number of examples extracted from existing dictionaries which are discussed from the point of view of the theories formulated Pedagogical Specialised Lexicography Pedro Antonio Fuertes Olivera, Ascensión Arribas-Baño, 2008 This stimulating new book which combines dictionary research and linguistic knowledge analyses the representation of meaning in business dictionaries from a pedagogical perspective By examining in detail the macrostructure mediostructure access structure and microstructure of eight business dictionaries this book presents interesting findings on how the dictionaries studied represent the noun term and on how they cope with the principles of new lexicography that aims at solving the needs of a specific type of user with specific types of problems related to a specific type of user situation This exhaustive study which makes simultaneous contributions to the theory of terminology lexicography and LSP teaching defends a methodological confluence between LSP lexicography and terminology and proposes some guiding principles towards the construction of pedagogically oriented specialised dictionaries that must target students enrolled in LSP courses Business English Business Spanish Business Translation etc Translation and Lexicography EURALEX. Colloquium,1989 Annotation Translation and Lexicography includes a selection of papers presented at the 1987 European Lexicographers Conference EURALEX The volume gives a comprehensive impression of new developments in the making and use of dictionaries for translation purposes providing practical and theoretical approaches general and in depth studies
