Lexicon In Triphiodorum A Lexicon To Triphiodorus:

APHex I Marco Perale, 2020-10-12 Adespota Papyracea Hexametra Graeca provides a comprehensive corpus of anonymous hexameter texts on papyri parchments ostraca and tablets that have appeared in the current and past two centuries. The project has three main objectives: i to retrieve and determine how many and what type of unidentified hexameter poems reached us via Egyptian papyri; ii to restore a readable and reliable text for these poems providing straightforward access to material that has been hard to reach in print format; is still unavailable online or has not been previously translated into English or any other modern language; iii to discuss insofar as the fragmentary state of the evidence allows issues of style, metre and attribution. Overall, it aspires to serve as a fresh and solid starting point for future assessment of Greek poetry in Egypt from the Archaic period to Late Antiquity. This first volume of papyrus adespota contains: i a catalogue of hexameter adespota and ii critical editions with English translation and commentary of cosmologies and foundation poems. no 01-06 astronomical and astrological texts 07-12 didactic and technical poetry 13-16 hymns 17-32 fragments of erotic content 33-38 epithalamia 39-43 and two hexameter anthologies: the Goodspeed papyrus 44 and the so-called Pamprepicus codex 45. Future volumes will contain Encomia and Lamentations 46-67 Bucolic 68-71 and Epic poetry 72-144 assemblages of Homeric verses 145-154 magical verses 155-166 oracles 167-169 fragments of uncertain genre or content 170-204 hexameter quotes from grammatical papyri and ancient commentaries 205-216 217-219 gnomic hexameters 220-221 pangrams 222-235 texts copied or produced within a school context 236-242. Triphiodorus, "The Sack of Troy" Laura Miguélez-Cavero, 2013-10-29. The last full commentary on The Sack of Troy was published by Wernicke in 1819 and even the most recent analyses of the poem tend to see it as a quick halt in the evolution of epic poetry on its way towards Nonnus of Panopolis. This book offers a complete treatment of The Sack of Troy for its own sake. The introduction gathers all the information we have about Triphiodorus and his work, focusing on the reasons behind the election of topic, the outline of the poem, different forms of allusion, the use of the characterisation of individuals and groups to sustain plot development, the nature of the narrator and the value of speeches. This part is followed by a detailed analysis of Triphiodorus' literary universe, his different forms of engagement, not only with Homer and other distant poets but also with Imperial literature and the contemporary cultural production. The line-by-line commentary of the poem attends to the position of each episode in the poem and in the tradition of the Trojan War and offers a linguistic, formal and stylistic analysis. Each section or episode is preceded by a comprehensive introduction, always bringing in all the related bibliography but providing a fresh and reliable view on Triphiodorus. Linguistic Bibliography for the Year 1985 Hans Borkent, H. Borkent, Mark Janse, 1987-11-30.
