Liaison Curtain Calls L. Carlyle, 1997 Liturgical Liaisons Jamey Heit, 2017-08-31 When Jesus offers his body as a promise to his disciples he initiates a liturgical framework that is driven by irony and betrayal Through these deconstructive elements however the promise invites the disciples into an intimate space where they anticipate the fulfilment of what is to come The Last Supper symbol of unfinished life and sacrifice becomes the common thread between John Donne and Emily Dickinson whose poetics acquire liturgical and therefore eschatological features and body and text become the same By tracing the displacing and yet co ordinating theme of the body as a textual presence Liturgical Liaisons opens into new readings of Donne and Dickinson in a way that enriches how these figures are understood as poets The result is a risky and rewarding understanding of how these two gurus challenged accepted theological norms of their day Still Waters David C C McDaniel, 2016-07-07 David Carroll McDaniel was born on May 27th 1956 in St Louis Missouri He was raised up on the St Louis North side in the Von projects housing complex He was born unto his loving parents George and Marlene Ann McDaniel His mother Marlene Ann gave Mr McDaniel his love for poetry and writing at a young age Mr McDaniel s most loved writers are Robert Frost Paul Lawrence Dunbar Emily Dickerson Edgar Allan Poe and Psalm of David Kind of Israel He has four siblings two are sisters with the names Crystal Yvonne McDaniel and Lisa Rose McDaniel He also as two brothers with the names Richard Anthony McDaniel and Dennis Trent McDaniel Their mother Marlene Ann has been deceased since 1981 She was devout God fearing woman Her character was a great influence on the direction of Mr McDaniel s life His book Still Waters is a thirty year journey of events and observance of what his eyes have seen and his ears have heard He hopes and prays that he has completed this work tastefully He wants his reading audience to find it enlightening and entertaining
