Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 Death and dying and death related behavior involve the causes of death and the nature of the actions and emotions surrounding death among the living Interest in the varied dimensions of death and dying has led to the development of death studies that move beyond medical research to include behavioral science disciplines and practitioner oriented fields As a result of this interdisciplinary interest the literature in the field has proliferated This two volume resource addresses the traditional death and dying related topics but also presents a unique focus on the human experience to create a new dimension to the study of death and dying With more than 300 entries the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience includes the complex cultural beliefs and traditions and the institutionalized social rituals that surround dying and death as well as the array of emotional responses relating to bereavement grieving and mourning The Encyclopedia is enriched through important multidisciplinary contributions and perspectives as it arranges organizes defines and clarifies a comprehensive list of death related perspectives concepts and theories Key Features Imparts significant insight into the process of dying and the phenomenon of death Includes contributors from Asia Africa Australia Canada China eastern southern and western Europe Iceland Scandinavia South America and the United States who offer important interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspectives Provides a special focus on the cultural artifacts and social institutions and practices that constitute the human experience Addresses death related terms and concepts such as angel makers equivocal death end of life decision making near death experiences cemeteries ghost photography halo nurses caregiver stress cyberfunerals global religious beliefs and traditions and death denial Presents a selective use of figures tables and images Key Themes Arts Media and Popular Culture Perspectives Causes of Death Conceptualization of Death Dying and the Human Experience Coping With Loss and Grief The Human Experience Cross Cultural Perspectives Cultural Determined Social Oriented and Violent Forms of Death Developmental and Demographic Perspectives Funerals and Death Related Activities Legal Matters Process of Dying Symbolic Rituals Ceremonies and Celebrations of Life Theories and Concepts Unworldly Entities and Events With an array of topics that include traditional subjects and important emerging ideas the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience is the ultimate resource for students researchers academics and others interested in this intriguing area of study Making Sense of the College Curriculum Robert Zemsky, Gregory R Wegner, Ann J. Duffield, 2018-06-08 Readers of Making Sense of the College Curriculum expecting a traditional academic publication full of numeric and related data will likely be disappointed with this volume which is based on stories rather than numbers The contributors include over 185 faculty members from eleven colleges and universities representing all sectors of higher education who share personal humorous powerful and poignant stories about their experiences in a life that is more a calling than a profession Collectively these accounts help to answer the question of why developing a coherent undergraduate curriculum is so vexing to colleges and universities Their stories also belie the public's and policymakers' belief that faculty members care more about their scholarship and research than their students and work far less than most people Liberal Studies 1 ,1990 The Shield ,1914 Unified English , Public Health Service Publication United States. Public Health Service,1964 The Dialogical Turn Charles Camic,Hans Joas,2003-12-09 The discipline of sociology was born and has been recurrently reconstituted in response to the fragmentation of ideas about the social world For two centuries sociologists have sought refuge in synthesis programs designed to integrate multiple perspectives within a unifying framework Yet even as this cause has inspired many of the discipline's major thinkers past and present its objective has proven elusive leaving nearly as many syntheses as synthesizers This volume considers an alternative response that has recently developed within sociology to the crisis of intellectual fragmentation the dialogical turn Rather than decry the multiplicity of social theories research methods and results this response welcomes a plurality of orientations and approaches as the essential basis for establishing and maintaining productive dialogue Examining this exciting development The Dialogical Turn builds on the ideas of Donald N Levine whose extensive writings on the forms and functions of intellectual dialogue provide the point of departure for twelve original essays Written by an internationally renowned group of scholars these innovative chapters explore the dialogical possibilities for sociology both constructively and critically The contributors assess the role of sociology in the conversation across contemporary academic disciplines exploring the fundamental structural and conceptual reconstructions now taking place in sociology and neighboring fields Columbia University Quarterly ,1910 vol 6 includes 150th anniversary number Delta Upsilon Magazine ,1910 International Biomedical Research Kelly M. West,1963 Delta Upsilon Quarterly ,1909 Hispanic Engineer & IT ,1987 Hispanic Engineer Information Technology is a publication devoted to science and technology and to promoting opportunities in those fields for Hispanic Americans The Idea of Design Victor Margolin,Richard Buchanan,1995 An anthology of essays addressing the nature and practice of contemporary product and graphic design selected from volumes four through nine of the international journal Design Issues Themes include reflection on the nature of design the meaning of products and the place of design in world culture Includes b w photos and illustrations c Book News Inc School Life ,1953 Dastardly Discourse Meg Gorzycki,2020-03-09 Screaming at the television compulsively firing off tart little tweets and blogging until we are blue these signal that we are feeling the effects of dastardly discourse We live in a world where people feel entitled to use words to hurt exploit and publicly degrade humanity We daily consume rhetoric that makes a mockery of decency and civility Leaders of key social institutions including government news media and religious organizations who are supposed to be role models of reasoned and compassionate communication are often the ones with the loudest lies and the hardest hate We can change the channel We can unplug We can even encourage others to do the same We may not do so however until we grasp what is fundamentally at risk in our current norms of communication Nasty words are just the tip of the dastardly discourse iceberg What lies beneath is a steady flow of propaganda that aims to control our personal narratives This book is about that propaganda the importance of owning our own narratives and improving our own rhetorical capital the ability to analyze and evaluate information for the sake of sustaining human dignity decency and civility
