Reiss, 2011-11-14 Irv and Mary Reiss aka Dad and Mom wrote this book as two letters per day for fifteen months from late 1943 through March 1945 Friends and relatives added more letters to bring the total to nearly 1 000 Virtually all of their letters ended with I love you very very much and I miss you very very much It s easy to empathize with their frustrations and anxieties about being separated and worried especially with the birth and nurturing of their first child Stephen aka me in June 1944 This book title of From Burma With

Love is an understatement Irv Reiss served in the US Army from June 27 1941 until September 17 1945 for a total of 4 years 2 months and 20 days Foreign service in India and Burma Myanmar was 1 year 1 month and 23 days The foreign service in Burma was very intense and is the heart of this book hence the name From Burma With Love Irv was a labor officer along the Ledo Road from August 28 1944 until December 11 1944 His job was to hire and feed and pay several thousand native laborers and a few elephants to help build that road from Ledo India to Mongyu Burma Read his letter of October 7 1944

Sending My Love Harriet Brugmann,2008-09-22 This story is from letters about John s life aboard the aircraft carrier USS Belleau Wood They tell of the surrender of Japan and going there and about his love and marriage to a WAVE

Getting the Runaround John M. Halushka,2023-09-05 Getting the Runaround takes readers into the bureaucratic spaces of prisoner reentry examining how returning citizens navigate the institutional circuit of parole offices public assistance programs rehabilitation facilities shelters and family courts Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork and forty five in depth interviews with formerly incarcerated men returning to New York City John M Halushka argues that the very institutions charged with facilitating the transition from incarceration to community life perversely undermine reintegration by imposing a litany of bureaucratic obstacles This runaround is not merely a series of inconveniences but rather an extension of state punishment that exacerbates material poverty and diminishes citizenship rights By telling the stories of men caught in vicious cycles of poverty bureaucratic processing and social control Halushka demonstrates the urgent need to shift reentry away from an austerity driven compliance based framework and toward a vision of social justice and inclusion

Designing Type Karen Cheng,2020-10-20 The now classic introduction to designing typography handsomely redesigned and updated for the digital age In this invaluable book Karen Cheng explains the processes behind creating and designing type one of the most important tools of graphic design She addresses issues of structure optical compensation and legibility with special emphasis given to the often overlooked relationships between letters and shapes in font design In this second edition students and professional graphic designers alike will benefit from an expanded discussion of the creative practice of designing type what designers need to consider their rationale and issues of accessibility in the context of contemporary processes for the digital age Illustrated with more than 400 diagrams that demonstrate visual principles and letter construction ranging from informal progress sketches to final type designs and diagrams this essential guide analyzes a wide range of classic and modern typefaces including those from many premier type foundries Cheng s text covers the history of type the primary systems of typeface classification the parts of a letter and the effects of new technology on design methodology among many other key topics

Storytelling Rights Amy Shuman,1986-11-28 Based on intensive fieldwork in an urban American junior high school this original study explores the relationship between oral and written texts in everyday life by analysing tellings and retellings of local events diaries writings and discussions

Never in a Million Years Sylvan Marler,2011-04 NEVER IN A MILLION YEARS is a true and wonderful love story about a young couple that lived over 1400 miles apart and that were destined to meet each other in Destin Florida one day The circumstances of how they met is so unusual that it boggles the mind It is as though that it happened by divine providence a greater power than human nature could plan it It was phenomenal extraordinary and highly remarkable A true love story that is so wonderful and amazing that it seems too good to be true BUT IT IS Daily Grace for Teens ,2013-05-15 Daily Grace for Teens offers inspiration and encouragement using vivid illustrations of just how God s provisions and blessings provide for the needs of a teen s highly charged life Even more they show how God Himself is the greatest grace provision a young person can have His mercy His love His holiness and more A Very Private Eye Barbara Pym,2013-11-21 Barbara Pym is one of my most favourite novelists Few other writers have given me more laughter and more pleasure Jilly Cooper Could one write a book based on one s diaries over thirty years I certainly have enough material wrote Barbara Pym This book selected from the diaries notebooks and letters of this much loved novelist to form a continuous narrative is indeed a unique autobiography providing a privileged insight into a writer s mind Philip Larkin wrote that Barbara Pym had a unique eye and ear for the small poignancies of everyday life Her autobiography amply demonstrates this as it traces her life from exuberant times at Oxford in the thirties through the war when scarred by an unhappy love affair she joined the WRNS to the published novelist of the fifties It also deals with the long period when her novels were out of fashion and no one would publish them her rediscovering in 1977 and the triumphant success of her last few years It is now possible to describe a place situation or person as very Barbara Pym A Very Private Eye at once funny and moving shows the variety and depth of her own story
