Letters And Papers From Prison:

Letters and Papers from Prison Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Isabel Best, John W. de Gruchy, Lisa E. Dahill, 2010-06-01 Despite Dietrich Bonhoeffer's earlier theological achievements and writings it was his correspondence and notes from prison that electrified the postwar world six years after his death in 1945. The materials gathered and selected by his friend Eberhard Bethge in Letters and Papers from Prison not only brought Bonhoeffer to a wide and appreciative readership especially in North America they also introduced to a broad readership his novel and exciting ideas of religionless Christianity his open and honest theological appraisal of Christian doctrines and his sturdy if sorely tried faith in face of uncertainty and doubt. This splendid volume in many ways the capstone of the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works is the first unabridged collection of Bonhoeffer's 1943-1945 prison letters and theological writings. Here are over 200 documents that include extensive correspondence with his family and Eberhard Bethge much of it in English for the first time as well as his theological notes and his prison poems. The volume offers an illuminating introduction by editor John de Gruchy and an historical Afterword by the editors of the original German volume Christian Gremmels, Eberhard Bethge and Renate Bethge. Letters and Papers from Prison Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2018-01-01 One of the great classics of prison literature Letters and Papers from Prison effectively serves as the last will and testament of the Lutheran theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer executed by the Nazis after incarceration in Tegel Prison. Acute and subtle, warm and perceptive yet also profoundly moving, the documents collectively tell a very human story of loss of courage and of hope. Bonhoeffer's story continues to be as vitally relevant as politically prophetic and as theologically significant as it always has. This edition includes a new introduction by Samuel Wells.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Letters and Papers from Prison Martin E. Marty, 2011-02-07 From National Book Award winning author Martin Marty, the surprising story of a Christian classic born in a Nazi prison cell. For fascination, influence, inspiration, and controversy, Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Letters and Papers from Prison is unmatched by any other book of Christian reflection written in the twentieth century. A Lutheran pastor and theologian, Bonhoeffer spent two years in Nazi prisons before being executed at age thirty-nine just a month before the German surrender for his role in the plot to kill Hitler. The posthumous Letters and Papers from Prison has had a tremendous impact on both Christian and secular thought since it was first published in 1951 and has helped establish Bonhoeffer's reputation as one of the most important Protestant thinkers of the twentieth century. In this, the first history of the book's remarkable global career, National Book Award winning author Martin Marty tells how and why Letters and Papers from Prison has been read and used in such dramatically different ways from the cold war to today. In his late letters, Bonhoeffer raised tantalizing questions about the role of Christianity and the church in an increasingly secular world. Marty tells the story of how, in the 1960s and the following decades, these provocative ideas stirred a wide range of thinkers and activists, including civil rights and anti-apartheid campaigners, death of God theologians, and East German Marxists. In the process of tracing the eventful and contested history of Bonhoeffer's book.

Major themes arising from the theology and different interpretations lead the reader into a dialogue with this most influential of thinkers who remains both fascinating and challenging. There is a chronology, a glossary and an index. Precis Fiwan Lokotu, The Aesthetics of Discipleship Adrian Coates, 2021-09-30. Discipleship is embodied Formation in the Christian life is not an otherworldly exercise but one that plays out in this world interwoven with everyday sensory experience in ordinary life. The Aesthetics of Discipleship explores this dynamic through Kierkegaard's framing of aesthetic existence: the sensory experience of being in the moment further developed by Bonhoeffer as operating within a realm of freedom encompassing not only art but play, friendship and cultural formation. In addition to Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer, the work of Iain McGilchrist, Graham Ward and Nicholas Wolterstorff is employed to offer a fresh perspective on discipleship from below. Everyday sensory experiences are integral not only to being human but to the practice of discipleship such that discipleship integrates aesthetic, ethical and religious existence. Aesthetic existence unhinged from a life of faith or fueled by distorted Christendom creates and sustains aestheticized pseudorealities centered on the self. Mature aesthetic existence, however anchored in love for God, plays a fundamental role in the Christian life both as the incarnational celebration of being fully human and also through the preconscious formation of imaginaries by which we live. Bonhoeffer's Questions John W. de Gruchy, 2019-11-08. While in prison during the Third Reich, Dietrich Bonhoeffer raised several core questions in his correspondence with his close friend Eberhard Bethge: How shall future generations live? Who is Jesus Christ actually for us today? What does it mean to be truly human? And who am I? In Bonhoeffer's Questions John W. de Gruchy explores the development of each question in the course of Bonhoeffer's life: how he attempted to answer them and how each prompted further questions in an ongoing conversation with himself, with others and now with us today. De Gruchy does this within the framework of his own life-long and life-changing conversation with Bonhoeffer in the context of South Africa from the beginning of the apartheid era to the present day. He also describes how he has come to know Bonhoeffer as a theological witness to Christ, a prophet of God's justice and a Christian humanist before proceeding with a series of questions addressed to Bonhoeffer with the reader in mind. These range from the debate about God and the future of Christianity to the involvement of Christians and the church in political struggles today. The Polyphony of Life Andreas Pangritz, 2019-10-25. This fascinating book, which explores an intriguing idea formulated by Dietrich Bonhoeffer in the very last months of his life, has up until now been available only to German readers. Since Polyphonie des Lebens first appeared twenty-five years ago, a whole new generation of scholars has come into contact in English as well as in the original German with the entire collection of his works as well as with a huge body of Bonhoeffer studies that have provided an exhaustive assessment of the man and his theology But now with this brand new English edition of a book that explores a neglected but significant aspect of his life readers may be surprised to discover how Bonhoeffer's interest in music influenced him he seriously considered becoming a professional musician as a teenager but chose the path of theology instead and that not only did music provide him with a rich inner world of solace during his daily life while confined in Tegel Prison during 1943 and 1944 but music also lent him a remarkable metaphor for the fragmentary nature of life itself In Polyphony of Life Andreas Pangritz explores Bonhoeffer's musical development and its impact on his theology and so fills in an important gap in the record of Bonhoeffer's life and thought

Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier A. Garcia, 2019-10-14 In Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier Garcia explores the possibilities for Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology to revitalize interest in the ecumenical movement and Christian unity today Although many commentators have lamented the waning interest in the ecumenical movement since the 1960s the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation in 2017 coupled with recent inroads such as the ecumenical efforts of Pope Francis have opened new possibilities for the ecumenical project In this context Garcia presents Bonhoeffer as a helpful model for contemporary ecumenical dialogue He finds important points of convergence between Bonhoeffer and Calvin thereby establishing potential areas of rapprochement between the Lutheran and Reformed traditions Beyond examining the state of ecumenism and unfolding the ecumenical promise of Bonhoeffer's thought Garcia assesses the future of ecumenical engagement in a secular age Altogether he proposes a recovery of the ecumenical Bonhoeffer for envisioning new possibilities for church unity in our day

Damned If You Do Margaret S. Hrezo, John M. Parrish, 2010-03-18 Problems of individual moral choice have always been closely bound up with the larger normative concerns of political theory There are several reasons for this continuing connection First the value conflicts involved in private moral choice often find themselves reproduced on the public stage for example states may find it difficult to do right by both justice and mercy in much the same way individuals do Second we frequently find conflicts among the values at stake in individual life and public life such that the moral choice we must make is between private and public goods Loosely speaking choices which express these conflicts are what philosophers call moral dilemmas choices in which no matter what one does one will be forfeiting some important moral good in which wrongdoing is to some degree inescapable in which one is perhaps literally damned if one does and damned if one doesn't The eight essays collected in this volume explore the philosophical problem of moral dilemmas as that problem finds expression in ancient drama classic and contemporary novels television film and popular fiction They consider four main types of dilemmas In the first section the authors examine dilemmas associated with political stability and regime change as expressed in the HBO television series Deadwood and in Stephen King's novels and short stories The second section confronts dilemmas associated with public leadership considering the ethical conflicts in Aeschylus's classical dramas The Suppliants Tolkien's Lord of the Rings and in the contemporary FOX television series 24 In the volume's third section the authors examine dilemmas of institutional evil specifically slavery as they emerge in Harriet Beecher Stowe's classic novel Uncle Tom's Cabin and in J K Rowling's Harry Potter novels Finally the collection considers dilemmas of community and choice in Toni Morrison's novel Paradise and in the contemporary film A Simple Plan

This Monastic Moment John W. de Gruchy, 2021-07-28 Kairos refers to moments in chronological time when all hell is breaking loose and we are called to change our ways before we are dragged into the abyss Kairos is apocalyptic time and it is here and now Such is the time in which we need to listen again to St Benedict of Nursia Far too many of us Christians have either been seduced by the false values of the age and the spirit of Christian triumphalism or else have been attracted to gnostic forms of spirituality that provide a means of escape from reality and responsibility Any delay in responding to this kairos moment increases the danger that we fail to change our ways and grasp the opportunity God gives us to receive the coming kingdom in greater fullness now So St Benedict fifteen hundred years after he wrote his Rule continues to tell us to listen wake up and run while there is still light This is a time for both contemplation and action prayer and doing justice a time for mystics and prophets to join hands and hearts for the sake of the world From the Prologue

Unconscious Christianity in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Late Theology Eleanor McLaughlin, 2020-03-27 In the last years of his life Dietrich Bonhoeffer began work on an idea that he called unbewusste Christentum unconscious Christianity While Bonhoeffer's other ideas from this period have been extensively studied and are important in the field of theology and beyond this idea has been almost completely ignored For the first time in Bonhoeffer scholarship Eleanor McLaughlin provides a definition of unconscious Christianity based on a close reading and analysis of the texts in which Bonhoeffer mentioned the term From a variety of surviving texts from a scribbled marginal note in his Ethics manuscript to the fiction he wrote in prison she constructs a detailed definition of unconscious Christianity that sheds light not only on Bonhoeffer's late work but his theological development as a whole
