

TO MY GRANDDAUGHTER

Never forget how much I love you.

As you grow older you will face many challenges in life, just do your best. Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass, it's about learning
how to dance in the rain.

Every day may not be good, but find something good in every day.
Laugh, love, live. Follow your dreams, believe in yourself, and Remember to be awesome; I'll always be with you.

LOVE, GRANDMA

Letters to Grandma: A Christian Fiction Novel Kayla Lowe, A heartfelt journey of love loss and the healing power of memories Letters to Grandma is a poignant and heartfelt journey of love loss and healing After the death of her beloved grandmother Imogen begins writing a series of letters to her in an effort to cope with the deep grief that has consumed her Through these letters Imogen reflects on the memories that shaped her birthday dinners of fried chicken and cornbread Sunday afternoons spent with her grandparents and the warmth of her grandmother's comforting hugs As Imogen pours her heart out onto the page she confronts her regrets missed phone calls time spent away from home and the moments she didn't cherish enough She finds herself longing to know more about the woman who meant so much to her wishing she had asked her more about her past and the life she led before becoming Grandma In her letters Imogen finds healing as the words of love and loss help her navigate the complicated terrain of grief A butterfly landing gently on her hand as she writes the final letter becomes a sign from God reminding her that though her grandmother is gone her love will always guide her forward Letters to Grandma is a beautiful exploration of family bonds the quiet strength of those we love and the peace that comes from accepting the past while moving toward the future Perfect for fans of reflective and emotional family stories this book will touch your heart and stay with you long after the last page

The Letter Project Sharon Barbara, 2014-10-02 I don't feel so good today Svensk My chest hurts headaches and nervous as hell I was just thinking today that you might not accept this wreck that the army will turn back to you after the war I wouldn't blame you if you didn't September 1 1944 Sharon Barbara was born in 1948 three years after her father was discharged from a military psychiatric hospital His nervous condition was a mystery to her and a secret source of shame she couldn't bear to acknowledge that is until she read his letters The box containing the letters that her father wrote to her mother between November 1942 and April 1945 his time in the service during WWII had been right under her nose for years in the closet of her childhood bedroom The Letter Project began as a simple preservation task but over time it became a memoir as one question led to another The author's inventive approach of blending memoir letters and fiction culminates in a captivating story of a daughters journey through her familys past to find freedom and peace Inspired by letters her father wrote to her mother before and after D Day The Letter Project offers us a beautifully written portrait of Barbaras own battles with self doubt depression and loss      Poochie'S Changing Daze Beverly Ann Marcoux Johnston,2012-04-20 Beverly has been called Poochie by her family that her father occasionally forgets her real name She grew up in Nairn Centre Ontario a small community where everyone knew almost everything going on in everyone elses household Even so she still managed to have secrets In this memoir she tells the story of her youth from her childhood through her teenage years She shares her wealth of exciting and embarrassing moments from her life as a child trying to learn how to be herself in a constantly changing world She was a child obsessively dependent on her mother to the point of having suicidal thoughts when she believes she has lost her mothers respect With an open and honest mind Poochie shares each childhood turmoil as it gets conquered and turned into a stepping stone for the next adventure in Poochies Changing Dazea story of the love and strength that a family gets from having each other      A Letter from Sheri Cheryl Gyant,2022-05-25 A Letter from Sheri is a story inspired by the 1986 California serial killer murders executed by Charles Ng and Leonard Lake I began writing a book in 2001 about how it felt to be adopted As a child I was led to believe that my biological mother was murdered by my biological father When I was a teenager I dove deep into a seemingly endless search that spanned a decade searching for answers As an adult my biological Aunt found me and confirmed that my mother had been a victim of the Calaveras County California Charles Ng and Leonard Lake serial killings in 1985 After reaching out to the since retired detective on her case he sent me an eleven page letter written by my mom that had somehow been gleaned from a sea of evidence left at the crime scene It answered almost every question that I had After learning everything through her letter my biological father and my adoption files I finally concluded that she never had a voice or a chance in life My attempt to become her voice gave way to a passion to tell a whole new story A story once about my search for answers as an adoptee had been transformed to the harrowing story of a victim A Letter from Sheri The details accounted in the letter tell the story of a life of trauma that started at an early age and culminates with Sheri s life in the hands of ruthless serial killers when she took her last breath      Annabell'S Talent Search Colleen Rasco,2017-02-23 Annabell is on a search for her talents She discovers through a series of failures and successes that God gives each person unique abilities and passion Sometimes all you need is a trip to your grandmothers      Dying to Teach Jeffrey Berman,2012-02-01 In Dying to Teach Jeffrey Berman confronts the most wrenching loss imaginable the death of his beloved wife Barbara Through four interrelated narratives how Barbara wrote about her illness in a cancer diary how he cared for her throughout her illness how his students reacted to his disclosure that she was dying and how he responded to her death Berman explores his efforts to hold on to Barbara precisely as she was letting go of life Intensely personal Dying to Teach affirms the power of writing to memorialize loss and work through grief and demonstrates the importance of death education teachers and students writing and talking about a subject that until now has often been deemed too personal for the classroom     Dear Mom Deborah Berger,2002-01-09 Dear Reader Every woman has stories to tell about her mother The mother she has the mother she wants the mother she misses the mother she didn't know We carry our mothers with us Sometimes we carry her in our hearts in our heads or on our backs Sometimes we are connected to our mothers with the thick strong cords of intertwined love and true acceptance other times the bonds are stretched thin and taut scratching against our consciousness rubbing raw the sore spots in our souls But we are always linked to our mothers both to the dreams of the mothers we wish for and the realities of the mothers we have Even if our mother has been gone for years for decades the relationship is still very much alive Mom is still with us offering advice encouragement criticism appreciation rejection solace What we daughters do with this ongoing commentary whether we unknowingly incorporate it into our reality or consciously and carefully review it deciding what to keep and what to put away is fundamental to how fully we lead our own lives In Dear Mom Women's Letters of Love Loss and Longing you meet women who have stripped away pretenses societal constraints and basic fears to uncover and express their most private truths about their relationship with their mothers You get to peer over the shoulders of the women share in their laughter and experience their struggles You see how other women cast light on this most complicated rewarding and sometimes frustrating relationship You witness women at different stages of their lives reflecting on the legacies their mothers knowingly or unconsciously but always powerfully left them You hear how other women experience the glories and the scars the hurt and the healing that make up this most primal of connections You also get to meet the women behind the letters since each Dear Mom letter is followed by a profile of the contributor You learn about the surprises satisfactions and challenges they faced in writing down their most private truths The 25 Dear Mom contributors include women from a variety of backgrounds careers religions and lifestyles They include present and former teachers business owners homemakers real estate agents artists secretaries social workers journalists and government officials Some are accomplished professionals well known in their fields and public figures in their communities They are married single divorced widowed Many though not all are mothers themselves Many contributors are baby boomers in their 40s and 50s Others are in their 60s 70s and 80s The oldest contributor is over 90 her conversation with her mother continues     Letter to the Predator Elizabeth Allred,2024-11-15 It was 3 30 a m My brain would not stop its thinking processes The circular argument of supported finding versus unsupported finding evidence or opinion continued to scream its awareness into my desire for sleep I had not had a full undisturbed eight hours of sleep in twenty years Well not without double digits of melatonin milligrams I do my best thinking when my thinking doesn't stop I was tired of watching one child abuser after another get little to no consequence for destroying the futures of so many innocent victims I felt more and more infuriated after learning a case investigated with solid evidence had charges negotiated and pled down to little or no jail time Child abuse in Utah is a misdemeanor Animal abuse is a felony Every case a CPS worker in this state gets starts out at a disadvantage to the victim with the perpetrator given a head start to reoffend CPS caseworkers and law enforcement officers work together to protect these children only to have our state targeted by sex traffickers and child abusers because they know that if they get caught the chances of a light to no sentence are a reality After grabbing my phone and allowing the blue light to reawaken my eyes from what my brain was already fighting against I jotted down this little number I immediately felt resolved After thirty minutes of finger fighting the small keyboard on my phone the result was the warning I wanted No I needed every predator to know I was coming and I was coming for them And if I couldn't sleep they shouldn't think they could either
