Letters From Home Vol Iii:

The Letters of Philip Webb, Volume III John Aplin, 2015-12-22 Philip Webb was a British architect known as a founder of the Arts and Crafts movement and also a key member of the Pre Raphaelite circle. He had a long association with William Morris and was responsible for the design of the hugely influential Red House. Morris's first home. Webb's letters will be of interest to art and architecture historians. The Collected Letters of William Morris, Volume III William Morris, 2014-07-14 These volumes bring to a close the only comprehensive edition of the surviving correspondence of William Morris 1834-1896, a protean figure who exerted a major influence as poet, craftsman, master printer and designer. Volumes III and IV taken together give in detail the comments and observations that articulate his problematic political and artistic stands and equally problematic position within the aesthetic movement as it developed in the 1890s. Most eloquently voiced also are the complexities of his troubled marriage and his devotion to his epileptic daughter Jenny and his other daughter May. But dominating all these themes, organizing and structuring them, are the Kelmscott Press and the building of Morris's important library of medieval manuscripts and early printed books. The letters record the way in which the Press becomes not only the center of Morris's aesthetic ambitions and achievements but also the site for his closest human relations and for much of his connecting with the makers of early modernism. The letters in Volumes III and IV are thoroughly annotated and through texts and notes provide a new assessment of Morris's career. Included also as appendices to Volume IV are two important documents: the first never before published is F. S. Ellis's Valuation List of Morris's library made after Morris's death and the second never before reprinted is the text of what was to be Morris's final essay on socialism published in April 1896. Originally published in 1995, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. Sir Ernest Satow's Private Letters - Volume III, The Satow-Reay Correspondence (1907-1921) Ian Ruxton (ed.), 2020-01-04 This is the third volume in a series of private letters written by Sir Ernest Satow 1843-1929 to his close friends. Volume One comprises his letters to Japanologists William George Aston and Frederick Victor Dickins. Volume Two consists mainly of letters to and from John Harington Gubbins who had worked under Satow in Japan. In this third volume Satow mainly discusses international law, law of the sea in wartime, Versailles peace treaty etc and the current political situation in the UK and Europe, a far cry from his East Asian focus on Japan which monopolised Volume One and was still evident in Volume Two. Lord Reay had no experience of Japan in his distinguished career. The expert foreword is by Dr J. E. Hoare, formerly of H. M. Diplomatic Service and a Teaching Fellow at S. O. A. S.

This collection of Sassoon and Blunden's correspondence contains more than 1,000 letters, cards and telegrams. The Uncollected Letters of Algernon Charles Swinburne Vol 3 Terry L Meyers, 2024-10-28 These three volumes of letters by Algernon Charles Swinburne add approximately 600 letters by this poet that were not available when Cecil Y Lang published his six-volume edition of Swinburne's letters. The volumes also contain a selection of several hundred other letters addressed to Swinburne. The Collected Letters of C.S. Lewis, Volume 3 C. S. Lewis, 2004 The letters found in Volume II reveal inside accounts of how The Screwtape Letters came to be written, the early meetings of the Inklings with J.R.R. Tolkien giving readings about hobbits and Middle Earth, how C.S. Lewis became popular through BBC radio talks but mostly how this quiet professor in England touched the lives of many through an amazing discipline of personal correspondence. Letters from Abroad to Kindred at Home Catharine Maria Sedgwick, 1841.
