Letters from the Desert Carlo Carretto, 1976 Love Letters from a Desert Rat Liz Macintyre, Liz MacIntyre, 2016-07-22 When Liz Macintyre's mother died she found a collection of 300 letters from her father Alex spanning his service in Italy and Egypt in the Second World War His career began in 1940 sailing down the west coast of Africa then up to Egypt and the next few years were spent chasing Rommel and the Afrika Corps all over North Africa By 1943 he was in mainland Italy where he spent the rest of the war Beautifully written Alex's letters offer an intimate account of war from a regular desert rat and cover such daily matters as football insects and sandstorms alongside accounts of survival in the Italian mountains escape during the retreat at Tobruk and leave in Cairo and Palestine Nan wrote as many letters to Alex as he wrote to her but he had a ritual of burning the letters as he went so that he would not have to carry them with him and sadly none have survived However Alex's letters often answer her questions point by point so the reader can easily envisage Nan's feelings as well as following Alex's personal account of war

Disciples of the Desert Jennifer L. Hevelone-Harper, 2005-07-12 Publisher Description

Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert Hélène Cuvigny, 2021-08-21 A detailed archaeological study of life in Egypt's Eastern desert during the Roman period by a leading scholar Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert is a two volume set collecting H l ne Cuvigny's most important articles on Egypt's Eastern Desert during the Roman period The excavations she directed uncovered a wealth of material including tens of thousands of texts written on pottery fragments ostraca Some are administrative texts but many more are correspondence both official and private written by and to the people mostly but not all men who lived and worked in these remote and harsh environments supported by an elaborate network of defense administration and supply that tied the entire region together. The contents of Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert have all been published earlier in peer reviewed venues but most appear here for the first time in English. All of the contributions have been checked or translated by the editor and brought up to date with respect to bibliography and some have been significantly rewritten by the author in order to take account of the enormous amount of new material discovered since the original publications. A full index makes this body of work far more accessible than it was before. This book assembles into one collection thirty years of detailed study of this material conjuring in vivid detail the lived experience of those who inhabited these forts often through their own expressive language and the realia of desert geography, military life, sex, religion, quarry operations and imperial administration in the Roman world.
