Letters From Wales:

Letters and Essays on Wales Henry Richard, 1884 Letters from Wales Joan Abse, 2000 This fascinating anthology of letters spans over eight centuries of life in Wales and provides an enthralling commentary on its historical development from the medieval times to the 20th century The letters bring Welsh history to life through vivid vignettes of personal experience and all too human opinion While seemingly devoted to events in Wales the correspondents are also measuring Wales's place in Britain Europe and the world These letters are from kings princes and bishops to writers artists and politicians from the medieval machinations of Glyndwr and Hotspur to industrial disputes from Oliver Cromwell to Lloyd George George Eliot to Dylan Thomas Edward I to Evelyn Waugh Here too are letters from Nathaniel Hawthorne and John Cooper Powys about emigration to America for religious reasons or because of the 19th century industrial revolution These letters provide a richly textured informative and entertaining book about this fascinating country its history and its people Letters from Wales: a Republication, by Permission, of a Series of Letters in the "Times" Dealing with the State of Wales in Especial Relation to the Land, the Church, and the Tithe. By a Special Correspondent Wales, 1889 Letters from Wales: a republ. of a series of letters in the 'Times' by a special correspondent [J.E. Vincent]. James Edmund Vincent, 1889 Letters from Wales Sam Adams, 2023-04-07 Letters from Wales stands alone as an invaluable guide to Welsh writing Sam Young Wales Arts Review In these columns as impressive for their depth as they are for their intellectual breadth Adams analyses the work of acclaimed Welsh writers with scholarly panache Joshua Rees Buzz Magazine illuminating and entertaining Jon Gower Nation Cymru Since 1996 Sam Adams's Letter from Wales column has been appearing in PN Review one of the most highly regarded UK poetry magazines offering insight and appreciation of Welsh writing culture and history This landmark volume collects these letters a quarter century of work and offers one of the most unique independent and passionate critical voices on the writing and cultural output of Wales during this period Here you will find erudite appreciations of the work of a wide range of recent and contemporary Welsh writers from Gillian Clarke to Roland Mathias RS Thomas to Rhian Edwards Alongside this Adams offers us lyric essays to Welsh history and clear eyed examinations of the institutions of Welsh culture Collected for the first time in this volume the letters are among the most significant and sustained attempts during this period to present Welsh writing to an audience throughout the UK and beyond Letters written during a tour through South Wales John Evans, 1804 The Letters of Edward I Kathleen B. Neal, 2021 Detailed examination of the letters of Edward I reveals them to be powerful and sophisticated political tools Highly commended for the Royal Studies Journal Book Prize 2022 As formulaic in appearance as they are abundant in the archives it is easy to underestimate the power of the letters generated by medieval governments but these acts of communication were more than mere containers of information Operating at the intersection of the spoken and the written the performed and the observed they produced a discourse that maximized royal authority and promoted solidarity between sender and recipient This book situates letters within medieval theories of composition and habits of reception to argue that even mundane letters of governance were rhetorical texts It focuses on the example of Edward I of England whose rhetorical prowess was noted often critically by contemporaries It shows how the king's correspondence varied in tone vocabulary and structure across his reign and between recipients revealing an unexpected dynamism of political discourse Moving between historical context and close readings of individual letters this volume identifies letter writing as an art through which the king and his government attempted to negotiate and mould relationships with political communities and diplomatic interlocutors alike Letters from Wales James Edmund Vincent,1889
