Sutton, 1995 Letters of Matthew Arnold 1848-1888 Matthew Arnold, 1895 Ethnicity and Cultural Authority Daniel G. Williams, 2005-12-08
Longlisted for the Wales Book of the Year 2007 Writing in 1903 W E B Du Bois suggested that the goal for the African American was to be a co worker in the kingdom of culture He was evoking culture as a solution to the divisions within society thereby adopting in a very different context an idea that had been influentially expressed by Matthew Arnold in the 1860s Du Bois questioned the assumed universality of this concept by asking who ultimately is allowed into the kingdom of culture How does one come to speak from a position of cultural authority This book adopts a transatlantic approach to explore these questions It centres on four Victorian men of letters Matthew Arnold William Dean Howells W B Yeats and W E B Du Bois who drew on notions of ethnicity as a basis from which to assert their cultural authority In comparative close readings of these figures Daniel Williams addresses several key areas of contemporary literary and cultural debate The book questions the notion of the West as it appears and re appears in the formulations of postcolonial theory challenges the widespread tendency to divide nationalism into civic and ethnic forms and forces its readers to reconsider what they mean when they talk about culture identity and national literature Key Features Offers a substantial innovative intervention in transatlantic debates over race and ethnicity Uses 4 intriguing authors to explore issues of national identity racial purity and the use of literature as a marker of cultural capital A unique focus on Celtic identity in a transatlantic context Sets up a dialogue between writers who believe in national identity and those who believe in cultural distinctiveness A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 1 A-L T. Bose,Paul Tiessen,2011-11-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works Literature and Learning Stefan Collini,2025-03-05 The study and teaching of English literature is generally regarded as one of the central disciplines in the modern university yet for much of its history it struggled to gain academic legitimacy and was frequently derided as a soft option Its early professors responded by emphasizing its scholarly character foregrounding philology and literary history in ways that marked the syllabus far into the twentieth century Stefan Collini provides here the first full account of the discipline s development from its late eighteenth century beginnings up to the early 1960s Paying special attention to institutional settings he challenges numerous assumptions about the character of universities in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries From the detailed exploration of syllabuses exam papers and other institutional records the impact of literary criticism is revealed to be later and more partial than is commonly assumed Rather than seeing the early teaching of English literature as a substitute for religion or a means to soften class conflict Collini emphasizes the role of ideals of learnedness and scholarship as well as of external factors such as opportunities for employment in the civil service and secondary school teaching There are full discussions of the parts played by such figures as John Churton Collins A C Bradley George Saintsbury and Walter Raleigh together with sceptical analyses of the decisive significance usually attributed to Matthew Arnold T S Eliot I A Richards and F R Leavis Separate chapters are devoted to neglected aspects of the story such as the role of Classics the importance of the subject for women s higher education and the connections with English teaching in schools Drawing on extensive use of institutional archives and records as well as the writings of contemporary participants the book offers a vivid and wide ranging history of English as discipline and its centrality across academic literary cultural and educational life over the past two year hundred years as well as a resounding testament to its continued importance and relevance today The Cambridge History of English Literature Sir Adolphus William Ward,Alfred Rayney Waller,1917 Letters of Matthew Arnold, 1848-1888 Matthew Arnold,1968 A Catalogue of the Printed Books, Manuscripts, Autograph Letters Etc Frederick Locker-Lampson,1900 Catalogue London Toynbee hall, free students' libr,1890 Aspects of English Negation Yoko Iyeiri,2005-12-08 This book contains eleven carefully selected papers all discussing
