Letters From A Portuguese Nun:

The Letters of a Portuguese Nun Mariana Alcoforado, 1929      The Letters of a Portuguese Nun Mariana Alcoforado, Gabriel Joseph de Lavergne vicomte de Guilleragues, 1905      The Letters of a Portuguese Nun (Marianna Alcoforado) Gabriel Joseph de Lavergne vicomte de Guilleragues, 1900      Letters of a Portuguese Nun Mariana Alcoforado, 1973      The Love Letters of a Portuguese Nun Gabriel Joseph de Lavergne vicomte de Guilleragues, 1996

These letters were first published anonymously in 1669. Ostensibly they were translations into French of five love letters written by a nun cloistered in a provincial Portuguese convent to a French officer who had loved her and left her. More than a hundred years later the nun was identified as Mariana Alcoforado, a gentlewoman who had lived in the Franciscan convent of Beja. The officer was thought to be No 1 Bouton de Chamilly who went to Portugal in 1663 to support the Portuguese in their war against the Spanish. Recently scholars have identified the author as the Vicomte de Guilleragues, a nobleman at Louis XIV's court who wrote them as a literary exercise. The letters display a remarkable psychological insight into the mind of a woman in love, attesting to a slow but crucial development of self-awareness and a beautifully controlled treatment of passion on the edge of hysteria.

Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles. Our aim is to provide readers with the highest quality reproductions of fiction and non-fiction literature that has stood the test of time. The many thousands of books in our collection have been sourced from libraries and private collections around the world. The titles that Trieste Publishing has chosen to be part of the collection have been scanned to simulate the original. Our readers see the books the same way that their first readers did decades or a hundred or more years ago. Books from that period are often spoiled by imperfections that did not exist in the original. Imperfections could be in the form of blurred text, photographs, or missing pages. It is highly unlikely that this would occur with one of our books. Our extensive quality control ensures that the readers of Trieste Publishing's books will be delighted with their purchase. Our staff has thoroughly reviewed every page of all the books in the collection, repairing or, if necessary, rejecting titles that are not of the highest quality. This process ensures that the reader of one of Trieste Publishing's titles receives a volume that faithfully reproduces the original and to the maximum degree possible gives them the experience of owning the original work. We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality but also providing value to every one of our readers. Generally Trieste books are purchased singly on demand however they may also be purchased in bulk Readers interested in bulk purchases are invited to contact us directly to enquire about our tailored bulk rates      Letters of a Portuguese Nun Myriam Cyr,2007-02-14 In 1669 a Parisian bookseller published a slim volume called Portuguese Letters which unveiled a love affair between a young Portuguese nun and a French officer that had occurred a few years earlier during a war torn period in Portugal The book contained passionate love letters from the nun when the officer was forced to return to France The letters took Paris by storm They spoke of love in a manner so direct so precise and so raw they sent shivers of recognition through the sophisticated stratum of polite society Equally remarkable was the mystery that surrounds the letters the author was unknown and most people assumed they were the fictional product of a French aristocrat Now Myriam Cyr persuasively makes the case that the nun Mariana Alcoforado did indeed write the letters and her story is one of the most moving in the history of forbidden love
