Taylor,2012-11-07

Forgotten for more than a century in an old cardboard box these are the letters of Guy Carlton Taylor a farmer who served in the Thirty Sixth Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry Regiment in the American Civil War From March 23 1864 to July 14 1865 Taylor wrote 165 letters home to his wife Sarah and their son Charley From the initial mustering and training of his regiment at Camp Randall in Wisconsin through the siege of Petersburg in Virginia General Lee s surrender at Appomattox and the postwar Grand Review of the Armies parade in Washington D C Taylor conveys in vivid detail his own experiences and emotions and shows himself a keen observer of all that is passing around him While at war he contracts measles pneumonia and malaria and he writes about the hospitals treatments and sanitary conditions that he and his comrades endured during the war Amidst the descriptions of soldiering Taylor s letters to Sarah are threaded with the concerns of a young married couple separated by war but still coping together with childrearing and financial matters The letters show too Taylor s transformation from a lonely and somewhat disgruntled infantryman to a thoughtful commentator on the greater ideals of the war This remarkable trove of letters which had been left in the attic of Taylor s former home in Cashton Wisconsin was discovered by local historian Kevin Alderson at a household auction Recognizing them for the treasure they are Alderson bought the letters and aided by his wife Patsy painstakingly transcribed the letters and researched Taylor s story in Wisconsin and at historical sites of the Civil War The Aldersons preface and notes are augmented by an introduction by Civil War historian Kathryn Shively Meier and the book includes photographs maps and illustrations related to Guy Taylor s life and letters Philip Larkin: Letters Home Philip Larkin,2018-10-30 Letters Home gives access to the last major archive of Larkin s writing to remain unpublished the letters to members of his family These correspondences help tell the story of how Larkin came to be the writer and the man he was to his father Sydney a conservative anarchist and admirer of Hitler who died relatively early in Larkin s life to his timid depressive mother Eva who by contrast lived long and whose final years were shadowed by dementia and to his sister Kitty the sparse surviving fragment of whose correspondence with her brother gives an enigmatic glimpse of a complex and intimate relationship But it was the years during which he and his sister looked after their mother in particular that shaped the writer we know so well a number of poems written over this time are for her and the mood of pain shadow and despondency that characterises his later verse draws its strength from his experience of the long lonely years of her senility One surprising element in the volume however is the joie de vivre shown in the large number of witty and engaging drawings of himself and Eva as Young Creature and Old Creature with which he enlivens his letters throughout the three decades of her widowhood This important edition meticulously edited by Larkin's biographer James Booth is a key piece of scholarship that completes the portrait of this most cherished of English poets Allen Peck's WWI Letters Home 1917-1919 Charles E Peck, 2005 Allen Peck's WW I Letters Home tell of his patriotic volunteer service for the brand new U S Army Air Service to fight for his country Allen's American group was sent to France to be trained by and to fly with a French escadrille The airplanes were small flimsy and slow with open cockpits and no heat No oxygen masks For young pilots these were exciting challenging and for some fatal months Allen survived plane crashes enemy planes shooting bullets through his cockpit and enemy ground fire A Croix de Guerre was earned for downing a German But the trauma was great After Armistice he wrote of the tragic toll on his original gang Twelve of us reached the front seven gone three wounded one unheard from and I was untouched After November 11 his letters tell of experiences at a French university of adventures at the American Embassy in London and of helping with Inter Allied Games He fell in love with and married a young French girl When his two year enlistment was up Allen chose at first to stay in Paris But after five months he headed back home to America with his new wife Marguerite 65 names of individuals with whom he flew or interacted are indexed Letters Home from Spain, Algeria and Brazil, During Past Entomological Rambles Clark, 1867
