texts Written in the mid 19th century the letters reflect Borrow s unique literary style characterized by rich descriptive language and a keen insight into the cultural contexts of his time This work not only provides an intimate glimpse into the workings of the British and Foreign Bible Society but also illuminates the religious and sociopolitical concerns of the era illustrating how Borrow navigated these complexities through his advocacy for the translation of the Bible into vernacular languages George Borrow a prominent writer and philologist held a lifelong commitment to linguistic diversity and evangelism His experiences traveling across Europe particularly in Spain and Portugal deeply influenced his understanding of culture and religion These adventures inspired him to engage with the Bible Society emphasizing the crucial role of accessible scripture in various languages His personal journey as a nonconformist and linguist significantly shaped his worldview making this collection both an intellectual and historical treasure For those interested in the intersection of literature religion and cultural studies Borrow s letters offer valuable insights into the period s complexities This book is highly recommended for scholars students and anyone eager to explore the fervent voice of a writer committed to bridging cultures through the written word

Letters Of George Borrow George Borrow,2019-09-25 Reproduction of the original Letters Of George Borrow by George Borrow Letters of George Borrow to the British and Foreign Bible Society. Published by Direction of the Committee. Edited by T.H. Darlow British and Foreign Bible Society,1911 Letters of George Borrow T. H. Darlow,2015-07-10 Excerpt from Letters of George Borrow To the British and Foreign Bible Society These were at once submitted to Dr Knapp for his inspection with an expression of sincere regret that they had been found too late for him to utilise The Committee of the Bible Society decided that the letters should be published and entrusted the editorship to Mr Gordon Watt That gifted scholar began preparations for the purpose but within a few months he died in the early prime of his usefulness and to the lasting grief of his friends Eventually the Committee requested me to carry out the task which he left unfulfilled and after much unavoidable delay it has at length been completed The present volume includes all the letters reports and other documents addressed by George Borrow to the Bible Society during his association with its work which are in the Society s possession Nothing has been omitted except a few brief advices of drafts forwarded or formal acknowledgments of money received which are quite without interest Most of the documents here printed are in Borrow s original autograph and bear the postmarks of their transmission The facsimile letter in this volume will give some idea of the bold clear script in which he wrote In the comparatively few cases where the originals are missing a contemporary copy has been preserved in the Society s correspondence books of the same date Each document is here printed in extenso without alterations or omissions except in two cases which are carefully noted see pp 11 143 The footnotes given in some letters are all Borrow s own In one respect only have I ventured on any change About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original
