Green,2020-06-09 Rethinking Therapeutic Reading uses a combination of literary criticism and experimental psychology to examine the ways in which literature can create therapeutic spaces for personal thinking It reconsiders the role that serious literary reading might play in the real world reclaiming literature as a vital tool for dealing with human troubles "The" Athenaeum ,1895 Romantic Actors, Romantic Dramas James Armstrong,2022-11-09 This book reinterprets British dramas of the early nineteenth century through the lens of the star actors for whom they were written Unlike most playwrights of previous generations the writers of British Romantic dramas generally did not work in the theatre themselves However they closely followed the careers of star performers Even when they did not directly know actors they had what media theorists have dubbed para social interactions with those stars interacting with them through the mediation of mass communication whether as audience members newspaper and memoir readers or consumers of prints porcelain miniatures and other manifestations of fan culture This study takes an in depth look at four pairs of performers and playwrights Sarah Siddons and Joanna Baillie Julia Glover and Samuel Taylor Coleridge Edmund Kean and Lord Byron and Eliza O'Neill and Percy Bysshe Shelley These charismatic performers knowingly or not helped to guide the development of a character based theatre from the emotion dominated plays made popular by Baillie to the pinnacle of Romantic drama under Shelley They shepherded in a new style of writing that had verbal sophistication and engaged meaningfully with the moral issues of the day They helped to create not just new modes of acting but new ways of writing that could make use of their extraordinary talents Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth
