produced theirs but the Frankish code is the least Romanized and most Germanic of the three Unlike Roman law this code does not emphasize marriage and the family inheritance gifts and contracts rather Lex Salica is largely devoted to establishing fixed monetary or other penalties for a wide variety of damaging acts such as killing women and children striking a man on the head so that the brain shows or skinning a dead horse without the consent of its owner An important resource for students and scholars of medieval and legal history made available once again in Katherine Fischer Drew's expert translation the code contains much information on Frankish judicial procedure Drew has here rendered into readable English the Pactus Legis Salicae generally believed to have been issued by the Frankish King Clovis in the early sixth century and modified by his sons and grandson Childbert I Chlotar I and Chilperic I In addition she provides a translation of the Lex Salica Karolina the code as corrected and reissued some three centuries later by Charlemagne *Lex Salica : the Ten Texts with the Glosses, and the Lex Emendata.
